 - (c) a minimum subsequent bid increment of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), which may be waived by LabCorp at any time in its sole discretion;
 - (d) a requirement that LabCorp and its legal counsel promptly receive copies via email of any potential qualifying competing bids for the Talon Division within 24 hours following the time the Debtors receive notice of such bids as required by the Bidding Procedures Order; and
 - (e) a requirement that any potential bidder agrees, as part of its bid submission, to be a backup bidder according to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order.

6. The Talon Bid Protections are a reasonable inducement for LabCorp's offer to purchase the Talon Division on the terms set forth in the Talon Stalking Horse Agreement and compensation for the risks and costs incurred by the Stalking Horse Bidder.
