DISTRICT OF KANSAS AT KANSAS CITY

In re	:	Chapter 11
JOHN Q. HAMMONS FALL 2006, LLC, et al.,	:	Case No. 16-21142 (RDB) Jointly administered
Debtors,	:

ADDENDUM TO PROOFS OF CLAIM OF JD HOLDINGS, LLC

I. Applicable Debtors

JD Holdings, LLC ("JD Holdings") submits this Addendum to Proofs of Claim against all debtors in the above-captioned cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"), which relate to the Sponsor Entity Right of First Refusal Agreement, dated September 16, 2005, between JD Holdings and Debtors, among others (the "ROFR Agreement"), as amended by the Agreement and Amendment, dated December 10, 2008 (the "ROFR Amendment," and, collectively with the ROFR Agreement, the "ROFR"), with respect to any asset subject to the ROFR (each individually a "ROFR Asset," and collectively the "ROFR Assets").[1]

II. Bar Date Order

On September 12, 2016, Debtors filed their motion seeking an order establishing a bar date for proofs of claim. (Dkt. No. 440.) On September 28, 2016, this Court issued an order setting the bar date as December 23, 2016. (Dkt. No. 525.)

[1] A copy of the ROFR Agreement is attached as Exhibit A. A copy of the ROFR Amendment is attached as Exhibit B. A list of the ROFR Assets is attached as Exhibit C.

III. Amount of Claim

As detailed below, as of June 26, 2016, Debtors were and still are obligated to JD Holdings in respect of the ROFR in an amount not less than $587,600,000, an amount comprised of the following components:

- An amount not less than $304,100,000 arising from Debtors' contractual obligation to sell the ROFR Assets to JD Holdings at a 20% discount, which consists of a claim of not less than $290,800,000 and pre-judgment interest of not less than $13,300,000;
- An amount not less than $12,800,000 arising from Debtors' contractual obligation to sell the ROFR Assets to JD Holdings net of any broker's commission payable as a result of a sale;
- An amount not less than $261,700,000 arising from Debtors' contractual obligation to provide JD Holdings with 22.5% subordinate seller financing with respect to the sale of the ROFR Assets;
- An amount not less than $9,000,000 arising from Debtors' contractual obligation to reimburse JD Holdings for any and all attorneys' fees and costs, including any court costs and costs of any consultants incurred by JD Holdings in seeking to enforce its rights under the ROFR; and
- Other amounts not yet quantifiable.[2]

IV. Basis for Claim

This Proof of Claim sets forth the unsecured prepetition claims of JD Holdings arising under, or in connection with, or in relation to, the ROFR.[3] This Proof of Claim does not

[2] Under the ROFR, JD Holdings is entitled to specifically enforce its right to purchase the ROFR Assets according to the terms of the ROFR, which terms include a right to purchase the ROFR Assets at a 20% discount in the event of a material breach of the ROFR by Debtors and a right to receive from Debtors subordinate seller financing in the amount of 22.5% of the "All-In Purchase Price" (as defined in the ROFR Amendment). JD Holdings has pursued its specific performance right in a litigation captioned JD Holdings, L.L.C. v. Dowdy, C.A. No. 7480-VCL, pending in the Delaware Court of Chancery ("Delaware Litigation"). The damages arise from Debtors' failure to comply with their obligations under the ROFR. This Proof of Claim is submitted without prejudice to JD Holdings' rights in the Delaware Litigation.

[3] Although JD Holdings files these claims as unsecured claims, it notes that the ROFR, among other things, evidences a right in real property, and that the ROFR or a memorandum thereof was filed and/or recorded in the relevant recording offices and therefore, may be senior to other set forth the claims of JD Holdings or any other entity arising from, or in connection with, or in relation to any rejection of the ROFR, which claims will be subject to a separate Proof of Claim(s).

A. JD Holdings' ROFR Claims

John Q. Hammons was a hotel developer, owner, and operator based in Springfield, Missouri. In the mid-1990s Mr. Hammons formed a public company that owned over 40 hotels. In 2004, Mr. Hammons sought to take his company private, and in 2005, as part of a going-private transaction, he and Debtors then existing entered into the ROFR with JD Holdings. In general terms, the ROFR provides JD Holdings the right to match any bona fide third-party agreement to purchase a ROFR Asset on substantially identical economic terms, except that JD Holdings would not be required to pay certain fees, such as broker fees, mortgage transfer fees, and hotel franchise and licensing fees. The parties specifically agreed that the ROFR would be recorded on each of the properties "in the appropriate recording office." The ROFR also required the Revocable Trust of John Q. Hammons, dated December 28, 1989, as Amended and Restated (the "JQH Trust") and its affiliates to begin to sell the ROFR Assets upon Mr. Hammons' death, and to complete the sale of all of the ROFR Assets within 30 months of Mr. Hammons' death.

The parties entered into the ROFR Amendment in December 2008 and in exchange for JD Holdings waiving prior breaches of the ROFR Agreement by one or more Debtors, among other consideration, Mr. Hammons, the JQH Trust, and affiliates agreed to extend subordinate seller financing of up to 22.5% of the "All-In Purchase Price" of any subject property that JD Holdings purchased pursuant to the ROFR.

obligations pertaining to the properties and assets to which the ROFR relates. JD Holdings reserves all rights in connection therewith.

Following the ROFR Amendment, the Debtors continued to breach the ROFR and in 2012 JD Holdings commenced litigation against the JQH Trust in Delaware Court of Chancery (the "Delaware Court"). Mr. Hammons died on May 26, 2013, while the litigation was pending. On October 1, 2014 the Delaware Court held that the JQH Trust and other Debtors had an obligation to complete the sale of all the ROFR Assets by the later of (1) May 26, 2015 or (2) the liquidation of Atrium Hotels L.P ("AHLP"). The Delaware Court further held that failure to do so would result in a breach of the ROFR. AHLP completed its liquidation in September 2015. The JQH Trust never completed the sale of the ROFR Assets, and, consequently, materially breached the ROFR.

1. Twenty Percent of the Value of the ROFR Assets

Section 3.14(b) of the ROFR Agreement provides that upon a material breach of the ROFR with respect to any ROFR Assets, JD Holdings is entitled to purchase those ROFR Assets at a 20% discount. Section 3.2 of the ROFR Agreement provides that each "JQH Entity" (as that term is defined in the ROFR Agreement) is obligated to begin to sell for cash all of the ROFR Assets upon Mr. Hammons' death, and to ensure that every other JQH Entity has completed the sale of all of the ROFR Assets before the sale deadline set forth in the ROFR Agreement. Due to the Debtors' failure to begin to sell the ROFR Assets following Mr. Hammons' death, and separately, their failure to complete the sale of ROFR Assets by their deadline to do so, the Debtors each materially breached the ROFR with respect to each ROFR Asset. As a result, JD Holdings is entitled to purchase the ROFR Assets at 80% of their market value.

In addition, Debtors have encumbered certain of the ROFR Assets to the detriment of JD Holdings, which gives rise to a claim not yet liquidated. Based on positions that Debtors have taken as to the values of the ROFR Assets, this portion of JD Holdings claim is worth no less than $290,800,000.

JD Holdings also is entitled to pre-judgment interest in the amount of no less than approximately $13,300,000, calculated as interest on $290,800,000 at the Delaware statutory rate, which is 5% above the relevant Federal Reserve discount rate, compounding monthly, from September 21, 2015 through the petition date.

2. Broker's Commission Deduction

JD Holdings is entitled to an additional deduction equal to "any broker's commission" payable as a result of the sale transaction. The value of this deduction cannot yet be finally determined. However, by way of reference, Debtors' have agreed to pay UBS Securities the following fee in connection with any sale of the ROFR Assets:

> 1.5% of the sale transaction value for amounts up to an including $300 million, plus 1.0% of the sale transaction value for amount in excess of $300 million and up to and including $600 million; plus 0.75% of the sale transaction value for amounts in excess of $600 million and up to and including $1 billion; plus 0.50% of the sale transaction value for amounts in excess of $1 Billion. The sale transaction fee is subject to a minimum fee of $3,000,000.

(Dkt. No. 528 at 3-4.) Based on positions that Debtors have taken as to the values of the ROFR Assets, this portion of JD Holdings claim is worth no less than approximately $12,800,000.

3. Seller Financing

With respect to each of the ROFR Assets purchased by JD Holdings, Debtors are required to provide 22.5% seller financing for the All-In Purchase Price, which is defined as "the cumulative purchase prices paid or payable by the JD Holdings or its assignee to the sellers of the JQH Subject Hotels, inclusive of all third-party transaction, closing, and 'PIP' costs incurred by each Sponsor Entity if, in the case of 'PIP' costs only, a PIP is triggered by a 'change of control' of the applicable JQH Subject Hotel." See Exhibit B, ROFR Amendment, Schedule

2. The value of this financing cannot yet be finally determined, but the Debtors have previously taken the position that the seller financing may not be repaid, and therefore may be the equivalent of an additional 22.5% of the purchase price payable by JD Holdings. Based on positions that Debtors have taken as to the values of the ROFR Assets, this portion of JD Holdings claim is worth no less than approximately $261,700,000.[4]

4. Fees and Costs

Under Section 3.14(b) of the ROFR, JD Holdings is also entitled to payment from Debtors of "any and all attorneys' fees and costs, including any court costs and costs of any consultants incurred by [JD Holdings] in seeking to enforce its rights under this Agreement." See Exhibit A. This portion of JD Holdings' claim is worth no less than the $9,000,000 that JD Holdings has spent pre-petition to enforce its rights under the ROFR.

5. Failure to Make Franchise Agreements Assumable

Under Section 2.2(a) of the ROFR, Debtors were required to make any franchise license agreements that were amended, modified, extended, or entered into by Debtors subsequent to the signing of the ROFR Agreement transferrable to JD Holdings without the consent of the franchisor. See Exhibit A. Debtors also were required to use best efforts to insure that no fee was payable in the event of a transfer to JD Holdings. Id. Debtors failed to do so. The value of this portion of JD Holdings' claims cannot be finally determined yet.

6. Failure to Use Best Efforts to Make Mortgages Assumable

Under Section 2.2(b) of the ROFR, Debtors were required to make any mortgage, deed, or trust document that was amended, modified, extended, or entered into by Debtors subsequent to the signing of the ROFR Agreement transferable to JD Holdings without the consent of the lender. Id. Debtors also were required to use best efforts to insure that no fee was payable in the event of a transfer to JD Holdings. Id. Debtors failed to do so. The value of this portion of JD Holdings' claims cannot be finally determined yet.

[4] At the very least, the value of this claim is the difference between the cost of this seller financing to JD Holdings as compared to the cost to JD Holdings of obtaining financing on substantially identical terms from a third party.

B. Claims Against the Estate of John Q. Hammons For Which The JQH Trust is Liable

The JQH Trust is responsible for claims against the estate of John Q. Hammons, who is deceased (the "Hammons Estate"), including the claims of JD Holdings as described above. See First Restatement of Revocable Trust Agreement of John Q. Hammons Art. II(B), attached hereto as Exhibit D.[5]

V. Solvent Debtors

JD Holdings reserves its right to seek post-petition interest in the event that any or all Debtors are or are deemed to be solvent.

VI. Amendments and Reservations of Rights

JD Holdings has filed this Proof of Claim (including any documents or attachments submitted in connection therewith) under compulsion and authority of the Bar Date Order and to protect JD Holdings from forfeiture of its claims against the Debtors by reason of the deadlines established thereby. By submitting this Proof of Claim, JD Holdings is not conceding that the Court has jurisdiction over JD Holdings, or jurisdiction to resolve the claims between it and any Debtor, including the JQH Trust. In addition, by submitting this Proof of

Upon the death of the Grantor, the trust created herein shall become irrevocable and the Trust Estate shall be held, administered and distributed by the Successor Trustees in the manner and in accordance with the provisions, terms, and conditions hereof. The Successor Trustees shall pay out of the Trust Estate all expenses of Grantor's last illness and burial, all lawful debts owed by Grantor at the time of his death which are then due and enforceable and which are not paid by the personal representatives of his probate estate, and any and all inheritance, succession, and estate taxes payable on account of his death as hereinafter provided in ARTICLE IX." (Emphasis added).

Claim, JD Holdings is not conceding that the Court has jurisdiction over the Debtors, these bankruptcy proceedings or that these proceedings are properly before the Court. JD Holdings reserves all rights to challenge these proceedings, including on jurisdictional grounds.

The filing of this Proof of Claim does not constitute any of the following: (a) a waiver of any or all of JD Holdings' rights, claims, defenses, or remedies, whether under the ROFR or otherwise, against the Debtors or any other person or entity who may be liable for all or part of the rights, claims, defenses, or remedies set forth herein, whether an affiliate of the Debtors, a successor or an assignee, guarantor, or otherwise; (b) a waiver of any obligation owed to JD Holdings, or any right to any security that may be determined to be held for JD Holdings' benefit; (c) consent to a jury trial in this Court or any other court in any proceeding as to any and all matters so triable herein or in any case, controversy, or proceeding related hereto pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(e) or otherwise; (d) a waiver by JD Holdings of the right to a trial by jury in any proceeding so triable herein or in any case, controversy, or proceeding related hereto, notwithstanding any designation of such matters as "core proceedings" pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and whether such jury trial is pursuant to statute or the United States Constitution; (e) a waiver by JD Holdings of the right to have any or all final orders in any or all cases, controversies, or proceedings entered only after de novo review by a United States District Court judge; (f) a waiver of JD Holdings' right to seek to have the reference withdrawn with respect to the subject matter of these claims, any objection or other case, controversy, or proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other proceedings commenced in these Chapter 11 Cases against or otherwise involving JD Holdings; (g) an election of remedies; (h) an admission that any property held by the Debtors constitutes property of the Debtors' estates; or (i) a waiver of any past, present or future defaults (or events of default) by the Debtors or any other person or entity in connection with the ROFR, or otherwise.

JD Holdings expressly reserves any and all rights to amend, clarify, and/or supplement this Proof of Claim, including any schedules or exhibits hereto, at any time and for any reason, including, without limitation, to do any of the following: (a) correct, increase, or amend the amount of the sums referred to herein; (b) add or amend documents and other information, and to describe further the claims asserted herein; (c) file additional proofs of claim that may be duplicative in respect of the ROFR or any other indebtedness, obligations, or liability of the Debtors to JD Holdings; (d) add or include any other Debtor entity or any other entity, including but not limited to any entity which may become a debtor or debtor in possession in the Chapter 11 Cases, and add or amend categories of payments or liabilities; (e) further describe the claims asserted herein; (f) contest the validity, priority, and extent of any other purported liens and security interests other than to those described herein; and (g) assert a priority, security interest, or similar right with respect to the claims asserted herein.

No judgment has been rendered on the claims asserted herein or any part thereof. JD Holdings believes that such claims are not subject to offset, recoupment, or counterclaim.

This Proof of Claim is made without prejudice to the filing by JD Holdings of additional proofs of claim in respect of any other indebtedness, obligations or liability of the Debtors to JD Holdings. This Proof of Claim also expressly includes any and all rights to assert a constructive trust against assets or cash held by the Debtors, and also includes any and all amounts owed, for damages or otherwise, on account of any and all claims that JD Holdings has or may have, whether known or unknown, against the Debtors, and all those purporting to act on their behalf, whether presently asserted or to be asserted, including, without limitation, claims based upon any of the following: (a) common law fraud; (b) misrepresentation; (c) subrogation; (d) indemnity; (e) contribution; (f) unjust enrichment; (g) constructive trust; (h) fraudulent conveyance; (i) failure to fulfill contractual and fiduciary obligations; (j) breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing; (k) making, causing, or permitting to be made misleading statements regarding the business of the Debtors; (l) failure to take prudent and appropriate action regarding adverse business conditions affecting the business operations of the Debtors; (m) tortious interference; (n) quantum meruit; and (o) failure to require adequate financial and accounting controls for the Debtors, all of which singularly or collectively may have caused JD Holdings to incur damages related to the ROFR, or otherwise.

Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the rights, claims, and defenses of JD Holdings under the ROFR. This Proof of Claim also is without prejudice to any and all of JD Holdings' rights, claims, and defenses under the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the right to vote on any plan(s) in the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases.

With respect to any contingent or unliquidated claim asserted herein, JD Holdings does not waive its rights with respect thereto by not stating a specific amount at this time.

Each and every description in this Proof of Claim of the ROFR, and any and all other documents applicable or otherwise relevant to the claims asserted herein, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable provisions thereof, and all such documents are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein. In the event of any inconsistency between this Proof of Claim and such documents, the documents shall control.

JD Holdings expressly reserves any and all procedural and substantive rights, counterclaims, and defenses with respect to any claim that has been or may be asserted against JD Holdings, including, without limitation, any claim that has been or may be asserted by the Debtors, any trustee for the JQH Trust or the Debtors' estates, or any other person or entity.

JD Holdings does not waive any right to claim specific assets; any rights of setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim; or any other right, rights of action, causes of action, or claims, whether existing now or hereinafter arising, that any of them have or may have against the Debtors, or any other person or entity, and JD Holdings expressly reserves any and all such rights, rights of action, causes of action, or claims. With respect to any claim that is unliquidated or as to which the amount is undetermined, which such claim cannot reasonably be calculated at this time, JD Holdings does not waive its rights thereto by not stating such specific amounts at this time.

SPONSOR ENTITY RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AGREEMENT

THIS RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made as of September 16, 2005 by and among John Q. Hammons ("JQH"), the Revocable Trust of John Q. Hammons, dated December 28, 1989, as amended and restated (the "JQH Trust"), Hammons of New Mexico, LLC, Hammons of Frisco, LLC, Hammons of Colorado, LLC, Hammons of Arkansas, LLC, Hammons of South Carolina, LLC, City Centre Hotel Corporation, Hammons of Huntsville, LLC, Hammons of Lincoln, LLC, Hammons of Franklin, LLC, Hammons of Richardson, LLC, Richardson Hammons, LP and John Q. Hammons Center, LLC (collectively, with JQH and any other entity directly or indirectly controlled by JQH which owns a Hotel Property (hereinafter defined) now or at any time in the future, each of which will be added as parties to this Agreement, the "JQH Entities", and each, a "JQH Entity") and JD Holdings, LLC, and any Affiliate thereof (collectively, the "Sponsor Entity").

WHEREAS, in connection with a transaction whereby JQH Acquisition, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Newco"), through merger of its wholly-owned subsidiary with John Q. Hammons Hotels, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("JQH, Inc."), acquires all of the interests in JQH, Inc. and, indirectly, certain of the partnership interests of John Q. Hammons Hotels, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, ("LP") and John Q. Hammons Hotels II, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, ("II LP"), in each case owned by JQH, Inc., JQH or certain of his Affiliates (the "Formation Transaction"), Sponsor Entity desires to obtain a right of first refusal on all Hotel Properties owned at any time by any of the JQH Entities, and the JQH Entities are willing to grant such a right of first refusal.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration given and received by each party, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

1.1 Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following capitalized terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

"Affiliate" means, with respect to any Person, any other Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with such first Person. The term "control" (including with correlative meanings, the terms "controlling," "controlled by" and "under common control with") shall mean possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether by reason of membership, ownership of voting stock, partnership interests, by contract or otherwise. For purposes of this Agreement, JQH, Inc., LP and II LP and their respective Subsidiaries shall not be deemed to be "Affiliates" of JQH.

"Hotel Properties" shall mean interests in real property and personal property, tangible or intangible (other than any rights to any tradename using the name "John Q. Hammons" or "Hammons"), used in the operation of a hotel facility, or any interests in any related convention or entertainment facility, retail facility, parking facility or gaming facility, including, without limitation, fee interests, leasehold interests, interests in ground leases, easements and rights of way, air rights, surface rights, subsurface rights, debt or equity interests in corporations, limited liability companies, joint ventures, partnerships or other entities holding title to, or a leasehold interest in, any of the foregoing, interests in mortgages or other security interests in any of the foregoing, contractual management interests, and debt instruments as the Person who holds title to, or a leasehold interest in, such property may hold from time to time (each, a "Hotel Property").

"JQH Subject Hotels" shall mean those Hotel Properties set forth on Exhibit A hereto, and any Hotel Properties or any direct or indirect interests in Hotel Properties now or hereafter acquired by JQH or any JQH Entity or any of either of their Affiliates, including any properties under construction or being developed or intended to be developed as Hotel Properties (each, a "JQH Subject Hotel").

"Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, unincorporated organization, other entity or governmental body, in each case whether in such individual's or entity's own capacity or as an agent or fiduciary of another Person.

"Sale" shall mean any sale, assignment, lease or sublease (other than any retail space or concession lease entered into in the ordinary course of hotel business), transfer or other disposition, in a single transaction or as part of a single transaction or series of transactions, of (a) any interest in title to any JQH Subject Hotel or JQH Subject Hotels (as defined herein), or (b) any direct or indirect ownership or debt interests in the Person that owns title to any JQH Subject Hotel or JQH Subject Hotels, as a result of which title to such JQH Subject Hotel would not be 100% owned by JQH or an entity 100% owned by JQH. A Sale shall include (i) any grant of an option to purchase any JQH Subject Hotel or JQH Subject Hotels or any interest therein or any direct or indirect interest in the Person that owns title to, or the leasehold of, any JQH Subject Hotel or JQH Subject Hotels, and (ii) any issuance of any debt or other security convertible into equity interests in the Person that, directly or indirectly, holds title to, or the leasehold of, any JQH Subject Hotel or JQH Subject Hotels. The term "Sale" shall not include (i) a mortgage, deed of trust, or other collateral assignment intended to provide security for a loan or other obligation in favor of an unaffiliated third-party lender with a loan-to-value ratio not exceeding 90% and otherwise on market terms, or any foreclosure on any such mortgage, lien, or security interest by such unaffiliated third-party lender, (ii) any sale of a portion of the land or improvements relating to a JQH Subject Hotel that does not include the hotel and does not adversely affect the operation of the JQH Subject Hotel as a hotel, or (iii) the transfer by JQH or the applicable JQH Entity of the Hotel Property commonly known as Chateau on the Lake, located in Branson, Missouri (the "Chateau"), by means of gift, charitable contribution or donation to any trust or foundation as set forth in Section 3.3(b) herein. The terms "Sell" or "Sold" shall mean to dispose of, or to have disposed of, a JQH Subject Hotel or the direct or indirect ownership interests in the Person that owns title to a JQH Subject Hotel pursuant to a Sale.

"Subsidiary" of any Person means any other Person that, now or at any time hereafter, is directly or indirectly owned 50% or more (in terms of voting securities or other voting ownership or partnership interest) by such first Person; provided, however, that such other Person shall be deemed to be a "Subsidiary" only so long as the foregoing test continues to be met.

ARTICLE II
RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

2.1 Right of First Refusal Granted to Sponsor Entity.

(a) Prior to the Sale of any JQH Subject Hotel, the applicable JQH Entity owning such JQH Subject Hotel shall provide to Sponsor Entity a written purchase and sale agreement, expressly subject to Sponsor Entity's rights hereunder, executed by the Person selling such JQH Subject Hotel and a bona fide third-party buyer, requiring a cash deposit of at least five percent (5%) of the purchase price, refundable only if a Sponsor Acceptance Notice (defined below) is received, but otherwise nonrefundable, and setting forth the price for each such JQH Subject Hotel and other material terms upon which such Person has agreed with such third-party buyer to Sell each such JQH Subject Hotel, together with any written information provided to such third-party buyer with respect to such JQH Subject Hotel (the "Sponsor ROFR Notice"). Upon receipt of the Sponsor ROFR Notice, any Sponsor Entity may elect to purchase any such JQH Subject Hotel from the applicable seller thereof by providing a notice to such JQH Entity within thirty (30) days following the date of the Sponsor ROFR Notice (the "Sponsor Acceptance Notice"). If no Sponsor Entity responds to the Sponsor ROFR Notice within such thirty-(30-) day period (the "Sponsor ROFR Period"), the Sponsor Entity shall be deemed to have declined to purchase such JQH Subject Hotel pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) If any Sponsor Entity exercises its right of first refusal hereunder and sends a Sponsor Acceptance Notice within the Sponsor ROFR Period, then (i) contemporaneously with the delivery of the Sponsor Acceptance Notice, such Sponsor Entity shall deposit a nonrefundable amount equal to the lesser of (y) the amount of any earnest money deposit required to be made by such third-party buyer as set forth in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, or (z) one percent (1%) of the purchase price set forth in the Sponsor ROFR Notice (the "Sponsor Deposit") in escrow with a title insurance company or other escrow agent approved in advance by the parties and (ii) the parties shall close such sale transaction on substantially identical economic terms, except that (I) the purchase price payable by such Sponsor Entity shall be net of any broker's commission payable pursuant to the transaction described in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, (II) if the Sponsor ROFR Notice describes any non-cash consideration payable as all or any part of the purchase price of such JQH Subject Hotel, then a Sponsor Entity shall have the right to (A) pay non-cash consideration of a similar type and of equivalent value, and/or (B) pay cash consideration equivalent in value to such non-cash consideration, and (III) such JQH Subject Hotel shall be transferred (A) free and clear of any existing management agreement, (B) free and clear of any liens or encumbrances or restrictions or agreements of any kind of any Affiliate of JQH or any JQH Entity, and (C) if such JQH Subject Hotel is to be transferred subject to an existing mortgage pursuant to the transaction described in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, then JQH, or the applicable JQH Entity selling such JQH Subject Hotel, will pay any fee payable to the holder of such mortgage by reason of such transfer, and (D) if any fee is payable to any licensor or franchisor under any License Agreement affecting such JQH Subject Hotel by reason of such transfer, JQH or the applicable JQH Entity selling such JQH Subject Hotel, will pay any such fee. The Sale to such Sponsor Entity of such JQH Subject Hotel shall be closed at the time and on the date specified in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, but not earlier than sixty (60) days following the date of the Sponsor Acceptance Notice. The closing shall take place on the terms set forth in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, except as otherwise provided herein. If such Sponsor Entity shall fail to consummate such sale transaction in accordance with its terms, then the applicable seller shall have the right to sell the applicable JQH Subject Hotel as set forth in Section 2.1(c) below, and such seller may, as its sole and exclusive remedy, retain the Sponsor Deposit as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty.

(c) If no Sponsor Entity delivers a Sponsor Acceptance Notice prior to the end of the Sponsor ROFR Period, then the applicable JQH Entity, or its applicable Subsidiary shall, as of the end of the Sponsor ROFR Period (or the earlier waiver of such period by the Sponsor Entity), be free thereafter to sell the JQH Subject Hotel to such third parties on substantially identical terms as those set forth in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, and the Sponsor Entity shall provide to the applicable JQH Entity or the applicable Subsidiary the documents necessary to release its recorded right of first refusal as provided herein; and such documents shall be recorded upon closing of the sale of the JQH Subject Hotel to such third party; provided, however, that if the JQH Entity which owns the JQH Subject Hotel subsequently proposes to sell such JQH Subject Hotel to such third party for a price (the "Final Price") which is less than the price specified in the Sponsor ROFR Notice by an amount in excess of $50,000, then such JQH Entity shall, at least thirty (30) days prior to closing of such Sale, so notify Sponsor Entity, and Sponsor Entity shall have a period of fifteen (15) days within which to execute (at its option) a binding agreement to purchase such JQH Subject Hotel for the Final Price (net of any broker's commission) and with substantially identical economic terms as such JQH Entity proposed to sell such JQH Subject Hotel to such third party, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.1(b) herein. If Sponsor Entity elects to execute such purchase agreement and delivers a Sponsor Deposit with respect thereto, the applicable JQH Entity shall be obligated to accept it, and the Sale of such JQH Subject Hotel to such Sponsor Entity will thereafter be finalized in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.1 (b). If the applicable JQH Entity has not succeeded in consummating the Sale of such JQH Subject Hotel to such third party on substantially identical terms as those contained in the Sponsor ROFR Notice within 30 days after the time and date for closing of such transaction as set forth in the Sponsor ROFR Notice, then the applicable JQH Entity shall again comply with all of the provisions of this Section 2.1 prior to any Sale of such JQH Subject Hotel.

(d) It is understood and agreed that, if a Sponsor ROFR Notice is delivered hereunder with respect to a Sale of a partial interest in any JQH Subject Hotel, including any partial interest in the Person directly or indirectly owning title to any such JQH Subject Hotel, then Sponsor Entity shall have the right, but not the obligation, to deliver hereunder a Sponsor Acceptance Notice with respect to 100% of the interest in each such JQH Subject Hotel, and such Sponsor Entity shall purchase 100% of each such JQH

Subject Hotel for a purchase price calculated in proportion to the purchase price set forth in such Sponsor ROFR Notice and otherwise pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.1. For example, if the Sponsor ROFR Notice provides that 20% of the interest in a JQH Subject Hotel will be sold for $1,000,000, then Sponsor Entity may deliver a Sponsor Acceptance Notice, in accordance herewith, to purchase 100% of such JQH Subject Hotel for a purchase price of $5,000,000, and otherwise on the terms and conditions set forth in the Sponsor ROFR Notice.

(e) It is understood and agreed that the rights granted to Sponsor Entity in this Section 2.1 are and shall be subordinate only to (i) that certain Restriction, Repurchase and Right of First Refusal Agreement, entered into as of October 18, 1999 by and between Galatyn Park Corporation, a Delaware corporation and JQH, as Trustee of the JQH Trust relating to that certain hotel known as the Renaissance Dallas-Richardson, located at 900 East Lookout Drive, Richardson, Texas 75082, and (ii) a right of first refusal currently being negotiated between JQH and Jeff Smith relating to that certain Hotel Property being developed by JQH in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Each of JQH and any applicable JQH Entity agrees to cooperate with and assist Sponsor Entity in any negotiations between Sponsor Entity and either of such holders of such rights of first refusal described in this subparagraph (e) and to keep Sponsor Entity informed as to the status of such rights of refusal in the event of a Sale of either such Hotel Property, and, in any event, if such rights are not exercised by such holders in accordance with their respective terms, all of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall be in full force and effect with respect to each such Hotel Property.

2.2 License Agreements; Mortgages.

(a) JQH and each JQH Entity agrees that, from and after the date hereof, any franchise agreement or license agreement (each, a "License Agreement") amended, modified or extended, and any new License Agreement executed by any of JQH or any JQH Entity in connection with a JQH Subject Hotel shall specify that a transfer of such JQH Subject Hotel to any Sponsor Entity is permitted under such License Agreement, without consent of such licensor or franchisor, and JQH and each such JQH Entity will use his or its best efforts to negotiate that no fee is payable by reason of any such permitted transfer.

(b) JQH and each JQH Entity agrees that, from and after the date hereof, any mortgage or deed of trust document ("Mortgage") amended, modified or extended, and any new Mortgage executed by any of JQH or any JQH Entity in connection with a JQH Subject Hotel shall specify that a transfer of such JQH Subject Hotel to Sponsor Entity is permitted under such Mortgage, without consent of such lender or mortgagee, and JQH and each such JQH Entity will use his or its best efforts to negotiate that no fee is payable by reason of any such permitted transfer.

(c) Each Sponsor Entity agrees to deliver to any lender, mortgagee, licensor or franchisor under a Mortgage or a License Agreement affecting any applicable JQH Subject Hotel, any and all financial and other information which may reasonably be requested by any such lender or franchisor in connection with its agreement to permit transfer of any JQH Subject Hotel to any Sponsor Entity.

2.3 Transfers in Violation Void. Any Sale by JQH or any JQH Entity of any JQH Subject Hotel in violation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be void and of no force or effect.

ARTICLE III
GENERAL PROVISIONS

3.1 Term of Agreement; Suspension of Agreement.

(a) This Agreement shall continue in effect from the date hereof until all of the JQH Subject Hotels have been Sold.

(b) In the event (i) of the occurrence of a material funding default by Lender (defined below) under the Loan Agreement dated as of September 16, 2005 between John Q. Hammons Hotels Development, LLC, a Missouri limited liability company ("Borrower"), as Borrower and Atrium Lendco, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Lender"), as Lender (the "Line of Credit Agreement"), which is not cured within thirty (30) days after receipt by Lender of notice from Borrower of such material funding default, and (ii) no material default by Borrower under the Line of Credit Agreement has occurred, then JQH shall have the right, upon delivery of at least fifteen (15) days' prior written notice, to suspend the effectiveness of this Agreement during the period that both (i) and (ii) above are undisputed. In the event that the existence of a material funding default by Lender or the existence of a material default by Borrower is disputed as between the parties (in any such case, a "Disputed LOC Default"), then the parties to this Agreement agree (which agreement shall have no effect on any rights or obligations of Borrower or Lender under the Line of Credit Agreement) to submit such dispute to an arbitration proceeding, such arbitration to be completed within seventy-five (75) days of receipt by Borrower of a notice from Sponsor Entity of a Disputed LOC Default (a "Disputed LOC Default Notice"), held in a neutral city and conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association in effect at the date such Disputed LOC Default Notice is given, but not under the authority of that Association. Such arbitration proceeding shall be conducted by an arbitrator who is a partner at a nationally recognized accounting firm, or any other person with experience in the matter or matters to be arbitrated, mutually selected by Sponsor Entity and JQH. If JQH and Sponsor Entity fail to agree on an arbitrator within fifteen (15) days (the "Arbitrator Selection Period") of Borrower's receipt of a Disputed LOC Default Notice from Sponsor Entity, then, within ten (10) days after the expiration of the Arbitrator Selection Period, JQH and Sponsor Entity each shall select one arbitrator who is a partner at a nationally recognized accounting firm, or any other person with experience in the matter or matters to be arbitrated, who shall then select a third arbitrator who meets the qualifications specified above to conduct the arbitration. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding upon the parties to this Agreement, and neither party shall have the right to appeal any such decision (except in the case of manifest error). The thirty- (30-) day cure period, or, if applicable, the fifteen- (15-) day notice period referenced in the preceding sentence shall commence upon the issuance of an arbitration decision by such arbitrator.

3.2 Sale of JQH Subject Hotels upon JQH Demise. JQH, each applicable JQH Entity and the JQH Trust agree that, upon the death of JQH, the JQH Trust and each applicable JQH Entity will Sell for cash or cause the Sale for cash of all of the JQH Subject Hotels to be completed no later than the later to occur of (a) two (2) years after the date of JQH's demise, and (b) full redemption or other permitted disposition by JQH and his Affiliates of all of his and their preferred interests in Newco. Subject to the provisions of Section 3.16 herein, each of Sponsor Entity and the JQH Trust and other applicable JQH Entity agrees, for a period expiring 90 days after the date of JQH's demise, to negotiate exclusively and in good faith with each other to Sell the JQH Subject Hotels to a Sponsor Entity or an Affiliate thereof for prices and upon terms mutually acceptable to the JQH Trust or other applicable JQH Entity and to Sponsor Entity. Any other Sale of a JQH Subject Hotel shall be subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

3.3 Successors and Assigns.

(a) This right of first refusal of Sponsor Entity may be assigned, without JQH's approval, to any other Person controlled, directly or indirectly, by any Sponsor Entity or Newco or any Affiliate of any of them. Any other assignment of any Sponsor Entity's rights hereunder shall be subject to JQH's prior written approval. Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto and their successors by operation of law or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, following delivery of a Sponsor Acceptance Notice, such Sponsor Entity may assign the right to purchase such JQH Subject Hotel to any other Sponsor Entity or an Affiliate thereof.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, each of JQH and any applicable JQH Entity owning a JQH Subject Hotel or direct or indirect interest therein agrees not to transfer, by means of gift, charitable contribution or donation to a charitable organization or otherwise, any JQH Subject Hotel or interest therein during the term of this Agreement, other than the Chateau, the initial transfer of which is subject to a separate agreement of even date herewith among the parties hereto. Any subsequent sale of the Chateau for consideration shall be deemed to be a Sale hereunder and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

3.4 Delivery of Information. JQH and each JQH Entity agrees to deliver to the other parties hereto any and all broker solicitations and correspondence and any and all written offers to purchase or expressions of interest in any JQH Subject Hotel, identifying the interested party (whether solicited or unsolicited), within ten (10) days after receipt thereof. In addition, subject to the provisions of Section 3.16 herein, each of JQH and any JQH Entity agrees, to the extent not otherwise delivered in accordance with any other Formation Transaction document, to deliver to the other parties hereto (for informational purposes only) annual operating statements of each JQH Subject Hotel, together with annual budgets for each JQH Subject Hotel.

3.5 Amendments; Waivers. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by, or on behalf of, each of the parties hereto. The failure of a party to insist upon strict adherence to any term of this Agreement on any occasion shall not be considered a waiver or deprive such party of the right to insist later on adherence hereto, or thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or any other term of this Agreement. Any waiver must be in writing and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought in order to be effective.

3.6 Governing Law. The interpretation and construction of this Agreement and (unless otherwise expressly provided herein) all amendments hereof and waivers and consents hereunder shall, to the extent the particular subject matter is controlled by state law, be governed by and be construed in accordance with the substantive law of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

3.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE IT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY OF THE AGREEMENTS DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE SUCH WAIVER, (B) IT UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH WAIVER, (C) IT MAKES SUCH WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (D) IT HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 3.7.

3.8 Jurisdiction; Service of Process. Any action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any right arising out of, this Agreement shall be brought against any of the parties only in the Courts of the State of Delaware or, if it has or can acquire jurisdiction, in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, and each of the parties consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts) in any such action or proceeding and waives any objection to venue laid therein. Process in any action or proceeding referred to in the preceding sentence may be served on any party anywhere in the world.

3.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes a complete statement of all of the binding agreements among the parties as of the date hereof with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, between them with respect to such subject matter.

3.10 Notices. All notices and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given (a) when delivered by hand or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, (b) when transmitted by telecopier (providing electronic confirmation of transmission) or (c) when received if sent by overnight courier (providing proof of delivery), to the addressee at the following addresses or telecopier numbers (or to such other address or telecopier number as a party may specify from time to time by notice hereunder):

References to "Sections" refer to Sections of this Agreement, unless otherwise stated.

3.12 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any party hereto or set of circumstances shall, in any jurisdiction and to any extent, be finally held to be invalid or unenforceable, such term or provision shall only be ineffective as to such jurisdiction, and only to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability, without invalidating or rendering unenforceable any other terms or provisions of this Agreement or under any other circumstances, and the parties shall negotiate in good faith a substitute provision which comes as close as possible to the invalidated or unenforceable term or provision, and puts the parties in a position as nearly comparable as possible to the position they would have been in but for such finding of invalidity or unenforceability, while remaining valid and enforceable.

3.13 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be considered an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

3.14 Remedies Including Injunction and Specific Performance.

(a) In the event that any JQH Entity shall fail to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, the Sponsor Entity shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedy that may be available at law or in equity as a result of such failure, to obtain an injunction and/or specific performance of any such obligations as a remedy for such breach, and each JQH Entity further waives any requirements for securing or posting a bond in connection with any such remedy.

(b) In the event that any JQH Entity shall default in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder in any material respect, then the Sponsor Entity shall have the right (i) to payment by such JQH Entity of any and all attorneys' fees and costs, including any court costs and costs of any consultants incurred by such Sponsor Entity in seeking to enforce its rights under this Agreement, and (ii) to purchase any JQH Subject Hotel in relation to which the JQH Entity failed to perform its obligations under this Agreement, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, except that the purchase price payable by such Sponsor Entity to purchase such JQH Subject Hotel shall equal eighty percent (80%) of the price otherwise payable hereunder.

3.15 Recording. Each of the parties hereto agrees that this Agreement evidences a right in real property of each of the parties hereto, and each agrees that this Agreement, or a Memorandum of this Agreement summarizing its material terms, shall be recorded in the appropriate recording office for each JQH Subject Hotel at closing of the Formation Transaction. JQH and each applicable JQH Entity hereby agrees that this Agreement or a Memorandum hereof may be recorded in any appropriate recording office in connection with any JQH Subject Hotel acquired or developed by JQH or any JQH Entity from and after the date hereof, and JQH and each JQH Entity hereby authorizes Sponsor Entity to record such Agreement or Memorandum.

3.16 Confidentiality. Except as otherwise required by law or judicial order or decree or by any governmental authority, each Sponsor Entity shall maintain the confidentiality of all nonpublic information obtained by it under this Agreement in a Sponsor ROFR Notice or pursuant to Section 3.4 herein, unless such information becomes known to the public in a manner unrelated to such Sponsor Entity. It is understood and agreed that such nonpublic information may be disclosed to attorneys, consultants, officers, directors, members or agents of any Sponsor Entity, to the extent deemed necessary by such Sponsor Entity, subject to such attorneys', consultants', officers', directors', members' or agents' maintaining the confidentiality of such information as set forth herein.

EXHIBIT B

AGREEMENT AND AMENDMENT

THIS AGREEMENT AND AMENDMENT, effective the 10th day of December, 2008, is by and between John Q. Hammons ("JQH"), the Revocable Trust of John Q. Hammons, dated December 28, 1989, as amended and restated, and each of the other entities set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto (collectively, with JQH and any other entity directly or indirectly controlled by JQH which owns a Hotel Property (as defined in the ROFR) now or at any time in the future, "Hammons") and JD HOLDINGS, LLC ("JD Holdings"). Capitalized words that are not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in that certain Sponsor Entity Right of First Refusal Agreement dated September 16, 2005 (the "ROFR").

WHEREAS, certain of the Hammons entities and JD Holdings, LLC are the original named parties to the ROFR, and the balance of the Hammons entities are each a JQH Entity within the meaning of the ROFR;

WHEREAS, Section 2.2(b) of the ROFR provides, in part, that any new Mortgage executed by JQH or any JQH Entity "in connection with a JQH Subject Hotel shall specify that a transfer of such JQH Subject Hotel to Sponsor Entity is permitted under such Mortgage, without consent of such lender or mortgagee, and JQH and each such JQH Entity will use his or its best efforts to negotiate that no fee is payable by reason of any such permitted transfer";

WHEREAS, certain of the entities comprising Hammons contemplate obtaining an $86,000,000 loan ("Loan") from certain lenders ("Lenders") pursuant to a Loan Agreement with U.S. Bank, as Agent, and its participant lenders, which Loan will be secured by mortgages against the Embassy Suites Hotel in Concord, North Carolina (the "Concord Embassy") owned by JQH – Concord Development, LLC, and the Embassy Suites Hotel in Huntsville, Alabama (the "Huntsville Embassy") owned by Hammons of Huntsville, LLC;

WHEREAS, the Lenders are requiring JD Holdings to execute a waiver of Section 2.2.(b) of the ROFR (the "Waiver") as a condition of closing the Loan and Hammons is requesting that JD Holdings execute the Waiver;

WHEREAS, Hammons has advised JD Holdings that Hammons has previously executed Mortgages with respect to the JQH Subject Hotels which do not comply with the requirements of Section 2.2(b) of the ROFR (together, with Concord Embassy and Huntsville Embassy the "Existing No Assumption Properties") and Hammons is requesting that JD Holdings waive such non-compliance by Hammons;

WHEREAS, Hammons is also requesting that Section 2.2(b) of the ROFR be modified to provide that JQH and each applicable JQH Entity are obligated to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any applicable lender to include Sponsor Entity as a permitted transferee under a Mortgage without the payment of a fee, as more fully described below; and

WHEREAS, JD Holdings is requesting, and Hammons desires to provide, seller financing to Sponsor Entity in the event of an exercise by Sponsor Entity of its rights to acquire any JQH Subject Hotel pursuant to the ROFR, as more fully described below;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Recitals. The above recitals are hereby incorporated herein by reference as if same were fully set forth herein.

2. Execution of Waiver and Delivery to Lenders. JD Holdings shall execute the Waiver in materially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A and deliver said Waiver to the Lenders to permit Hammons to obtain the Loan.

3. Permitted Transferee.

A. JD Holdings hereby waives any breach by Hammons under the ROFR to the extent such breaches are the result of JQH (or any JQH Entity) entering into Mortgages with respect to any of the JQH Subject Hotels without complying with Section 2.2(b) of the ROFR. Furthermore, from and after the date hereof, JD Holdings and Hammons hereby agree that the sole obligation of JQH (and each JQH Entity) under Section 2.2(b) of the ROFR (with respect to all existing Mortgages as well as any future Mortgages) is to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the applicable Mortgages to specify that a transfer of the applicable JQH Subject Hotel to Sponsor Entity is permitted under such Mortgage, without consent of such lender or mortgagee and without payment of any fee. Commercially reasonable efforts in this context shall be met if Hammons: (i) uses commercially reasonable efforts to cause the lender to approve Sponsor Entity as a permitted transferee without payment of any fee; (ii) advises JD Holdings of the proposed financing substantially in advance of its closing; (iii) arranges for a meeting (via telephone call) among the proposed lender, a Hammons' representative and JD Holdings to discuss, among other things, the qualifications of Sponsor Entity; and (iv) provides JD Holdings with copies of the applicable loan documents as and when they are available. Commercially reasonable efforts in this context shall not require Hammons to accept such financing on less favorable market terms than are otherwise obtainable from the lender.

B. With respect to the Existing No Assumption Properties and the "Future No Assumption Properties" (as defined below), Hammons hereby agrees to use commercially reasonable good faith efforts to assist and cooperate with JD Holdings in its efforts to cause the applicable lenders to consent to JD Holdings (or its applicable affiliate) assumption of the loan without payment of any fee. In that regard, if Hammons has provided any guaranty of, or indemnity with respect to, the applicable loan which JD Holdings (or its applicable affiliate) is seeking to assume, Hammons agrees, if required by the lender in connection with the loan assumption, to cause and permit such guaranty or indemnity to remain effective and in full force and effect following the assumption of the loan by JD Holdings (or applicable affiliate) until repayment of the loan, in full. Hammons hereby agrees to take any actions as may be required by the lender to effectuate this sub-section (B). As used herein, "Future No Assumption Properties" means any JQH Subject Hotel (excluding the Existing No Assumption Properties) with respect to which Hammons, despite using its commercially reasonable efforts as described above, is unable to obtain the consent of the lender to a transfer of the JQH Subject Hotel to a Sponsor Entity without payment of a fee.

C. To the extent Hammons is successful in obtaining the consent of a lender to a transfer of a JQH Subject Hotel to Sponsor Entity as a permitted transferee without payment of any fee, Hammons hereby agrees that at no time may Hammons amend or modify any of the provisions of the applicable loan documents governing the assumption of the loan by Sponsor Entity as a permitted transferee without payment of any fee. Furthermore, Hammons hereby covenants and agrees that no loan obtained by Hammons with respect to a JQH Subject Hotel will include provisions which change the economic terms of that loan as a result of the death of JQH and/or the assumption of the loan by Sponsor Entity.

D. No later than 30 business days following the date hereof, Hammons hereby agrees to deliver to JD Holdings:(i) the loan agreements, notes and mortgage documents executed by Hammons with respect to all of the JQH Subject Hotels which contain provisions permitting Sponsor Entity to assume the loan encumbering a JQH Subject Hotel; and (ii) a written notice identifying all JQH Subject Hotels (and the name of the applicable lender) which are subject to financing which financing does not include the right of Sponsor Entity to assume the applicable loan. Furthermore, no later than 30 business days following the date hereof, Hammons shall deliver to JD Holdings copies of all executed Memorandum required to be recorded pursuant to Section 3.15 of the ROFR, to the extent not previously provided by Hammons.

4. Line of Credit Agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained in the ROFR to the contrary, the parties hereto hereby agree that the terms and provisions of Section 3.1(b) of the ROFR shall not be applicable to a material funding default by Lender under the Line of Credit Agreement which is not cured as required by Section 3.1(b) of the ROFR if such material funding default arises in connection with the insolvency of iStar Financial, Inc., or as a result of iStar Financial, Inc. no longer being in the business of making loans, and, accordingly, the parties to this Agreement and Amendment agree that in the event of the occurrence of such a material funding default, the effectiveness of the ROFR shall not be subject to suspension. Neither the foregoing nor the provisions of Section 5 of this Agreement shall operate as a waiver by Hammons of other available rights and remedies not expressly limited herein in the event of a material funding default under the Line of Credit Agreement.

5. Hammons Financing. With respect to any and all JQH Subject Hotels which are purchased by a Sponsor Entity, Hammons hereby irrevocably commits to provide, or cause the applicable seller of the JQH Subject Hotel to provide, subordinate seller financing to each Sponsor Entity acquiring the JQH Subject Hotel (or its immediate parent company) on the terms provided for on Schedule 2 attached hereto. Schedule 2 is hereby incorporated herein by reference as if same were fully set forth herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, Hammons has no obligation to provide the subordinate seller financing described herein and on Schedule 2 during the existence of a material funding default under the Line of Credit Agreement which is not cured as required by Section 3.1(b) of the ROFR.

6. Breach. For avoidance of doubt, any breach by Hammons in its obligation to provide the subordinate seller financing described in Section 5 above which continues for five (5) days following delivery to Hammons of notice of such breach, shall be a material breach by Hammons under the ROFR and JD Holdings shall be entitled to all rights and remedies provided for in the ROFR as a result of a material breach of the ROFR, including, without limitation, the remedies contained in Section 3.14(b) of the ROFR. Furthermore, without limiting the foregoing and without determining whether or not any other breach of this Agreement and Amendment is a "material" breach of the ROFR, the breach of any other provision of this Agreement and Amendment which continues for five (5) days following delivery to Hammons of notice of such breach shall be a breach by Hammons under the ROFR.

6. Full Force and Effect. Except as modified hereby, the ROFR remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

7. Counterparts. This Agreement and Amendment may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument.

8. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and Amendment together with the ROFR constitutes a complete statement of all of the binding agreements among the parties as of the date hereof with respect to the subject matter contained herein and together with the ROFR supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, between them with respect to such subject matter. For the avoidance of doubt, the dispute resolution provisions contained in Sections 3.6, 3.7 and 3.8 of the ROFR shall govern this Agreement and Amendment.

9. Recording. Hammons and JD Holdings authorize each other to record a memorandum of this Agreement and Amendment setting forth all modifications to the ROFR agreed to herein (which memorandum may set forth the existence of the Hammons financing described herein but shall not set forth the specific terms and provisions of Schedule 2) in the land records of each county in which a JQH Subject Hotel is located. Hammons and JD Holdings hereby agree to execute any additional documents reasonably required by Hammons or JD Holdings to effectuate such recording.

10. Counsel. Each party to this Agreement and Amendment has had the benefit of counsel in negotiating and reviewing the terms contained herein.

11. JQH Entities. By executing this Agreement and Amendment JD Holdings is not agreeing that the list of entities comprising Hammons and set forth on Schedule 1 is complete and accurate and is not waiving or modifying the obligation of Hammons to subject each and every JQH Subject Hotel to the terms and provisions of the ROFR (as modified hereby).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the day and year first written above.

Schedule 2

TERMS OF SELLER FINANCING

Hammons hereby irrevocably commits to provide, or cause the applicable seller of the JQH Subject Hotel to provide, seller financing to the Sponsor Entity acquiring the JQH Subject Hotel on the terms and provisions below. All capitalized terms use herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the Agreement and Amendment to which this Schedule 2 is attached.

Lender: The seller of the applicable JQH Subject Hotel ("Lender").

Borrower: The owner of 100% of the equity in the SPV (described below) acquiring the JQH Subject Hotel.

Amount of Seller Financing: Subject to the limitations described herein, an amount equal to 22.5% of the cumulative purchase prices paid or payable by the Sponsor Entity to the sellers of the JQH Subject Hotels, inclusive of all third party transaction, closing, and PIP costs incurred by each Sponsor Entity if, in the case of PIP costs only, a PIP is triggered by a "change of control" of the applicable JQH Subject Hotel (herein, the "All-In Purchase Price").

Notwithstanding the foregoing: (i) on an aggregate and cumulative basis, the purchasers of the applicable JQH Subject Hotels must fund as equity in connection with the purchase of the JQH Subject Hotels, an aggregate minimum amount at least equal to 10% of the amount by which the All-In Purchase Price paid or payable for all JQH Subject Hotels exceeds the initial applicable senior acquisition financing obtained (or assumed) by the purchasers of all JQH Subject Hotels; (ii) in no event shall a Sponsor Entity obtain any new first mortgage financing (excludes all loans which are assumed) in excess of 67.5% of the All-In Purchase Price; and (iii) to the extent there is a sale of a JQH Subject Hotel pursuant to the ROFR prior to the demise of JQH and if: (i) the actual income tax payable by JQH as a result of such sales exceeds the gross cash consideration paid to JQH in connection with such sale; (ii) the taxes payable in excess of the consideration received will not be sheltered or offset by other losses or NOLs (to be confirmed in writing by JQH's accountant) (the net taxes due in excess of the consideration received and after taking into account available losses and NOLs is referred to herein as the "Net Tax Payment"); (iii) the sale is not structured as a like kind exchange; and (iv) following the payment of the Net Tax Payment, Hammons will have "Cash on Hand" (defined to mean cash, marketable securities and amounts available to be drawn on a credit lines) of less than $30,000,000, then the amount of Hammons financing required to be provided shall be reduced by the lesser of: (a) the Net Tax Payment; or (b) the amount by which the Cash on Hand following payment of the Net Tax Payment is less than $30,000,000, but in all events the amount of seller financing may not be less than 11.25% of the All-In Purchase Price (i.e. the maximum reduction in the amount of the financing is 11.25% of the All-In Purchase Price) and the limit on new first mortgage financing shall be similarly adjusted (as an example if the financing is reduced to 11.25% of the All-In-Purchase Price the cap on the new first mortgage financing is increased from 67.5% to 78.75%).

Term: 5 years

Prepayment: Seller financing is prepayable, at any time, in whole or in part, without penalty.

Interest Rate: 30 day LIBOR (determined based on quotes in Wall Street Journal two business days in advance of each month) + 3.75% for years 1-3, increasing 75 basis points per year thereafter, payable monthly, in arrears, based on a 365 day year. Amortization: Interest only for five years.

Collateral: Each JQH Subject Hotel will be acquired in a newly formed special purpose vehicle ("SPV") Each SPV will be a wholly owned (direct or indirect) subsidiary of a single parent company ("Newco") which will be an affiliate of Sponsor Entity. The seller financing described herein for each JQH Subject Hotel will be subordinate to the first mortgage financing on the applicable JQH Subject Hotel and shall be secured by a pledge of equity in the SPV owning such hotel. To the extent required by the senior lender, the Lender providing the seller financing will execute any form of intercreditor/subordination/standstill agreement customarily required by the applicable senior lender. To the extent the senior lender prohibits a pledge of equity as collateral for the seller financing after borrower has made commercially reasonable efforts to structure the seller financing as subordinate debt, then the seller financing shall be structured as preferred equity or other reasonably acceptable structure which meets the requirements of the applicable senior lender. To the extent required, Lender will reasonably cooperate to structure the financing in compliance with REIT rules.

Notice and Cure Periods. 10 business days for payment defaults and 60 days for non-monetary defaults; provided, however, if a non-monetary default cannot reasonably be cured within 60 days then the borrower shall have such additional time as may be necessary to cure such default so long as the borrower has promptly commenced and is diligently pursuing curing such default.

Guarantee: Full payment guaranty to be provided by Newco. No other recourse to any other direct or indirect owner of any SPV, other than the pledge of collateral described above.

Covenants: Non-financial covenants, including reporting, to be within the reasonable discretion of the Lender but may not be more restrictive than the non-financial covenants applicable to the senior lender. There shall be no financial covenants applicable to the seller financing. In no event following the closing of the acquisition of a JQH Subject Hotel shall the borrower under the seller financing refinance any senior financing for an amount in excess of the greater of: (a) 67.5% of the All-In- Purchase Price; or (b) the balance of the senior financing at the time of the purchase of the JQH Subject Hotel (plus any interest which accrues thereon) plus all costs and expenses incurred in connection with obtaining the replacement financing, unless any such excess is paid to Lender.

Event of Default. Customary, and in no event more restrictive than the events of default under the senior loan. Default interest rate of 5% per annum in excess of the stated interest rate.

JOHN Q. HAMMONS

FIRST RESTATEMENT OF
REVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT OF JOHN Q. HAMMONS

TO: John Q. Hammons, as Trustee of the Revocable Trust of John Q. Hammons, Dated December 28, 1989, as amended.

Under the terms of Article XI of the trust agreement identified above, I reserved the right to amend or revoke that agreement from time to time, in whole or in part, by written instrument. Pursuant to that right, I have previously amended the agreement on two (2) occasions. I now desire to further amend that agreement in many particulars and believe that the amendments would be better understood if the entire agreement is again restated (except for the introductory paragraph immediately before Article I and any schedules attached thereto). Accordingly, in exercise of the right reserved to me, I amend that agreement by substituting for it this amending instrument, which sets forth all of the terms and conditions relating to the administration, investment, and distribution of the property now and from time to time hereafter held under that agreement ("trust principal"), and the income thereof after this date. My trust shall continue to be referred to as the Revocable Trust of John Q. Hammons, Dated December 28, 1989, as amended and restated.

TRUST PROPERTY

The Grantor hereby declares that he has received in trust by transfer from himself as an individual, and that he holds as Trustee, the property held and titled in his name as Trustee, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the Trustee, upon the express terms and conditions and with the powers and duties hereinafter set forth. Additional property, including bonds, cash, securities, real estate and other personal and real property, may be transferred in the future from time to time to the Trustee or Successor Trustees hereunder, as well as life insurance proceeds payable to the trust estate, and cash and property received through Pour-Over Wills and other Wills, and any additional property shall, upon becoming a part of the trust estate, be held, managed, invested, reinvested, and disposed of on the same terms and conditions as the property originally transferred, all of that property being hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate," for the uses and purposes hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE II
DISPOSITIVE PROVISIONS

Trustee shall hold, manage, invest, and reinvest the Trust Estate, shall collect the income therefrom, and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

A. During Grantor's Life. During the lifetime of the Grantor, the Trustee shall pay to the Grantor all of the net income of the Trust Estate in equal installments or more frequently. If at any time the Grantor should file with WILLIAM J. HART, of Springfield, Missouri, DANIEL L. EARLEY, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and JACQUELINE A. DOWDY, of Springfield, Missouri, the Successor Trustees herein named (hereinafter referred to as the "Successor Trustees") his resignation as Trustee, in writing, or should Grantor become incompetent, physically incapacitated, or for any other reason be unable to act in his own behalf or manage his own business affairs, then the Successor Trustees herein named shall take possession and control of the Trust Estate for the duration of Grantor's incompetency, incapacity or inability to act in his own behalf or manage his own business affairs, and shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Grantor and his wife, JUANITA K. HAMMONS, so much of the net income and amounts from the principal of the Trust Estate as the Successor Trustees may from time to time deem necessary or advisable for their use and benefit in order to provide for the proper care, maintenance and support of the Grantor and his wife, Juanita K. Hammons. The determination as to the incompetency, incapacity, or inability of Grantor to act in his own behalf or manage his own business affairs shall be made by the Successor Trustees, unless determined by a court of proper jurisdiction, upon certification thereof to them by two qualified medical doctors, acknowledged by a qualified notary public or other public official in proper form for recording. Any payments of income or principal made by the Successor Trustees for the use and benefit of the Grantor and his wife hereunder, shall be made in any one or more of the following ways as the Successor Trustees may deem best: Directly to the Grantor; to the legally appointed guardian or conservator of the Grantor; to Grantor's wife, Juanita K. Hammons, for the benefit of Grantor and herself, or by the Successor Trustees using it directly for the care, support and maintenance of the Grantor and his wife without the intervention of any legal guardian or conservator.

B. Subsequent to Grantor's Death. Upon the death of the Grantor, the trust created herein shall become irrevocable and the Trust Estate shall be held, administered and distributed by the Successor Trustees in the manner and in accordance with the provisions, terms and conditions hereof. The Successor Trustees shall pay out of the Trust Estate all expenses of Grantor's last illness and burial, all lawful debts owed by Grantor at the time of his death which are then due and enforceable and which are not paid by the personal representatives of his probate estate, and any and all inheritance, succession, and estate taxes payable on account of his death as hereinafter provided in ARTICLE IX. In making those distributions, the Successor Trustees shall take into consideration all other sources of support which the Grantor's wife may have to the knowledge of the Successor Trustees. It is the Grantor's desire that Grantor's wife be able to live in a manner which shall be consistent with her accustomed manner of living.

3. Distribution Upon Death of Grantor's Wife. Upon the death of the Grantor's wife, JUANITA K. HAMMONS, the MARITAL TRUST shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The Grantor's wife shall have the power to appoint all or any portion of the accrued and undistributed income of the MARITAL TRUST to such one or more persons or entities (including the estate of the Grantor's wife), in such portions, amounts and manner, as she may appoint by a Will or other written document, signed and acknowledged, which specifically refers to this power of appointment. If or to the extent this power of appointment is not effectively exercised, the income shall be distributed in the same manner as the principal of the MARITAL TRUST.

(b) The rest of the MARITAL TRUST shall be added to the CHARITABLE TRUST, provided for in Paragraph D of this Article below, and the Successor Trustees shall hold, administer and manage it under the provisions of and as part of the CHARITABLE TRUST during the term of that Trust for the benefit of the respective beneficiaries thereof, with the net income therefrom to be paid and the principal to be distributed to those beneficiaries, for the same purposes, in the same proportions, and in the same manner as is hereafter provided in Paragraph D of this Article.

4. Intent to Quality for Marital Deduction. It is the Grantor's intent that this Marital Trust and any distribution made to this Trust shall fully qualify for the allowance of a marital deduction to the Grantor's estate for federal estate tax purposes. Therefore, all provisions of this Trust Agreement, including those granting powers of management and control of trust assets to the Successor Trustees, shall be construed and administered so as to carry out this intent, and any provision inconsistent with this intent shall be void. No power or discretion granted to the Successor Trustees or to any other person shall be exercised or exercisable with respect to this Marital Trust except in a manner consistent with this intent. Specifically, no provision of this Trust Agreement shall be deemed in any manner to (a) limit the right of the Grantor's wife to receive, or have used and applied for the exclusive benefit of the Grantor's wife, the entire income of this Marital Trust, currently, so long as the Grantor's wife shall live, (b) diminish or restrict the absolute power of the Grantor's wife to exercise, alone and in all events, the general testamentary power of appointment over the accrued but undistributed income of the Marital Trust, or (c) during the lifetime of the Grantor's wife, allow any person, including the Grantor's wife, to appoint any part of the Marital Trust to any person other than the Grantor's wife.

5. Conversion of Unproductive Property. If, at any time during the life of the Grantor's wife, the Marital Trust contains any assets which are unproductive of income, the Grantor's wife shall have the right, by written instrument delivered to the Successor Trustees, to require the Successor Trustees of the Marital Trust to dispose of that property and to reinvest the proceeds in productive property.

6. Division of Trust Estate Due to Partial Election. If the Grantor's Personal Representative determines to make a partial election under Section 2056(b)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to the gift to this Marital Trust, and if Treasury Regulations promulgated under that Code section shall permit the action contemplated by this provision without adversely affecting the deductibility of the gift to this trust for marital deduction purposes, then the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, may divide the trust estate into two separate and independent trust estates to be designated as the Marital Trust and the Non-Marital Trust. The dispositive, administrative and other provisions of each of the separate and independent trusts shall be identical to the provisions of the Marital Trust under this Article. This division shall be made with those formalities and in a manner as will comply with the requirements of the applicable Treasury Regulations. If the Treasury Regulations do not prescribe any formalities for the division, the Trustee shall execute an appropriate instrument specifying the facts and the manner of the division and shall file the instrument in the Probate Court or other court having jurisdiction over the Grantor's estate or, if it is not possible or practical to file the instrument in the Probate Court or other court, the Trustee shall deliver the instrument to the Grantor's spouse. A division of the trust estate under this Paragraph shall be made only if, as a result of the division, all of the assets of the Marital Trust under this Paragraph and none of the assets of the Non-Marital Trust under this Paragraph will be subject to the provisions of Sections 2044 and 2519 of the Internal Revenue Code. If the trust estate is so divided, all distributions which may have been made prior to the division shall be charged against the portion which, as a result of the partial election, will qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction. It is the Grantor's expectation that no distribution of principal should be made to the Grantor's spouse from the non-marital portion (prior to any division of the trust estate) or from the Non-Marital Trust (after the trust has been divided) until all of the marital portion or the trust estate of the Marital Trust has been exhausted.

D. Charitable Trust. The remaining one-half (1/2) of the rest, residue and remainder of the Grantor's Trust Estate shall be allocated to the CHARITABLE TRUST and shall be held, administered and disposed of as follows:

1. Distributions of Principal and Income. The Successor Trustees shall pay over to the tax exempt organizations listed on Schedule A, which the Grantor shall execute and attach to this Trust Agreement from time to time, all of the net income of the CHARITABLE TRUST, at least annually, in pro rata portions taking into account the principal amount and/or percentage designated to be received by each of the tax exempt organizations upon termination of the CHARITABLE TRUST. Each time the Grantor executes a Schedule A, it shall be deemed to be an amendment to this Trust Agreement, incorporated into this subparagraph by reference on the date it is executed, and the Successor Trustees shall make the distributions in accordance with that Schedule A. Furthermore, the Successor Trustee shall pay over to the tax exempt organizations listed on Exhibit A principal distributions from the trust estate, in pro rata portions taking into account the principal amount and/or percentage designated to be received by each of the tax exempt organizations upon termination of the CHARITABLE TRUST, at those times, in the manner and in the amounts as to avoid the imposition of a tax under Section 4942 of the Code.

2. Purpose and Charitable Intent. The trust estate of the CHARITABLE TRUST shall be administered and distributed exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (hereinafter called the "Code"). In the event any of the organizations listed on Schedule A are not then in existence or any distribution to an organization would not qualify as a distribution to an exempt organization described in Section 170(c), Section 2522(a) or (b), and Section 2055(a) of the Code, gifts to which would be deductible for Federal income, gift and estate tax purposes, the Successor Trustees shall distribute that designated principal and accumulated income to the other organizations listed on Schedule A then so qualifying as exempt organizations, in those amounts as the Successor Trustees shall determine. In the event none of the organizations listed on Schedule A are then in existence or are then exempt organizations described in Section 170(c), Section 2522(a) or (b), and Section 2055(a) of the Code, gifts to which would be deductible for Federal income, gift and estate tax purposes, or if the Grantor fails to execute and attach to this Trust Agreement a Schedule A, the Successor Trustees shall distribute the principal and accumulated income of the CHARITABLE TRUST to one or more exempt organizations as described in Section 170(c), Section 2522(a) or (b), and Section 2055(a) of the Code, gifts to which would be deductible for Federal income, gift and estate tax purposes, as the members of the Trust Committee established in Article IV shall, in their sole discretion, select as most nearly meeting the Grantor's charitable desires and in those amounts as they shall determine.

3. Perpetual Term. The Charitable Trust shall continue indefinitely and shall terminate only when the Successor Trustees, in their sole and absolute discretion, determine it necessary to terminate the CHARITABLE TRUST. Upon the termination of the CHARITABLE TRUST, the Successor Trustees shall pay all of its debts and obligations incurred in the administration of the CHARITABLE TRUST which are then due and payable, and shall then distribute the remaining principal and accumulated net income of the CHARITABLE TRUST to the tax exempt organizations in those amounts and/or percentages as listed on Schedule A. Any trust assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court having jurisdiction over the CHARITABLE TRUST in the county in which the principal office of the CHARITABLE TRUST is then located, exclusively for those purposes or to those organization or organizations, as the Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for those purposes.

4. Restriction on Use. No part of the net earnings of the trust estate of the CHARITABLE TRUST shall ever inure to the benefit of any private person. Furthermore, no substantial part of the activities of the CHARITABLE TRUST shall involve carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation. The CHARITABLE TRUST shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office (including the publishing or distributing of statements).

5. Authorization to Form Corporation. If at any time the Successor Trustees of the CHARITABLE TRUST determines that any part or all of the trust estate would be better or more conveniently administered in corporate form, or that incorporation of any part or all of the trust estate of the CHARITABLE TRUST would more conveniently or efficiently accomplish all or any of the purposes of the CHARITABLE TRUST as stated herein, then the Trustee may cause a corporation to be formed, bearing the name of the Grantor or any other appropriate name selected by the Successor Trustees and with those corporate powers and purposes (within the purposes of the CHARITABLE TRUST) as shall, in the Successor Trustee's judgment, be necessary or desirable to carry out the provisions of this Paragraph D. After a corporation has qualified as an organization exempt from taxation under the federal income tax laws then in effect, the Successor Trustees shall convey to that corporation that part or all of the trust estate of the CHARITABLE TRUST as the Successor Trustees shall determine. If a corporation is formed to administer any part or all of the CHARITABLE TRUST, the Successor Trustees then acting, and/or another person or persons as the Successor Trustees may designate, shall become incorporators and directors of the corporation, and the directors shall have all the powers given to the Successor Trustees under this Trust Agreement.

6. Statement of Intent. It is the Grantor's intent that (1) the CHARITABLE TRUST shall be exempt from federal income tax and (2) any gift to this CHARITABLE TRUST (including distributions from a decedent's estate or from any other trust) shall qualify for a charitable deduction under the applicable provisions of the Code. Any questions applicable to the CHARITABLE TRUST shall be resolved accordingly. No powers or discretion of the Successor Trustees with respect to the CHARITABLE TRUST shall be exercised or exercisable except in a manner consistent with this intent.

7. Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, no Successor Trustee of the CHARITABLE TRUST shall (1) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, (2) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, (3) make any investments which jeopardize the carrying out of the purpose of the CHARITABLE TRUST as described in Section 4944 of the Code, or (4) make any taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

E. Grantor Not Survived by Spouse. In the event the Grantor's wife, JUANITA K. HAMMONS, does not survive the Grantor as herebefore provided, all of the rest, residue and remainder of Grantor's Trust Estate shall be allocated to the CHARITABLE TRUST and shall be held, administered and disposed of as provided in Paragraph D of this Article II.

ARTICLE III
TRUST COMMITTEE

There is hereby established a Trust Committee which shall have the powers hereinafter granted in this ARTICLE III.

A. The initial Trust Committee shall consist of the following individuals: WILLIAM J. HART, of Springfield, Missouri, JACQUELINE A. DOWDY, of Springfield, Missouri, and JOHN J. SLABACH, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

B. The Grantor reserves the right to resign as Trustee, to remove the Successor Trustees named herein, and to appoint any individual(s) and/or financial institution(s) as the Successor Trustees. After the Grantor's death, or in the event he is no longer acting as the Trustee, the Trust Committee shall have the power to remove any of the Successor Trustees herein named and any other Successor Trustee appointed hereunder. The Trust Committee also shall have the power to appoint Successor Trustees to replace those removed, which power shall be exercised without undue delay. The Trust Committee shall act in its sole discretion in taking any action authorized in this paragraph and shall act by a majority of the members then serving. Any removal and appointment of any Trustee by the Trust Committee shall be by written instrument duly executed and acknowledged by a majority of the Trust Committee members then serving and by the newly appointed Trustee in proper form for recording in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Greene County, Missouri. A member of the Trust Committee, or one of the other Successor Trustees then serving shall deliver a copy of the instrument to the Successor Trustee being removed, which delivery shall deprive immediately that Successor Trustee of all powers hereunder, except those powers appropriate to the administration of the Trust Estate during the time required for the transfer of the trust assets. No purchaser from, or other persons dealing with, any Successor Trustee hereunder is obligated to examine deed records, and any person acting in good faith shall be protected in all transactions with any Successor Trustee being removed hereunder, whether or not any replacement has taken place.

C. If, through any Trust Committee member's ceasing or failing to serve, the membership of the Trust Committee shall be reduced to less than three (3) individuals, the remaining members shall appoint by unanimous vote a sufficient number of persons to bring the total membership to three (3) individuals. Any person may be reappointed to serve as a member of the Trust Committee.

D. In carrying out its duties, the Trust Committee shall act in a fiduciary capacity but shall not be required to furnish bond. Each member of the Trust Committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the performance of that member's duties. No member of the Trust Committee shall be entitled to compensation as a member unless the member is a licensed attorney or certified public accountant and is not serving as a Successor Trustee; and, in that event, shall be compensated for services on the basis of that member's customary charges for legal or accounting services.

E. Neither the Trust Committee nor any member thereof, as a member of the Trust Committee, shall have any power to establish or alter the beneficial enjoyment of principal or income of the Trust Estate or any trust created or authorized in this Trust Agreement.

ARTICLE IV
SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

A. Any Successor Trustee who resigns shall do so by delivering written notice of their resignation to the other Successor Trustees, to the members of the Trust Committee, and to each of the beneficiaries then entitled to receive any income of the Trust Estate, and by executing a written instrument duly acknowledged in proper form for recording in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Greene County, Missouri, which delivery shall deprive immediately such resigning Successor Trustee of all powers hereunder, except those powers appropriate to the administration of the Trust Estate during the time required for the transfer of the trust assets. No purchaser from, or other person dealing with, any resigning Successor Trustee hereunder is obligated to examine deed records and any person acting in good faith shall be protected in all transactions with any resigning Trustee hereunder.

B. Except as otherwise limited by this Article, a Trustee, Co-Trustee or successor appointed under this Article may be an individual experienced in business and financial matters, or a bank or trust company having net assets under management in excess of One Billion Dollars ($1,000,000,000) at the time of appointment. However, nothing in this Paragraph shall limit the power of the Grantor to appoint any individual, bank or trust company as Co-Trustee or successor Trustee.

C. A person serving as Trustee shall be deemed to have failed, declined or ceased to serve as Trustee in the event of the death, resignation, removal, or disability of that person. Disability of a Trustee shall mean a person whose ability to receive and evaluate information effectively, or to communicate decisions, or both, is impaired to an extent that the person cannot exercise a reasonable degree of care with regard to the duties of Trustee, or who cannot take any requisite actions due to involuntary detention or disappearance. An involuntary detention or disappearance of the Trustee shall be determined by an affidavit of at least two persons with that knowledge. The disability of a Trustee shall be determined by that person's regular attending physician or physicians; or if none, by any physician who has examined or treated that person for the mental or physical condition causing the incapacity or disability. A written report signed by that physician or physicians stating that the Trustee is disabled under the foregoing definition shall act as sufficient evidence as to that person's disability.

D. A majority decision of the then acting Co-Trustees of any trust estate shall be the decision of all of the then acting Co-Trustees, and shall bind that trust estate as fully as though it had been a unanimous decision of the Co-Trustees. However, any Co-Trustee not consenting to that majority decision shall incur no liability for, nor have any responsibility for, any action taken or omitted to be taken as a result of any majority decision.

E. No person dealing with the Trustee shall be obligated to see to the application of any money, securities or other property paid or delivered to the Trustee, nor to inquire into the authority of the Trustee to enter into and consummate any transaction or take any other action.

F. No Trustee shall be liable for any mistake in judgment in the making or retaining of investments, or any other decision made by the Trustee, so long as any decision is made in good faith.

G. The liability of the Trustee as a general partner in any specific partnership shall be limited to the assets which comprise the trust estate; and (1) the partnership, the other partners, all parties owning an interest in the partnership and all parties dealing with the partnership shall look solely to the trust estate for the payment of all claims, indebtedness and liability of the partners or the partnership and for the performance of any covenant or obligation, express or implied, of the partners or the partnership, (2) neither the Trustee nor the beneficiaries of the trust estate shall be liable for the debts, claims and liabilities of the partners or partnership or for the performance by the partners or partnership of any covenants or obligations except to the extent of the trust estate, and (3) the Trustee and the beneficiaries shall have no personal liability of any kind in connection with any partnership and shall be indemnified by the trust estate to the extent any liability in connection with a partnership is imposed.

H. No Trustee shall have any liability for the acts or omissions to act of any predecessor fiduciary, and in accepting the trust estate, no Trustee shall have any obligation to audit the accounts of any predecessor fiduciary. No Trustee shall be entitled to any acceptance fee or other additional compensation for auditing or investigating the accounts of any predecessor fiduciary.

I. Any individual acting as Trustee of any trust under this Trust Agreement shall be indemnified and reimbursed from the trust estate for any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred or sustained by that Trustee, in an individual or fiduciary capacity, by reason of any act or failure to act of that Trustee for or on behalf of and in furtherance of the trust. However, the protection provided by this paragraph shall not apply to any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred or sustained by reason of gross negligence or willful malfeasance of the Trustee.

ARTICLE V
TRUSTEE'S POWERS

Grantor does hereby vest in the Trustee the following powers, duties and discretions, in addition to any conferred by law, which shall also vest upon the resignation, incompetency or incapacity of Grantor, as provided in ARTICLE II above, in the Successor Trustees and their successors in trust, and shall be applicable to each of the trusts created herein, except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to the same extent as if set forth under each of the trusts:

A. All of the income received by the Trustee in the investment or reinvestment, management, operation and control of the trusts remaining after the payment of taxes and expenses incurred in the management, operation and control thereof, is hereby defined to be and is herein called "net income."

B. The Trustee shall hold, possess, manage, and control the Trust Estate and every part thereof with full power to sell, transfer, convey and dispose of all or any part thereof upon those terms and in any manner and for those prices as to the Trustee seems meet and proper.

C. The Successor Trustees may assign undivided interests in the trust property to the MARITAL TRUST and the CHARITABLE TRUST. The Successor Trustees are also specifically authorized to allocate and make distribution of assets to the separate trusts on a non-pro rata basis so long as values represent the proper amount, as more particularly set forth above in Paragraph 2 of ARTICLE II. Subject to the limitations herein set forth, Grantor authorizes the Successor Trustees to continue to hold securities, real estate and other investments which Grantor may own at the time of his death or disability, without consideration to the diversification of assets and without regard to the proportion any of the securities, real estate and investments may bear to the entire amount of the Trust Estate, so long as they are not or do not become unproductive beyond a reasonable time, and irrespective of whether they are of the class or kind of securities now or hereafter ordinarily approved or held to be lawful for the investment of trust funds; provided, however, that the Successor Trustees may sell or otherwise dispose of any investments if, in their sole discretion to do so would be in the best interest of the trusts, and Grantor hereby expressly exonerates the Successor Trustees from any responsibility for any loss resulting from the retention of any securities, real estate and other investments.

D. Subject to the limitations and prohibitions of law and those set forth in this Trust Agreement, Grantor gives and grants unto the Trustee full power and authority to invest or reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate which may come into the Trustee's hands in the manner and in any real estate, or interests therein, or securities, including corporation stocks, common or preferred, or other evidence of corporate ownership or participation, bonds, notes, debentures or other property, real or personal, of a class or kind now or hereafter held to be lawful or legal in the investment of trust funds, upon those terms and for any length of time as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, shall deem for the best interest of the Trust Estate, it being intended hereby to vest in the Trustee full power and complete authority to hold, possess, manage, control, sell, convey, encumber or lease the real estate for any term although extending beyond the term of the trusts, and to invest and reinvest the whole and every part of the Trust Estate according to the Trustee's sole judgment and discretion without any other limitation upon the Trustee's power and authority so to do, except that, after Grantor's death, and during the lifetime of Grantor's wife, JUANITA K. HAMMONS, the Successor Trustees shall not, without her consent, retain beyond a reasonable time any property in the MARITAL TRUST which may be or become unproductive or invest in unproductive property, and except as otherwise provided herein.

E. The Trustee shall make the determination as to whether any money or any property coming into the hands of the Trustee shall be considered a part of the principal or income of the Trust Estate in accordance with the laws of the State of Missouri then in force and effect, and the apportionment of any loss or expenditure between principal and income of the Trust Estate shall likewise be determined in accordance with the laws of the State of Missouri then in force and effect. In no event, whether or not Grantor's wife is living, shall any capital gains distribution of any mutual fund held by the Trust Estate be treated as income, but all those distributions shall be treated as principal.

F. Subject to the limitations set forth herein, every action taken by the Trustee pursuant to the foregoing powers or any decision made by the Trustee in the exercise of the discretion herein given to the Trustee shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons concerned herein. Likewise, the Trustee shall have the right to enforce any bonds, mortgages or other obligations or liens held by the Trust Estate; to take a conveyance in the name of the Trustee of property in satisfaction of or payment on those obligations; to enter into contracts and agreements, and to make any compromise or settlement of debts, claims or controversies as the Trustee may deem necessary or advisable; to submit to arbitration any matter or difference; to vote personally or by proxy any share of stock which may, at any time, be held by the Trustee hereunder; and similarly to exercise by attorney any rights appurtenant to any securities or property at any time held by the Trust Estate. Further, the Trustee shall have the power to borrow money, from time to time, in those amounts, upon those terms, from those persons, and for those purposes as the Trustee, with absolute discretion, may deem appropriate, whether or not that borrowing is for trust purposes; to guarantee or co-sign any indebtedness incurred by Grantor, whether or not for trust purposes; to make, execute and deliver notes, bonds, debentures, guarantees, or any other evidences of indebtedness, secured or unsecured, with those maturities within or beyond the duration of the Trust Estate and with that rate or rates of interest and upon any other terms and conditions as the Trustee, with absolute discretion, may determine; and to pledge, mortgage, assign or grant a security interest or lien in any trust assets to secure any indebtedness, whether or not the granting of any security interest or lien is for a trust purpose, or is for the purpose of the protection, preservation or improvement of the Trust Estate. Further, the Trustee shall have the power to effectuate public offerings with respect to all or any portion of the trust assets, upon those terms and conditions as the Trustee, in his discretion, may deem appropriate. This power shall include, but shall not be limited to, preparation and filing of registration restatements with federal and state authorities, the execution of agreements with underwriters and brokers, the appointment of registrars and transfer agents, and the issuance of securities.

G. The Trustee shall have the power to consent to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment of or other change, in any corporation, company or association, or to the sale or lease of the property thereof, or any part thereof, and to act or exercise any powers with reference to any securities or property held by the Trust Estate that may be legally exercised by any person owning similar property in his own right, including the exercise of conversion, subscription, purchase or other options, the disposition or exchange of securities, the entrance into voting trusts, and the making of agreements and subscriptions which the Trustee may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith. The Trustee shall have the power to cause to be registered in the Trustee's own name, without qualification or description, or in the Trustee's name as Trustee hereunder, or in the name of the Trustee's nominees, without qualification or description, any securities at any time held in Grantor's estate or in the trusts hereby created.

H. The Trustee shall have the power to carry out agreements made by Grantor and to continue, operate, and control any businesses which are held in the Trust Estate. The Trustee shall have the power to establish reserves for depreciation where depreciation is applicable, and to make adjustments as between income and principal in connection with any losses suffered by Grantor's Trust Estate.

I. The Successor Trustees may freely act under all or any of the powers given to the Trustee in all matters concerning the Trust Estate and the trusts hereby established, after forming a judgment based upon the circumstances of any particular situation, without the necessity of obtaining the consent or permission of any person interested therein, except as hereinabove provided, or the consent or approval of any court, and the devises and bequests made in this Trust Agreement have been so made in contemplation of that freedom of judgment and action. The Successor Trustees shall also have the power to make any division or distribution required under the terms of this Agreement, in kind or in money, or partly in kind and partly in money, so long as the values of non-pro rata allocations and distributions represent the proper amounts, as provided in Paragraph 3 of ARTICLE II above, and the division thereof shall be conclusive on all parties. Grantor expressly authorizes the Successor Trustees to sell assets of the MARITAL TRUST to Grantor's Wife.

J. Grantor expressly authorizes and empowers the Successor Trustees to borrow from anyone, at the prevailing rate of interest, for the protection of trust property or to avoid loss which might result from immediate liquidation, or for a similar purpose, as the Successor Trustees may deem necessary or advisable in the administration of the Trust Estate, and Grantor further authorizes and empowers the Successor Trustees to hold, mortgage, or otherwise pledge trust property as security for the repayment of those loans; provided, however, that no principal of the MARITAL TRUST shall be pledged, encumbered, or anywise charged with the payment of that indebtedness unless the consent of Grantor's wife, JUANITA K. HAMMONS, is first obtained in writing before incurring that indebtedness and the repayment of that indebtedness comes from depreciation reserves established by the Successor Trustees.

K. Grantor expressly authorizes the Successor Trustees to operate any business in which Grantor may be engaged at the time of his resignation, death, or incapacity as hereinbefore provided, and which are a part of the Trust Estate, in order to accomplish an orderly disposition of that business over the period of the trust in the best interest of the beneficiaries thereof, and to do all things necessary in connection with the operation and conduct of that business or businesses so long as the Successor Trustees shall consider it advisable to continue the operation and conduct thereof. Grantor leaves it entirely to the discretion of the Successor Trustees to determine the degree of their active participation in the management of that business or businesses over which the Successor Trustees shall have power of discretion, control or supervision, and Grantor authorizes the Successor Trustees to delegate all or any part of the Successor Trustees' powers to supervise, manage or operate to those persons as they may select, including any directors, officers or employees of that businesses.

L. Subject to the limitations and prohibitions of law and those set forth in this Trust Agreement, the Successor Trustees shall have the following powers which, in addition to any hereinabove granted (the applicability of which to the businesses Grantor hereby confirms), the Successor Trustees may exercise in their absolute discretion with respect to those businesses:

1. To engage, compensate and discharge any directors, officers, managers, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, architects, engineers, consultants or other representatives as the Successor Trustees deem advisable; Grantor expressly authorizes the Successor Trustees, in their discretion, to make incentive payments to managers and employees, including, but not limited to, stock options, bonuses, profit-sharings, pensions and premiums on life insurance policies.

2. To invest or employ in any businesses, or utilize as collateral for loans to any businesses, those other assets of the Trust Estate as the Successor Trustees deem advisable, subject to limitations above.

3. With respect to any businesses which are incorporated the Successor Trustees shall be entitled to treat the corporations as entities separate from the Trust Estate. In any accounting by the Successor Trustees it shall be sufficient if they report the earnings and conditions of the businesses in a manner conforming to generally accepted accounting principles, and what is income and what is principal shall be determined under Missouri Law. Standard practices observed in the management of business corporations of like character may be adopted by the corporations, through action of their directors, and allocations made in pursuance thereof shall be binding upon the Successor Trustees.

4. To sell, dissolve, reorganize or liquidate all or any part of Grantor's businesses at those times, for those prices, on those terms, and to those persons as the Successor Trustees may determine to be for the best interests of the beneficiaries of the trusts.

5. Grantor authorizes the Successor Trustees to exercise any of the powers and rights herein granted in conjunction with anyone who may also have an interest in any businesses.

6. The Successor Trustees are empowered to enlarge, diminish or change the scope or nature of the activities of the businesses, as may be deemed necessary to serve the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Trust Estate.

7. Subject to both the limitations and prohibitions imposed by law and those set forth herein, Grantor authorizes the Successor Trustees to exercise with respect to the retention, continuance and disposition of any businesses all of the rights and powers which Grantor would have were he alive at the time of the exercise.

8. Being aware of the fact that, in operating any business, risks must be taken, Grantor hereby releases the Successor Trustees from any personal liability for shrinkage of income or loss of capital value that may be incurred in the course of the authorized operation of the businesses, except loss that may result from the Successor Trustees' willful misconduct or action in other than good faith; and in any measurement of the degree of care, diligence and prudence exercised by the Successor Trustees, Grantor directs that their actions be considered in relation to the inherent risks involved in the continued operation of businesses of the character represented, and that it be borne in mind that the Successor Trustees have been engaged in a business enterprise for the reasons and purposes hereinbefore stated pursuant to Grantor's request and desire.

M. Grantor expressly authorizes and empowers the Successor Trustees to enforce by suit, foreclosure, or otherwise, any obligation due the Trust Estate, in their discretion to take a conveyance in the name of the Successor Trustees, of property in satisfaction of or on account of any obligation; to contest, litigate, arbitrate, compromise and settle or abandon any claim that may be made against or in favor of the Trust Estate, and to employ attorneys, appraisers, accountants, and others as may be considered advisable for the prosecution or defense of any matters.

N. The powers herein granted to the Trustee and Successor Trustees in this ARTICLE III may be exercised in whole or in part, from time to time, and shall be deemed to be supplementary to, and not exclusive of, the general powers of trustees pursuant to law and shall include all powers necessary to carry them into effect. The enumeration of specific powers shall not be construed in any way to limit or affect general powers herein granted, nor to limit those powers conferred by law, including those set forth in Section 456.520 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended, except as expressly stated herein. No person dealing with the Trustee or the Successor Trustees shall be obligated to see to the application of any monies, securities or other property paid or delivered to him or them, or to inquire into the expediency or the propriety of any transactions or the authority of the Trustee or Successor Trustees to enter into and consummate them upon those terms as the Trustee or Successor Trustees may deem advisable, the Trustee and Successor Trustees having and being, in general, given the power and right to handle the Trust Estate and the properties of all kinds therein as if individually owning them, subject to the limitations and prohibitions imposed by law and in this Trust Agreement.

O. Should Grantor's wife, JUANITA K. HAMMONS, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability be, in the opinion of the Successor Trustees, unable to administer properly any income or any discretionary payments of principal becoming payable to her from the MARITAL TRUST, then they shall be paid out by the Successor Trustees for her benefit any of the following ways as they may think best:

1. Directly to her.

2. To her legally appointed guardian or conservator.

3. To some relative or friend or next of kin of Grantor's wife for her health, support and maintenance.

4. By the Successor Trustees using it directly for the health, support and maintenance of Grantor's wife without the intervention of any legal guardian or conservator.
