ERD Case No. LS201801774

Dear Employer:

A complaint has been filed under Wisconsin Statutes section 109.09 by Amber Bormann who claims you are indebted to her for an unpaid bonus, unpaid expenses and unpaid PTO pay. A copy of the complaint is enclosed.

The Department is obligated under this statute to gather and review facts involved in this complaint. If you believe the complaint is incorrect, please submit your position in writing along with any documentation that might disprove the complaint and support your position.

If you agree that the complaint is valid and wish to resolve this matter, I request you forward a check made out to the complainant for the claimed wages, less standard deductions. You must also include a check stub or similar statement showing the amount of and reason for each deduction from wages. Payment should be sent to my attention, but the check must be made payable to the complainant. If you send a check for a different amount than the one claimed, please provide documentation detailing how you arrived at the amount you believe is due.

In either case, an answer is required in writing on or before November 20, 2018. Re:

ERD Case No. LS201801774

Dear Ms. Bormann:

You filed a complaint with this Department on November 2, 2018 claiming unpaid bonus, unpaid expenses and unpaid PTO pay. As of the date of this letter, we have not received a response from your employer, LightRx Face and Body.

You indicated that you have received some payments directly from your former employer. At this time, please provide a breakdown of what amounts you believe you are still owed at this time. You can include any supporting documentation you may have, but there is no need to resubmit documentation you have already provided to me. Also, please keep in mind that this Department does not have jurisdiction to include bank fees or other outside expenses you may have incurred; it can only investigate actual wages owed to you by your former employer, so there is no need to include such fees in the accounting you provide.

Provide any additional information or documentation that will help establish the amounts you are claiming you are owed. If you wish to continue to pursue your claim, your written response is due on or before December 26, 2018. Provide any other pertinent information you wish to be considered. If I do not receive a response by that date, I will take no further action and close the Department's file on this case.

Sincerely, LABOR STANDARDS BUREAU

Re:

ERD Case No. LS201801774

Dear Employer and Ms. Bormann:

I have completed my investigation of the wage claim filed by Amber Bormann against LightRx Face and Body ("Employer"). My decision is as follows.

Wisconsin's Wage Payment and Collection Law, Wisconsin Statutes Chapter 109, states that this Department has the authority to investigate and equitably resolve complaints for unpaid wages between employees and employers. The law requires that wages be paid as agreed.

Ms. Bormann filed a complaint with the Department on November 2, 2018 claiming unpaid wages. Ms. Bormann has acknowledged receiving payments since filing her original complaint, but she still claims she is owed $255.

Employer has not responded to multiple notices of the complaint filed by Ms. Bormann. Therefore, this Department must assume that Employer does not dispute the information provided by the complainant. When an employer does not provide requested records, the Department must rely upon the best available information, including the reasonable records of the employee.

Ms. Bormann is owed $255 for an unpaid bonus and unpaid expenses.

Employer, by no later than January 19, 2019, please send a check to my attention, but made payable to Ms. Bormann in the amount of $255less any standard, legally required deductions. You must also include a check stub or a similar statement showing the amount of and reason for any deductions from these wages. I will forward the check to Ms. Bormann and send you acknowledgement of the payment.

If I do not receive payment for wages due by the above date, I may prepare the case file on this matter for litigation. Any referral to court will include a request for the maximum penalty for the late payment of wages.

Sincerely,

LABOR STANDARDS BUREAU
