Franchise Tax Board (FTB) reserves the right to amend this claim/request based on any audit or investigation of any filed income tax returns or any other audit or investigation.

FTB reserves the right to amend this claim/request in accordance with applicable law, including, without limitation, modifying the amounts claimed as an administrative expense, secured, priority, and unsecured for the purposes of this bankruptcy case.

FTB reserves the right to amend this claim/request to add additional penalties and interest.

FTB's records indicate an income tax return has not been filed for the following tax year(s): 2019.

Accordingly, FTB reserves the right to amend this claim/request based upon receipt of such income tax return(s), any audit or investigation of such return(s), or any other audit or investigation.

FTB's claim, to the extent it is secured, is secured by all property and rights to property whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, including all after-acquired property and rights to property, belonging to the debtor(s) and located in this state. (California Revenue & Taxation Code §19221; California Government Code § 7170.) Should the value of the collateral be determined to be less than the amount of the secured claim or should the lien be avoided in whole or in part, FTB reserves the right to amend this claim to state its unsecured non-priority claim and its unsecured priority claim.

Except to the extent stated herein, FTB has not identified a right of setoff or counterclaim. However, this determination is based on available data and is not intended to waive any right of setoff against this claim of debts owed to this debtor by FTB or any other state agency. All rights of setoff are preserved and will be asserted to the extent lawful.

Franchise Tax Board (FTB) reserves the right to amend this claim/request based on any audit or investigation of any filed income tax returns or any other audit or investigation.

FTB reserves the right to amend this claim/request in accordance with applicable law, including, without limitation, modifying the amounts claimed as an administrative expense, secured, priority, and unsecured for the purposes of this bankruptcy case.

FTB reserves the right to amend this claim/request to add additional penalties and interest.

FTB's records indicate an income tax return has not been filed for the following tax year(s): 2019, 2020.

Accordingly, FTB reserves the right to amend this claim/request based upon receipt of such income tax return(s), any audit or investigation of such return(s), or any other audit or investigation.

FTB's claim, to the extent it is secured, is secured by all property and rights to property whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, including all after-acquired property and rights to property, belonging to the debtor(s) and located in this state. (California Revenue & Taxation Code §19221; California Government Code § 7170.) Should the value of the collateral be determined to be less than the amount of the secured claim or should the lien be avoided in whole or in part, FTB reserves the right to amend this claim to state its unsecured non-priority claim and its unsecured priority claim.

Except to the extent stated herein, FTB has not identified a right of setoff or counterclaim. However, this determination is based on available data and is not intended to waive any right of setoff against this claim of debts owed to this debtor by FTB or any other state agency. All rights of setoff are preserved and will be asserted to the extent lawful. This claim amends claim filed on 05/14/2019 Claim# 2355.
