Re: Title 11 proceedings on case number 10-13779

I am writing to the courts to request that my case be added into the settlement of Bankruptcy against Jennifer Convertables. As the additional documents will prove that we had given money in exchange for products to Jennifer Convertibles, Inc and was not compensated with said product.

On neumerous attempts to rectify this situation we where unsuccessful in immediate mediation therefor requiring us to register a case with the Better Business Bureau in Long Island NY Case ID 8034585. During that process we continued to make telephone enquiries into the status of our refund of $1,520.00. That was unsuccessful as well resulting in us having to file a claim in our state small claims court in Boston Ma Civil Case No. 2010-01-SC 002238.

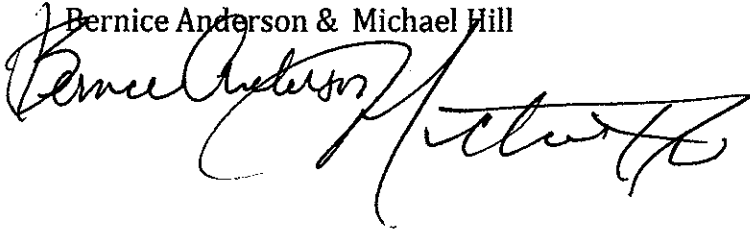

It was at this time August 23 2010 that we where informed that a chapter 11 proceeding was in place an that we would have to wait until that process was determined before refilling a claim or finding out what the out come would be. I made several phone calls to the representing counsel Ms Jordanna L. Nadritch attempting to seek resolution and or direction. As we waited for a return phone call from some one from Olshan Grundman Frome Rosenzweig & Wolosky LLP we had resorted in doing our own research on how the process works.

We had called the Courts Clerks Office and was informed that I would have to file a "proof of Claim' and that there was a possibility that my case may or may not be added due to the timing of the request. I ask that the court please take into consideration that we where under the impression that once we filled all the paper work here in Boston Ma that it would be also taken in on the Bankruptcy Court level in New York.

We worked very hard to make payments on a regular bassis and give our hard earned money to this company all that we ask is that they make good on their responsibilty and either deliver our furniture or return our money. I thank you very much and hope that we can come to a honest and fair resolution to this unfortunate situation .

Dear Jennifer Convertibles Inc.:

Under the provisions of Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 93A, Section 9, I hereby make written demand for relief as outlined in that statute. On or about August 18, 2009, the following unfair or deceptive act occurred: I came into your West Roxbury Store located on 1524 VFW Parkway Route 1 on April 28, 2008 and deposited $500.00 of my hard earned dollars on a living room set A Bluto 3 piece sectional 0638-29 valued at the time $1,899.90. At that time I dealt with sales associate Randy. Who by the way was not very helpful at all he did not greet me when I entered the store which in a crowded situation I could understand but the store was empty. I was told at the time of the deposit that the item that I paid on would not be ready until the fall. Over the course of the year I have come in and made payments on my layaway. So when the time came around for my shipment to be ready for delivery I received a call from a sales rep telling me that my layaway item would not be delivered in fact the news was that the set I had paid on was accidentally sold to another customer.

So I came back into the store spoke with yet another incompetent salesrep Ahmed and was convinced to pick out another set and that set would be delivered with no problem so I ended up picking out a ruben leather Blend 4 pc set package for $1,520.01 but I had to wait for 1 month for my refund check to come from corporate office to clear so that those funds could be moved toward this purchase. So once this finally went through I was told that my item would be delivered on the 6th of October. Why did I receive a phone call this evening October 4th 2009 telling me that the item that was in stock at the time of the purchase is now out of stock and I would not be receiving my item until November 15th, 2009.. I have on more than one occasion spoken to Mr. Mark Helter 800-595-1422 X5808 but that obviously got me nowhere. This unfair or deceptive act or practice is, in my opinion, declared unlawful by Section 2 of Chapter 93A. As a result of this unfair or deceptive act or practice, I suffered injury or loss of money as follows: {I$1,581.09}

Therefore, I hereby demand the following relief:

{ $1,900.00 Payment for Damages }

Chapter 93A gives you the opportunity to make a good-faith response to this letter within thirty (30) days. Your failure to do so could subject you to triple damages, attorney's fees and costs if I decide to institute legal action.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Bernice Anderson-Hill

vs.

Jennifer Convertibles, Inc.,

Respondent.

2010 AUG 23

CIVIL BUSINESS

SUGGESTION OF BANKRUPTCY

Respondent, Jennifer Convertibles, Inc., shows that Respondent has filed a petition for relief under Title 11, United States Code, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York that has been assigned case number 10-13779 (jointly administered), and relief was ordered on July 18, 2010 and suggests that this action has been stayed by the operation of Title 11 U.S.C. §362.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
