1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against HOMETOWN BUFFET, INC., a Minnesota corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“HOMETOWN”), BUFFETS, LLC, a Minnesota limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“BUFFETS”), ALAMO BUFFETS PAYROLL, LLC, a Texas limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“ALAMO”), FOOD MANAGEMENT PARTNERS, INC., a Texas corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“FMP”), MARTA CARILLO, an individual (“CARILLO”), and VERONICA VENCES, an individual (“VENCES,” and together with HOMETOWN, BUFFETS, ALAMO, FMP, CARILLO, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq., because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants,

1 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff
2 and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous 3 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

4 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 5 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 6 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 7 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 9 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 10 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

11 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 12 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
13 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 14 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

15 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 16 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 17 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 18 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 404, 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 19 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

20 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 21 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 22 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 23 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

24 8. On or around November 4, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 25 Code section 2699.3 online, of Defendants’ violation of various, including the herein-described, 26 provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as by certified mail, with return receipt 27 requested to Defendants, and each of them.

28 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not

1 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 2 calendar days of the November 4, 2020 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 3 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

4 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

5 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 6 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 7 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 9 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 10 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 11 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 12 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to 13 clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to 14 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for 15 meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or 16 safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or 17 drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary 18 bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of 19 pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned 20 for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time 21 entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for 22 paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 23 Employees.

24 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 25 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 26 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 27 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting
28 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come

1 early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under
2 Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in
3 and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock
4 out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend
5 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding
6 of employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 7 actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the 8 detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

9 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
10 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 11 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 12 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 13 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 14 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 15 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 16 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 17 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 18 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

19 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 20 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 21 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 22 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 23 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 24 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 25 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and 26 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

27 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
28 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish

1 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 2 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 3 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 4 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer; and other such information as required
5 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

6 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
9 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 10 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 11 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 12 Aggrieved Employees.

13 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
14 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 15 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
16 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 17 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

18 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 19 to pay Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon separation of 20 employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 and 21 applicable Wage Orders.

22 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 23 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 25 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 26 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, for the 27 purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the 28 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor

1 Code 2802.

2 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 3 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 4 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
5 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 6 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 7 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information
8 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 9 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

10 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 11 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 12 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 13 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 14 all other Aggrieved Employees.

15 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 16 failing to pay Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code Section 204, which 17 requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month 18 shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, 19 and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any calendar month, shall be 20 paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

21 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
22 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 23 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 24 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 25 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 26 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 27 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 28 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor

1 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

2 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other
3 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 4 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation
5 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 6 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
7 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 8 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 9 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

10 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 11 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 12 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 13 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 14 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 15 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 16 economic liberty.

17 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 18 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 19 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 20 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

21 PARTIES

22 A. Plaintiff

23 26. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff 24 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-25 exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, bussing tables, stocking items, 26 washing dishes, taking in customer complaints, cashing out cashiers, and working a register.
27 Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately June of 28 2005 through approximately September of 2019.

1 B. Defendants

2 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant
3 HOMETOWN is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under 4 and by virtue of the laws of the State of Minnesota and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, 5 State of California.

6 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant
7 BUFFETS is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing 8 under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Minnesota and doing business in the County of Los 9 Angeles, State of California.

10 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant ALAMO 11 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and 12 by virtue of the laws of the State of Texas and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State 13 of California.

14 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant FMP is, 15 and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the 16 laws of the State of Texas and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

17 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant
18 CARILLO is an individual residing in the State of California and at all times relevant hereto, is a 19 General Manager for HOMETOWN in the State of California. In that role, Plaintiff is informed and 20 believes that CARILLO exercised control over the wages, hours and/or working conditions of 21 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

22 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant VENCES
23 is an individual residing in the State of California and at all times relevant hereto, is a General 24 Manager for HOMETOWN in the State of California. In that role, Plaintiff is informed and believes 25 that VENCES exercised control over the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Plaintiff and 26 other Aggrieved Employees.

27 33. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 28 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,

1 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
2 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 3 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
4 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 5 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 6 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 7 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 8 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 9 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 10 include HOMETOWN, BUFFETS, ALAMO, FMP, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated 11 companies within the State of California, as well as CARILLO, VENCES, and DOES 1 through 12 100 identified herein.

13 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

14 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 15 mentioned herein, each of the defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 16 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 17 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 18 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

19 35. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 20 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 21 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 22 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 23 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 24 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 25 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 26 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 27 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

28 36. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 1 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210 – Against Defendants HOMETOWN, BUFFETS,
4 ALAMO, and FMP)

5 37. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
6 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

7 38. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 8 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 9 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 10 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 11 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

12 39. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 13 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 14 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 15 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 16 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 17 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 18 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

19 40. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 20 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 21 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 22 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor 23 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 24 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
25 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor 26 Code section 204.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against Defendants HOMETOWN, BUFFETS,
3 ALAMO, and FMP)

4 41. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
5 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

6 42. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
7 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 8 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 9 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
10 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 11 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer; and other such information as required
12 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

13 43. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 14 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 15 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 16 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 17 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

18 44. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 19 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

20 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 21 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 22 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 23 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 24 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 25 name of the employer; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, 26 subdivision (a).

27 46. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 28 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision

1 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
2 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 3 period for each subsequent violation.

4 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants)

6 47. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
7 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

8 48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 9 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 10 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 11 penalty as follows:

- 12 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 13 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 14 to recover underpaid wages;
- 15 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 16 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 17 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- 18 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

19 49. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 20 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 21 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid overtime wages and minimum 22 wages; receive meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; be paid timely wages during 23 their employment and after their employment separation; receive accurate, itemized wage 24 statements; be provided with the opportunity to inspect employment records; be provided with 25 notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; be provided with the proper accrual and use of 26 paid sick leave; and/or be paid out all paid time off and/or vacation wages owed at the proper rate 27 of pay.

28 50. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,

1 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
2 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
3 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 4 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

5 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5 – Against Defendants HOMETOWN, BUFFETS,
7 ALAMO, and FMP)

8 51. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
9 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

10 52. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 11 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 12 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 13 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 14 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 15 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 16 or papers of the person.”

17 53. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 18 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 19 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

20 54. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 21 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 22 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 23 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
24 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 25 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 26 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 27 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 28 earned.”

1 55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully
2 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 3 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 4 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision
5 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

6 56. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 7 willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain 8 accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow 9 inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

10 57. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 11 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 12 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 13 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

14 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants)

16 58. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 17 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

18 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other 19 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 20 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 21 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 22 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 23 Section 203 as follows:

- 24 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 25 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 26 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 27 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
28 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

1 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 2 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 3 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 4 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
5 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
6 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

7 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 8 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 9 employee.”

10 60. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 11 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 12 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ wages for all hours 13 worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 14 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting
15 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come
16 early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under 17 Defendants’ control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in 18 and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock
19 out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend
20 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding
21 of employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 22 actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; and failing to pay split shift premiums.

23 61. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
24 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 25 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one 26 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 27 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 28 subsequent violation.

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699 – Against All Defendants)

3 62. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
4 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

5 63. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 6 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 7 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 8 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 9 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 10 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

11 64. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 12 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 13 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 14 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 15 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 16 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

17 65. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 18 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 19 the failure to: pay overtime wages and minimum wages; provide meal and rest periods or 20 compensation in lieu thereof; provide accurate, itemized wage statements; pay timely wages during 21 employment and after employment separation; provide employees the opportunity to inspect 22 employment records; reimburse Aggrieved Employees for costs incurred in furtherance of their 23 work duties; provide notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; provide the proper accrual 24 and use of paid sick leave; paying employees all owed paid time off and vacation time owed by 25 separation at the proper rate of pay; and placing restraints on competition, whistleblowing and 26 freedom of speech, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to civil penalties for each of 27 these Labor Code violations in the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f).

28 66. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California

1 whom she seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 2 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

3 REQUEST FOR JURY TRIAL

4 67. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

5 PRAYER

6 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for 7 judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 8 A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 9 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- 10 B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 11 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
- 12 C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
- 13 D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and
- 14 E. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
