INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim formCourt, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the bankruptcy debtor's name, and the bankruptcy case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is located at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the Bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if the trustee or another party in interest files an objection to your claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Use this space to report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

4. Secured Claim:

Check the appropriate box and provide the requested information if the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, below.) State the type and the value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state annual interest rate and the amount past due on the claim as of the date of the bankruptcy filing.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a).

If any portion of your claim falls in one or more of the listed categories, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, below.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach to this proof of claim form redacted copies documenting the existence of the debt and of any lien securing the debt. You may also attach a summary. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, see instruction 2. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

Date and Signature:

The person filing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2), authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. Attach a complete copy of any power of attorney. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONSDebtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor that arose on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10)

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt owed by the debtor that arose on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATIONAcknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

The People of the State of New York

TO THE SHERIFF OF THE COUNTY OF SUFFOLK, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Judgment was rendered on the 13th day of June, 2011 in an action in a DISTRICT Court in said County, before 5th District Court Judge between EDWARD POIRER, 68 PINE ST, BRENTWOOD, NY 11717 Plaintiff and ASHLEY FURNITURE HOME STORE, 1821 BROADHOLLOW ROAD, FARMINGDALE, NY 11735 Defendant in favor of the said plaintiff against the said Defendant for the sum of $2,430.84 as appears to us by the certified transcript of such Judgment filed and docketed in the office of the Clerk of the County of Suffolk on the 22nd day of July, 2011 and the sum of $2,430.84 with interest from 06/13/2011 is now actually due thereon.

Pursuant to subdivision (l) of NYS CPLR §5205, two thousand five hundred dollars of an account containing direct deposit or electronic payments reasonably identifiable as statutorily exempt payments, as defined in paragraph two of subdivision (l) of NYS CPLR§ 5205, is exempt from execution and that the garnishee cannot levy upon or restrain two thousand five hundred dollars in such an account.

Pursuant to subdivision (i) of NYS CPLR§5222, an execution shall not apply to an amount equal to or less than ninety percent of the greater of two hundred forty times the federal minimum hourly wage prescribed in the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 or two hundred forty times the state minimum hourly wage prescribed in section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law as in effect at the time the earnings are payable, except such part as a court determines to be unnecessary for the reasonable requirements of the judgment debtor and his or her dependents.

NOW THEREFORE WE COMMAND YOU that you satisfy the said Judgment out of the real or personal property and debts due him/her/it of the said Judgment debtor, who is not deceased, within our County; belonging to such Judgment debtor on the day when the said transcript was filed and docketed in your County, or at any time thereafter, in whose hands so ever the same may be, and return this execution within sixty days after its receipt by you to the Clerk of the County of Suffolk.

WITNESS, Hon. Robert W. Doyle, Justice, at the Court House at Riverhead, in said County, the 22nd day of July, 2011.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text also notes that records should be kept for a sufficient period to allow for a thorough audit.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping. It states that all transactions must be recorded in a clear and concise manner, and that the records should be organized in a way that allows for easy access and retrieval. The text also mentions that records should be kept in a secure location and that access should be restricted to authorized personnel only.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the auditor in the record-keeping process. It notes that the auditor is responsible for verifying the accuracy and completeness of the records and for reporting any discrepancies to the appropriate authorities. The text also mentions that the auditor should maintain a separate set of records to document the audit process.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the consequences of failing to maintain accurate records. It states that failure to do so can result in the loss of the company's ability to track its financial performance and can lead to the detection of fraud. The text also mentions that failure to maintain accurate records can result in the company being subject to legal action.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of training and education in the record-keeping process. It notes that all personnel involved in the process should receive appropriate training and education to ensure that they are able to maintain accurate records. The text also mentions that ongoing education and training are essential to keep personnel up-to-date on the latest record-keeping practices.

RE: Our File No. 1-11004438
Edward Poirer vs. Ashley Furniture Homestore

Dear Mr. Poirer:

I am writing to inform you that the corporation's name behind the Ashley Furniture Homestore name is Hartsdale Convertibles, Inc. This corporation is currently in bankruptcy. The Bankruptcy Case Number is 10-13779. The bankruptcy case is in the name of Jennifer Convertibles, Inc., et al. It is a Chapter 11 filing that is being "Jointly Administered". There are many corporate entities included in this bankruptcy filing.

The Sheriff is stayed from enforcing your judgment. A bankruptcy attorney can help you get on the list of creditors in this bankruptcy case. You may be able to accomplish this yourself at the United States Bankruptcy Court in Central Islip. I am sorry that I cannot help you any further. There are deadlines to meet so I suggest you act fast. I have enclosed copies of the bankruptcy filing and Certificate of Authority.

Sincerely,

The case was assigned case number 10-13779-alg to Judge Allan L. Gropper.

In most instances, the filing of the bankruptcy case automatically stays certain collection and other actions against the debtor and the debtor's property. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay. If you attempt to collect a debt or take other action in violation of the Bankruptcy Code, you may be penalized. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case.

If you would like to view the bankruptcy petition and other documents filed by the debtor, they are available at our Internet home page <http://ecf.nysb.uscourts.gov> or at the Clerk's Office, One Bowling Green, New York, NY 10004-1408.

You may be a creditor of the debtor. If so, you will receive an additional notice from the court setting forth important deadlines.

IV. Notice of Filing of Award

To whom it may concern:

On November 26, 2010 in good faith I purchased a nine piece dining room set from Ashley Furniture Home store. At the time of this purchase I was not aware Ashley was in any way connected to Jennifer Convertibles or that Jennifer Convertibles was in Chapter 11 bankruptcy. The furniture was delivered severely damaged and after many futile attempts to rectify this I had no recourse but to obtain a small claims judgment against Ashley furniture. On June 13, 2011 I obtained an execution judgment to recoup my monies only to receive a letter from the Suffolk County Sheriff's Dept. informing me of this Chapter 11 bankruptcy. My purchase was after Jennifer convertibles filed this bankruptcy and I am now being penalized for something I had no control over. I am attaching copies of all pertinent information.

Sincerely,

Edward Poirier
