INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, attach a complete copy of any power of attorney, and provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

RIDER TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF CVS CAREMARK PART D SERVICES, L.L.C.

BACKGROUND

2. CVS Caremark is in the business of, among other things, providing certain Medicare Part D prescription benefit and formulary management services to large and small businesses across the country. CVS Caremark and Graceway are parties to that certain Rebate Agreement, dated as of January 1, 2008, as amended (the “Rebate Agreement”). Pursuant to the Rebate Agreement, Graceway provides discounts, in the form of rebates, to CVS Caremark for certain drugs manufactured or developed by Graceway and included in CVS Caremark’s formulary for eligible beneficiaries of Medicare Part D prescription drug plans.²

² The Rebate Agreement is a confidential document. Graceway already possesses a copy of the Rebate Agreement, but an additional copy of the agreement is available upon request.

3. On September 29, 2011, the Debtors filed a motion to sell certain of their assets free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances and other interests to Galderma S.A., a Switzerland Corporation (“Galderma”), or another higher and better bidder for such assets (the “Sale Motion”). The Sale Motion also requested that this Court approve the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts to Galderma or another buyer, as applicable.

4. On October 20, 2011, the Debtors filed their Notice of (I) Cure Amounts With Respect to Executory Contracts to be Assumed and Assigned and (II) Potential Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts [Docket No. 141], and then on October 21, 2011 filed an Amended Notice thereof [Docket No. 148] (together, the “Cure Notice”). Exhibit 1 to the Cure Notice designated the Rebate Agreement as a contract proposed to be assumed and assigned to Galderma.

5. Immediately before the auction on the Debtors’ assets, the Debtors advised CVS Caremark that they would not be assuming and assigning the Rebate Agreement to the buyer of the Debtors’ assets. On November 17, 2011, the Debtors conducted an auction on the sale of their assets and Medicis Pharmaceutical Corp. (“Medicis”) was selected as the winning bidder. On information and belief, the sale of the Debtors’ assets to Medicis closed on or about December 2, 2011 (the “Closing Date”).

PROPOSED REJECTION OF THE REBATE AGREEMENT

6. On November 23, 2011, the Debtors filed a Notice of Rejection of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases, but the Debtors designated the Rebate Agreement as a “retained contract” that would not be rejected under that Notice. On December 2, 2011, however, the Debtors filed a Motion to, among other things, reject certain executory contracts (the “Rejection Motion”). The Debtors designated the Rebate Agreement as a contract to be rejected under the Rejection Motion. As of the preparation of this proof of claim, the Bankruptcy Court has not entered an order on the Rejection Motion.

SUMMARY OF THE CVS CAREMARK CLAIM

7. As set forth in more detail on Exhibit A attached hereto, Graceway owes CVS Caremark approximately $61,699.44 under the Rebate Agreement (the "Claim Amount").³ The Claim Amount includes an estimate of the amounts Graceway owes to CVS Caremark for 4th quarter 2011, as final numbers will not be available until January 2012.⁴

8. Because Graceway has not assumed or rejected the Rebate Agreement as of the date hereof, CVS Caremark has performed and continues to perform under the Rebate Agreement, resulting in post-petition obligations owed by Graceway to CVS Caremark. Moreover, CVS Caremark was induced to perform, and in fact did perform, its obligations under the Rebate Agreement throughout the post-petition period including, without limitation, through the Closing Date. This proof of claim is without prejudice to claims that CVS Caremark had, has, or may have for amounts now or hereafter owing as an administrative expense allowable under 11 U.S.C. § 503(b), whether or not such amounts are included in this proof of claim, and CVS Caremark expressly reserves its right to file such a claim at an appropriate time. This proof of claim is also without prejudice to any additional pre-petition damages that CVS Caremark may assert in an amended proof of claim.

9. CVS Caremark hereby asserts and reserves all rights to exercise any rights and remedies that it may possess as a holder of rights of recoupment and/or setoff against Graceway and/or the Debtors including, but not limited to, any rights and remedies under §§ 105 and 553 of the Bankruptcy Code. CVS Caremark also expressly reserves the right to: (a) alter, amend, update, modify, supplement or otherwise revise this proof of claim in any respect at any time; and (b) file additional proofs of claim for any other liability or indebtedness of Graceway, whether based on the Rebate Agreement or otherwise. CVS Caremark specifically preserves all of its procedural and substantive defenses and rights with respect to any claim that may be asserted against CVS Caremark by Graceway or any other party in interest in Graceway's bankruptcy case, or any other person or entity whatsoever, including any challenge or defense to the jurisdiction of this Court over any such claim.

⁴ If the final numbers differ from the amounts set forth in this proof of claim, CVS Caremark will file an amended proof of claim reflecting those numbers.

10. The filing of this proof of claim is not and should not be construed to be: (a) a waiver or release of CVS Caremark's rights against any other person liable for all or part of any claim described herein; (b) a waiver of the right to seek to have the reference withdrawn with respect to any proceedings commenced in this case against or otherwise involving CVS Caremark (including with respect to any counterclaims to the claims asserted in this proof of claim); or (c) an election of remedies which waives or otherwise affects any other remedy of CVS Caremark.
