Case No.: 16-16964
Caption: ORDER VACATING THE AUTOMATIC STAY

THIS MATTER having been opened to the court upon motion of Katherine Turchiano (“Movant”), by and through her counsel, Feitlin, Youngman, Karas & Gerson, LLC, for the entry of an Order, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §362, vacating the automatic stay, effective upon entry of this Order, to allow Movant to prosecute a workers compensation action against any and all workers compensation insurance carriers providing workers compensation insurance coverage to Debtor with respect to Movant’s injuries suffered during the course of her employment with Debtor on December 9, 2013, and due notice having been given, and the Court having considered the papers submitted, and all opposition having been considered, if any, and good cause having been shown, it is hereby ORDERED that the automatic stay in this case is vacated so as to permit Movant to prosecute a workers compensation action in the court(s) of appropriate jurisdiction against any and all workers compensation insurance carriers providing workers compensation insurance coverage to Debtor with respect to Movant’s injuries suffered during the course of her employment with Debtor on December 9, 2013, as limited by the funds available under any and all such workers compensation insurance policies that provide workers compensation coverage for Debtor, and not to be abstracted against Debtor; and it is hereby further

ORDERED that the terms of this order have immediate effect; and it is further

ORDERED that Movant shall serve this Order on Debtor, the trustee and any other party who entered an appearance on this motion.

Signed this _____ day of _____, 2017
