The Disputed Claims set forth on Exhibits A through C to the Proposed Order. The Disputed Claims set forth on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order are claims that were amended and superseded by subsequently filed claims. The Disputed Claims set forth on Exhibit B to the Proposed Order are claims that are duplicative of other filed claims. The Disputed Claims set forth on Exhibit C to the Proposed Order are claims that are not supported by any documentation. In support of this Objection, the Debtors rely on the *Declaration of Thomas E. In further support of this Objection, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Objection pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. The statutory and legal predicates for the relief sought herein are Section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007, and Local Rule 3007-1.

BACKGROUND

3. On September 29, 2011, each of the Debtors filed a petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the "Chapter 11 Cases"). The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to Sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On September 30, 2011, the Court entered an order consolidating these Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only [Docket No. 42]. On October 11, 2011, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured Creditors pursuant to Section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditors' Committee") [Docket No. 90].

4. Pursuant to an order of the Court entered on September 30, 2011 [Docket No. 43], the Debtors retained BMC Group, Inc. as its notice, claims and balloting agent (the “Voting and Claims Agent”). The Voting and Claims Agent is authorized to maintain (i) all proofs of claims filed against the Debtors and (ii) an official claims register by docketing all proofs of claims in a claims database containing, inter alia, information regarding the name and address of each claimant, the date the proof of claim was received by the Voting and Claims Agent, the claim number assigned to the proof of claim, and the asserted amount and classification of the claim.

5. On October 17, 2011, this Court entered the Order Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Docket No. 126] (the “Bar Date Order”), which established that any person or entity (excluding any governmental unit, as defined in Section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code), asserting a claim against the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases must file a proof of claim so that it is received by the Voting and Claims Agent on or before 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on the date that is sixty (60) days after the Debtors’ filed their schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs (the “Schedules and Statements”).

6. The Debtors filed their Schedules and Statements on October 31, 2011. Accordingly, December 30, 2011 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) was the deadline for filing proofs of claims against the Debtors (the “Bar Date”), other than claims of governmental units and administrative expense claims. Further, the Bar Date Order established that all governmental units asserting claims against one or more of the Debtors must file proofs of claims so that they are received by the Voting and Claims Agent on or before March 27, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

7. Notice of the Bar Date was mailed to all known creditors on November 1, 2011. See Affidavit of Service filed by the Voting and Claims Agent on November 8, 2011 [Docket No. 230]. In addition, on November 7, 2011, the Debtors published notice of the Bar Date in The Wall Street Journal (national edition). See Affidavit of Publication of Albert Fox in the Wall Street Journal filed on January 11, 2012.

8. The Debtors have since sold substantially all of their assets pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and have filed a plan of liquidation. In an effort to clean up the official claims register and leave the liquidating trustee in a good position to begin making distributions in accordance with and as contemplated by the plan if the plan is confirmed on April 11, 2012, the Debtors and their professionals have been reviewing, analyzing and resolving claims on an ongoing basis. To date approximately 220 proofs of claims (each individually a “Proof of Claim”) have been asserted in the Chapter 11 Cases.

RELIEF REQUESTED

A. Amended and Superseded Claims

9. The Disputed Claims included on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order are those claims that have been amended and superseded by subsequently-filed Proofs of Claims identified under the column titled “Remaining Claims” on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order (the “Amended and Superseded Claims”). The Amended and Superseded Claims, thus, no longer represent valid claims against the Debtors’ estates. Failure to disallow the Amended and Superseded Claims would result in the applicable claimants receiving an unwarranted double recovery against the Debtors’ estates, to the detriment of other unsecured creditors in these cases.

10. Therefore, the Debtors object to the allowance of each of the Amended and Superseded Claims included on Exhibit A to the Proposed Order and request that such Amended and Superseded Claims under the column heading “Claims to be Disallowed” be disallowed. If the Debtors’ objection to the Amended and Superseded Claims is sustained, the claims listed under the column heading “Remaining Claims” will remain on the official claims register, subject to the Debtors’ right to object on any grounds that bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law permits. Therefore, any claimant holding an Amended and Superseded Claim will suffer no prejudice by having the Amended and Superseded Claim disallowed. The Debtors request that the Voting and Claims Agent be authorized to cause the claims register to be amended to reflect the terms of the Proposed Order.

B. Duplicate Claims

11. With respect to the Disputed Claims listed on Exhibit B to the Proposed Order, it appears that the claimants erroneously filed the same Proof of Claim in the same amount against the same Debtor more than once (the “Duplicate Claims”). In those instances, the Debtors have objected to the claims that appear to be duplicative. The Debtors should not be required to pay twice on the same obligation. Moreover, the elimination of redundant claims will enable the Voting and Claims Agent to maintain a claims register that more accurately reflects the claims asserted against the Debtors.

12. Therefore, the Debtors object to the allowance of each of the Duplicate Claims included on Exhibit B to the Proposed Order and request that such Duplicate Claims under the column heading “Claims to be Disallowed” be disallowed. If the Debtors’ objection to the Duplicate Claims is sustained, the claims listed under the column heading “Remaining Claims” will remain on the official claims register, subject to the Debtors’ right to object on any grounds that bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law permits. Therefore, any claimant holding a Duplicate Claim will suffer no prejudice by having the Duplicate Claim disallowed.

C. No Supporting Documentation Claims

13. The Disputed Claims included on Exhibit C to the Proposed Order are claims for which the claimant failed to provide any documentation in support of its claim (the “No Supporting Documentation Claims”). The No Supporting Documentation Claims do not include sufficient information or documentation to constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim, and therefore, the Debtors object to the allowance of each of the No Supporting Documentation Claims included on Exhibit C to the Proposed Order and request that such No Supporting Documentation Claims be disallowed.

APPLICABLE AUTHORITY

14. Section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in pertinent part that:

the court, after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of [a] claim in lawful currency of the United States as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount, except to the extent that . . . such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured.

11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

15. The Disputed Claims noted above are unenforceable against the Debtors because they are either amended and superseded claims, duplicate claims, or claims not supported by any documentation. Therefore, pursuant to Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and Local Rule 3007-1, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order disallowing each Amended and Superseded Claim, Duplicate Claim, and No Supporting Documentation Claim.

RESPONSES TO THE OBJECTION

16. Filing and Service of Responses: To contest the Objection, a claimant must file and serve a written response to the Objection (a “Response”) so that it is actually received by the Clerk of the Court and the parties in the following paragraph no later than 4:00 p.m. (ET) on February 28, 2012 (the “Response Deadline”). Claimants should locate their names and claims in this Objection, and carefully review the Proposed Order and the exhibits attached thereto. A Response must address each ground upon which the Debtors object to a particular claim. A hearing to consider the Debtors’ Objection shall be held on March 16, 2012 at 9:30 a.m. (ET), before the Honorable Peter J. Walsh, United States Bankruptcy Judge, at the United States Court for the District of Delaware, 824 North Market Street, 6th Floor, Courtroom No. 2, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (the “Hearing”).

17. In addition, every Response must be served upon the following entities at the following addresses: (a) Office of the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court and (b) Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP, Attn: Michael R. Nestor, Esq. and Kara Hammond Coyle, Esq., Rodney Square, 1000 North King Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

18. Content of Responses: Every Response to the Objection must contain, at a minimum, the following:

- (a) a caption setting forth the name of the Court, the above-referenced case number and the title of the Objection to which the Response is directed; the name of the claimant and a description of the basis for the amount of the claim;
- (b) a concise statement setting forth the reasons why a particular claim should not be disallowed for the reasons set forth in the Objection, including, but not limited to, the specific factual and legal bases upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Objection at the Hearing;
- (c) all documentation or other evidence of the claim in question, to the extent not already included with the claimant’s Proof of Claim, upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Objection at the Hearing;
- (d) the name, address, telephone number, and fax number of the person(s) (who may be the claimant or a legal representative thereof) possessing ultimate authority to reconcile, settle, or otherwise resolve the claim on behalf of the claimant; and

- (e) the name, address, telephone number, and fax number of the person(s) (who may be the claimant or a legal representative thereof) to whom the Debtors should serve any reply to the Response.

19. Timely Response Required; Hearing; Replies: If a Response is properly and timely filed and served in accordance with the above procedures, the Debtors will endeavor to reach a consensual resolution with the claimant. If no consensual resolution is reached, the Court will conduct a hearing with respect to the Objection and the Response at the Hearing on March 16, 2012, at 9:30 a.m. (ET), or such other date and time as parties filing responses may be notified. Only those Responses made in writing and timely filed and received will be considered by the Court at any such hearing.

20. Adjournment of Hearing: The Debtors reserve the right to adjourn the Hearing on any claim included in this Objection. In the event that the Debtors so adjourn the Hearing, they will state that the Hearing on that particular claim referenced in this Objection, and/or Response, has been adjourned on the agenda for the Hearing on this Objection, which agenda will be served on the person designated by the claimants in a Response pursuant to paragraphs 17 and 18(e) above.

21. If a claimant whose claim is subject to the Objection, and who is served with the Objection, fails to file and serve a timely Response in compliance with the foregoing procedures, the Debtors will present to the Court an appropriate order disallowing the Disputed Claim without further notice to the claimant.

22. Separate Contested Matter: Each of the Disputed Claims and the Debtors' objections thereto as asserted in this Objection constitute a separate contested matter as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 9014. The Debtors request that any order entered by the Court with respect to an objection asserted herein shall be deemed a separate order with respect to each such Disputed Claim.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

23. The Debtors expressly reserve the right to amend, modify or supplement this Objection and to file additional objections to any Proofs of Claims filed in these Chapter 11 Cases including, without limitation, objections as to the liability, amount or priority of any claims listed on Exhibits A through C to the Proposed Order. Should one or more of the grounds for this Objection be dismissed or overruled, the Debtors reserve the right to object to any Disputed Claim listed on Exhibits A through C to the Proposed Order on any other ground.
