Special Announcements

Greenville Water's plan to reopen responsibly is focused on providing the safest environment for our staff and customers. This means we will continue to monitor the health of our employees; clean high touch areas frequently; encourage the use of face coverings and promote regular hand washing; limit the number of people in our buildings and outdoor spaces; and promote social distancing at all times. Please check our website www.greenvillewater.com and follow us on social media for updates on when we will reopen to the public. Act now and sign up for eBilling, a free and efficient way to view your Greenville Water statement! Review and pay your bill without the additional delays from standard mail delivery. eBilling also eliminates paper, which is good for the environment. You can enroll by visiting www.greenvillewater.com

If current charges are not paid in full by close of business on the printed due date, a delinquent fee of $7.50, or 5% of the bill, whichever is greater, will be added.
