To Whom May Concern

I am sending this letter for Proof of Claim Form. My complaint is against Jennifer Convertibles Id # ~~835~~ 8351040 which was originated in Florida I received your address in a letter instructing me to contact your office -

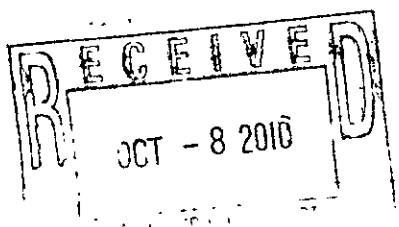

I have had a lot of problems with the company listed above and would like a recourse of some kind due to not getting any satisfaction when I made calls and set up appointments only to be left hanging in thin air.

Thank you
