Attachment 1 - LightRX Claim explanation - Gabriela Hilt.pdf

Description - Explanation of claim amount

My claim includes the following:

$1,300 for two rounds of laser fat reduction treatments that were stopped in the middle due to the Dallas location closing. Treatments were to be transferred to Fort Worth. When I showed up at Fort Worth for the scheduled appointment it was closed. After continuing to call for several weeks, the Frisco location answered and an appointment was made at Frisco. I was told the treatments are not effective due to the length of time stopping in the middle of the round of treatments, and was sold a restart of the first round of treatments at an additional $400.

The original $1,300 was being paid in installments through The Help Card, whose address on my latest bill is PO Box 268808, Oklahoma City, 73126-8808, with a balance of $917.05. They have told me that they are putting a hold on sending me further bills while awaiting me filing a claim and that they are not necessarily ceasing collections against me for this amount. It is possible that they may also file a claim for this amount, but I am not aware of their actions. Obviously it should only be paid to one or the other claimant.

The $400 additional charge was paid by me using another credit card. Due to the ineffectiveness of the treatments (by Light Rx's own admission), I am requesting the full amount in my claim without discount for the partial treatments received on the first round of treatment at the Dallas location. This amounts to:

$$400 + $382.95 = $782.95$, for what I have paid out of pocket, payable to me,

Plus the $917.05 still on the account with "The Help Card", payable either to me or to "The Help Card" to settle this account.

The total of the claim is therefore $1,700.00
