Official Form 410

Proof of Claim

12/15

Read the instructions before filling out this form. This form is for making a claim for payment in a bankruptcy case. Do not use this form to make a request for payment of an administrative expense. Make such a request according to 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Filers must leave out or redact information that is entitled to privacy on this form or on any attached documents. Attach redacted copies of any documents that support the claim, such as promissory notes, purchase orders, invoices, itemized statements of running accounts, contracts, judgments, mortgages, and security agreements. Do not send original documents; they may be destroyed after scanning. If the documents are not available, explain in an attachment.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157, and 3571.

Fill in all the information about the claim as of the date the case was filed. That date is on the notice of bankruptcy (Form 309) that you received.

This merchant sells wine futures for wine that generally has yet to be made or is currently aging and it is delivered at a future date, sometimes months or years later.

To handle your claim, it is important that we establish the actual time period the wine would be available for delivery. If we file a claim with the merchant's bank prematurely, it may hinder our ability to assist you now or in the future. It is extremely important that we receive accurate information so we are able to assist you.

Please provide us the last possible expected date to receive the product. We need to know what was ordered and please be specific to types of wine and how many bottles or cases for each transaction or provide the invoices.

If the merchant has advised you personally that they will not be able to deliver your order, please provide a copy of that correspondence and any other documentation that supports your claim.

Please return this letter with the requested information by 01/22/2016. Our fax number is 1-866-799-4758. However, if this charge is correct and you accept responsibility for payment, please contact our Billing Dispute Unit at 1-877-601-8029.

Once this information is received, we will be happy to continue our investigation further.

Sincerely,

Stacey Smith
