3. Pursuant to section 364(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, all intercompany claims arising after the Petition Date owed by an individual Debtor to another individual Debtor shall be accorded administrative priority status of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors shall continue to maintain records with respect to transfers of cash in a manner consistent with historical practices, so that transactions can be ascertained, traced, and recorded properly on all intercompany accounts.

4. To the extent the Debtors' deposit bank accounts are maintained at banks that are authorized depositories in the Southern District of New York, the requirement that the Debtors establish new bank accounts as of the Petition Date is dispensed with and waived.

5. To the extent that the Debtors deposit bank accounts are maintained at banks that are not authorized depositories in the Southern District of New York, the Debtors have transferred such accounts to banks that are authorized depositories. Additionally, the Debtors' funds in the Debtors' certificate of deposit account at American Express Bank FSB shall be transferred to an authorized depository institution at the maturity of the account.

6. The Debtors are authorized to (a) designate, maintain, and continue to use any or all of the Bank Accounts, including, but not limited to, those bank accounts listed on Exhibit A to the Motion, in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately prior to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, (b) deposit funds into and withdraw funds from such accounts by all usual means, including, without limitation, checks, wire transfers, automated transfers, and other debits, and (c) treat their prepetition Bank Accounts for all purposes as debtor in possession accounts.

7. The Debtors are authorized to, in the ordinary course of business, (a) continue paying all intercompany payables, if any, (b) extend intercompany credit, and (c) continue performing all obligations, commitments and transactions between and among the Debtors and between and among the Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates. Any transactions made between and among the Debtors and their non-Debtor affiliates will be taken in consultation with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors.

8. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Banks are authorized to accept, honor, and rely upon all representations from the Debtors as to which checks should be honored or dishonored consistent with orders entered by this Court, whether the checks are dated prior to, on, or subsequent to the Petition Date and whether or not the Bank believes that payment is authorized by some other order of this Court; provided, that the Banks shall not be held liable for improperly honoring or dishonoring any check, draft, or automated clearing house payment presented, issued, or drawn on the Bank Accounts on account of a claim (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5)) arising before the Petition Date, which, at the direction of the Debtors was requested to be honored or dishonored, as the case may be, unless the Banks' actions were grossly negligent; the Banks shall not have a duty to independently verify or audit whether a particular item may be paid in accordance with this Order but shall be entitled to rely on the direction of the Debtors.

9. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Debtors from closing any Bank Account(s) or opening any additional bank accounts, as they may deem necessary and appropriate, to the extent consistent with the terms of any cash collateral agreement and any order(s) of this Court relating thereto, and any relevant bank is authorized to honor the Debtors' requests to close or open such Bank Accounts or additional bank accounts, as the case may be, provided, however, that any additional bank accounts the Debtors may open will be maintained at authorized depositories in the Southern District of New York.

12. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Order.
