Official Form 410

Proof of Claim

04/16

Read the instructions before filling out this form. This form is for making a claim for payment in a bankruptcy case. Do not use this form to make a request for payment of an administrative expense. Make such a request according to 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Filers must leave out or redact information that is entitled to privacy on this form or on any attached documents. Attach redacted copies of any documents that support the claim, such as promissory notes, purchase orders, invoices, itemized statements of running accounts, contracts, judgments, mortgages, and security agreements. Do not send original documents; they may be destroyed after scanning. If the documents are not available, explain in an attachment.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157, and 3571.

Fill in all the information about the claim as of the date the case was filed. That date is on the notice of bankruptcy (Form 309) that you received.

Proof of Claim

When I first received the notice of possible dividend, the premiercru.net website was still up, and I checked the amount of wine owing to me at that time. The total dollar amount was $2,138. The web site is no longer active, so I am unable to provide concrete evidence from there at this time. It should be straightforward for you to verify the $2,138 from your records, as this information was available on the website at the time. As supplementary evidence that I have an account with Premier Cru and that the amount I am claiming is consistent with my past transactions, I attach a record from my Quicken account of all of my transactions with Premier Cru since September 2006. Many of the early transactions led to wine being successfully delivered. The bulk of the undelivered wine was for futures in the 2007 and 2008 vintage years, plus a few stragglers from 2005.
