26 COMES NOW plaintiff SUSIE ANNETTE VALENZUELA ("Plaintiff"), as an aggrieved
27 employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys'
General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:
28

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2           1.           This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
3 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against HOMETOWN
4 BUFFET, INC., a Minnesota corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated 5 companies within the State of California (“HOMETOWN”), BUFFETS, LLC, a Minnesota limited 6 liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of 7 California (“BUFFETS”), ALAMO BUFFETS PAYROLL, LLC, a Texas limited liability
8 company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California 9 (“ALAMO”), FOOD MANAGEMENT PARTNERS, INC., a Texas corporation, and any of its 10 respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“FMP”), MARTA 11 CARILLO, an individual (“CARILLO”), and VERONICA VENCES, an individual (“VENCES,” 12 and together with HOMETOWN, BUFFETS, ALAMO, FMP, CARILLO, and DOES 1 through 13 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development 14 Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former 15 non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined 16 herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, 17 Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 18 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of 19 speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period 20 (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

21           2.           Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 22 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

23           3.           Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 24 Procedure sections 392, et seq., because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 25 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 26 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 27 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 28 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants,

1 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff
2 and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous 3 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County.

4 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 5 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 6 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 7 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
8 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 9 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 10 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

11 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 12 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
13 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 14 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

15 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 16 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 17 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 18 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 404, 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 19 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

20 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 21 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 22 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 23 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

24 8. On or around November 4, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 25 Code section 2699.3 online, of Defendants’ violation of various, including the herein-described, 26 provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as by certified mail, with return receipt 27 requested to Defendants, and each of them.

28 9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not

1 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 2 calendar days of the November 4, 2020 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 3 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

4 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

5 10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 6 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 7 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 9 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime 10 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 11 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 12 limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to 13 clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to 14 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for 15 meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or 16 safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or 17 drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary 18 bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of 19 pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned 20 for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time 21 entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for 22 paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 23 Employees.

24 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy 25 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours 26 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 27 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting 28 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come

1 early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under 2 Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in 3 and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock 4 out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend 5 company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding 6 of employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 7 actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the 8 detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

9 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
10 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 11 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 12 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 13 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 14 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 15 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 16 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 17 periods; and auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 18 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

19 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 20 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 21 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 22 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 23 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 24 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 25 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and 26 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

27 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
28 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish

1 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 2 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 3 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 4 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer; and other such information as required 5 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

6 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
7 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 8 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment 9 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 10 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 11 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 12 Aggrieved Employees.

13 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
14 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 15 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime 16 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 17 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

18 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 19 to pay Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon separation of 20 employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 and 21 applicable Wage Orders.

22 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 23 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 24 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 25 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 26 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, for the 27 purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the 28 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor

1 Code 2802.

2 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 3 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 4 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
5 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 6 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 7 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 8 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 9 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

10 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 11 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 12 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 13 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 14 all other Aggrieved Employees.

15 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 16 failing to pay Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code Section 204, which 17 requires that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month 18 shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, 19 and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any calendar month, shall be 20 paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

21 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
22 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 23 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 24 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 25 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 26 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 27 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 28 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor

1 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

2 23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other
3 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 4 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation
5 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 6 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
7 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 8 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 9 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

10 24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 11 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 12 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 13 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 14 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 15 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 16 economic liberty.

17 25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 18 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 19 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 20 Employees pursuant to PAGA.
