Re: Case Number: 16-40050, Northern District of California

Please find enclosed my proof of claim with attached exhibits A and B, and a copy of those items.

I would like to call attention to the fact that I have reason to believe I have property at the Premier Cru (the Debtor's) premises, because I was emailed from the Premier Cru staff on July 15, 2015 that this property was present at the warehouse as listed in Exhibit B, and I have not picked up or had shipped that property since notification. Their practice was to store acquired property as a courtesy for consumers like me and this property should exist possibly with my last name on holding containers. My email address on file at Premier Cru was, and is, rk99@yahoo.com.

As such, if property listed in Exhibit B is present in the Debtor's premises, I believe I have title to that property and ask that I be allowed to retrieve it.

I would also like to mention that I have hard copies for each of the sales orders listed in Exhibit A, amounting to several hundred pages, which I can provide. I did not include these hard copies as all the pertinent information presented on those copies is included in Exhibit A.

Sincerely,

2/26/2016

Ray Kloth
