How to Avoid Paying Interest	Your Payment Due Date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. We will not charge you interest on purchases if you pay your entire balance on or before the due date each month.

Fees
Origination Fee	$0.00
Annual Fee	$0.00 *
Penalty Fees	$0.00
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Late Payment • Returned Payment 	Up to $30.00 $0.00
The amount of these fees varies by state. See your account agreement for more details about the fees that apply to your account.

How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called "daily balance." See your account agreement for more details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement.

Annual Fee: Waived for the first year. We will also waive part of the Annual Fee for account holders who authorize us to initiate recurring payment (AutoPay) by electronic fund transfers. We will also waive part of the Annual Fee if you authorize us to send your periodic statements electronically.

Section II: RATES, FEES AND PAYMENT INFORMATION

How Interest is Calculated
Your Interest Rate	We use a daily periodic rate to calculate the interest on the balance on your account each day. The daily rate for purchases is the APR time 1/365. The daily periodic rate for purchases is 0.060000 % (APR 21.90 %). Interest will be imposed in amounts or rates not in excess of those permitted by applicable law.
When We Charge Interest	Unless the law or our Agreement with you requires otherwise, there is a grace period for new purchases. We will begin accruing interest on your purchase from the date it is made. However, if you pay the entire amount due on the new purchase by the due date each month, then you will not have to pay interest charges. For promotional purchases please refer to Section 7 (APRs Applied to Different Balances) and the specific promotional terms outlined on the Charge Slip.
How We Calculate Interest	We calculate the finance charges for each Account balance by applying the "daily periodic rate" for that balance to the "daily balance" of that balance. We do this for each day in the billing cycle and then add together the resulting finance charges. This gives us the total finance charges for that balance for that billing cycle. We calculate the "daily balance" for each balance. We do this by starting with the beginning amount of that balance. We add any new purchases for that day and subtract any unpaid interest and payments or credits. This gives us the "daily balance." We may exclude new purchases from the daily balance that is subject to finance charges, if the law, our Agreement or the Promotional Terms require us to do so. If this happens, we will include these purchases in the daily balance subject to finance charges as soon as the law, our Agreement or the Promotional Terms allow.

How Fees Work
Late Payment Fee	If you do not pay at least the minimum payment due for a billing cycle by its due date or any later date that may be established by applicable law, we will charge the following late payment fee to your Account: If all or any portion of a payment is not paid within 10 days of its due date, you will be charged a late charge of 5% of the unpaid amount of the payment due, but not exceeding $30 on each scheduled payment.
Returned Payment Fee	If any Account payment you make or attempt is returned unpaid to us for any reason, we will charge a returned payment fee of $ 0.00 to your Account, subject to any legally required notices and any limitations of applicable law.

Annual Fee	The Annual Fee will be waived for the first year. Thereafter you will be charged this annual fee on or about the anniversary of the first charge to your Account (your "Anniversary Date"), so long as your Account has an unpaid balance or remains open for new purchases. We will notify you about this annual fee before each Anniversary Date. Our notice will explain when and how you may close your Account to future purchases and pay the full unpaid balance, if you do not want to be charged this annual fee on an Anniversary Date. If you authorize us to provide periodic statements electronically (e-statements) you will not be charged $ 0.00 of this annual fee on an Anniversary Date. If you authorize us to use "AutoPay" (an enrollment in a recurring payment method) to pay your monthly payments, you will not be charged $ 0.00 of this annual fee on an Anniversary Date.
Origination Fee	Account holder agrees to pay us a one-time Origination Fee of $ 0.00 upon the execution of this agreement. You understand that this fee is non-refundable

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: Universal Account Servicing, LLC, Attn: Billing Errors and Disputes, 7505 NW Tiffany Springs Pkwy Ste 400, Kansas City, MO 64153. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do, we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

1. If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
2. If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

In this Agreement, the words "you" and "your" mean each applicant (as an individual) and all applicants (as a group) shown on the Account application. The words "we", "us" and "our" mean the merchant or service provider receiving your Account application (the "Seller"), and any of the Seller's assigns and successors. When the Agreement states that we "may" take an action, this means that we are allowed and have the sole discretion to take that action, subject only to any limitations or notices expressly required by law or this Agreement.

You accept and agree to be bound by all terms and conditions in this Agreement, including its arbitration provision, the first time you use your Account. Your signature (including any digital or electronic signature) on the Account application, or an Account sales slip or other evidence of Account indebtedness, represents your signature to this Agreement, and is part of and incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

To protect you and us from misunderstanding or disappointment, any agreements we reach covering such matters are contained in writing, which is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between us, except as we may later agree in writing to modify it.

1. USE OF ACCOUNT:

A. You may use the Account from time to time to make purchases from us, as permitted by this Agreement and applicable law. The amount of credit that may be extended to you while the Account is open, up to its credit limit, is generally made available to the extent the outstanding balance is repaid. We may restrict or delay the availability of Account credit, to protect you and us against potential fraud, unauthorized transactions, Account misconduct or misuse, or for other risk management reasons. In addition, Account services may be unavailable to you from time to time, due to circumstances beyond our control, such as system failures, fires, floods, natural disasters or other unpredictable events. We will not be responsible or liable to you if this happens. You agree not to use, try to use, or permit use of the Account for any transactions that are illegal or not permitted by us. If you do so, you must still pay us for these transactions and they remain subject to all other terms of our Agreement. Except as otherwise required by law, you agree to be bound by any policy we disclose at the time of an Account purchase, such as "no returns," "no refunds," "no return or credit without receipt," "as is," "store credit only," "all sales final," or similar statements.

B. Charge Slip: Every purchase made with this account will result in the creation of a charge slip that must be signed by an Account Holder to authorize the charge. On the Charge Slip the Credit Limit, Highest Account Balance, Available Credit Balance, APR, Finance Charge, Amount Financed, and a revised Payment Schedule will be disclosed. Each purchase may or may not have promotional terms, please refer to "Balance Categories" for more information. If the purchase has promotional terms; the specific promotional term will be disclosed on the Charge Slip along with any applicable expiration date of the promotion. Each additional purchase made using your account will contain a revised version of all the disclosures referenced in this section.

The amounts due on your Account include the unpaid balance of all purchases any of you make with the Account, plus all fees and all interest charges, as described in this Agreement. You agree to pay for amounts due for any charges over your Account credit limit. You promise to pay at least the minimum payment due for each billing cycle by its payment due date, as shown on the Account statement for that cycle.

3. ACCOUNT BILLING STATEMENTS AND NOTICES; ADDRESS ON FILE: If you have a credit or debit balance on the Account of $1 or more at the end of any billing cycle, we will send a periodic Account statement (a "bill") showing what you owe us as of the end of that billing cycle. We may not send you a statement, however, if we have decided your Account is uncollectible, if we have initiated Account collection proceedings against you, or if the law does not require or permit us to send the statement. The billing cycle is the fixed period of time covered by the statement we send you. Each statement that we send will identify the billing cycle that it covers. The statement will show your new charges, including your purchases, interest charges and fees, and any payments that posted to your Account during that billing cycle. It will also show you the minimum payment you must make to us by the due date shown on the statement. You agree to examine each statement and notify us immediately of any item you may dispute. The billing error rights notice in this Agreement and on your statements provide more information about how you may notify us about any disputed items or billing errors. We will mail or deliver your statement only to one address. If your Account is a joint Account or more than one person is permitted to use the Account, you agree that we may send all Account statements and other Account notices solely to your address on file, as shown in our billing records. Your address on file is the address you provided in your Account application, unless: (a) we have received and processed a notice of a change in address that you provided in accordance with this Agreement or your most recent bill; or (b) we are notified by the U.S. Postal Service of an address correction for you and we decide, in good faith, to rely on the address correction notice we receive from the Postal Service. To the extent permitted by law, you grant to us and we will retain a purchase-money security interest under the Uniform Commercial Code in each item you purchase with the Account and its proceeds, until the unpaid balance of that item is paid in full. For purposes of determining at any time which items remain subject to our security interest, payments on your Account will be applied according to any requirements of law or, if the law does not require otherwise, in the following order: first, to Account interest charges; then to Account fees; and then to the items charged to your Account in the order each item was charged, beginning with the oldest item purchased. If several items are charged to your Account on the same date, the lowest priced items will be considered to be paid for first. Down payments will be applied in full to the item for which the down payment was made. You agree that we may, at our option, record financing or security documents without your signature, as permitted by law and solely to evidence and perfect our security interest in the items purchased with the Account. If we do not receive or accept payments by mail on the due date, your payment will be on time if it is received by the next day that we accept or receive payments by mail.

You must pay in U.S. dollars. You must not mail or deliver payments to us in cash. Your payment must be drawn on a U.S. deposit account or by a cashier's check drawn on a U.S. bank or a foreign bank branch in the U.S. You must not attach or include any restrictive language to any payment you send to the address for payments shown in the Agreement or on an Account statement. Any check or money order you send that has restrictive words, conditions, limitations, or special instructions to us, including those marked with the words "paid in full" or similar language, must be mailed to: Universal Account Servicing, LLC, Attn: Billing Errors and Disputes, 7505 NW Tiffany Springs Pkwy Ste 400, Kansas City, MO 64153. If you make payment in a paper form (such as a check, money order, or cashier's check), you must include the payment coupon from your statement or write your Account number on the payment. If we decide, in our discretion, to accept a form of payment that does not meet these payment instructions, you agree that we are not waiving our right to require you to make or continue making payments that comply with these instructions and are otherwise required by the Agreement. The credit available on your Account will be increased by the amount of your payment within 14 days after we receive your payment.

B. Minimum Payment Due; New Balance of Account. The statement we send to you will show the minimum amount you must pay by the due date shown on the statement (your "minimum payment" or the "minimum payment due" in this Agreement and on your statement). The statement will also show you the full unpaid balance of your Account that is outstanding as of the end of each billing cycle covered by an Account statement (the "New Balance"). Paying your entire New Balance or paying more than your minimum payment due will help reduce your interest charges. YOU MAY PAY THE NEW BALANCE OF YOUR ACCOUNT IN FULL AT ANY TIME WITHOUT PENALTY OR PAY IT IN INSTALLMENTS. However, for each statement, you must pay at least the minimum payment by the due date shown on the statement. If you do not pay the minimum payment by its due date, we may charge you a late payment fee in accordance with state law. You will also be in breach of this Agreement. If any Promotional Terms apply that change the payment requirements for a Promotional Balance, then those Promotional Terms will explain how we determine the minimum payment due for these Promotional Balances.

As of the end of the billing cycle covered by the statement, we start by determining a minimum payment amount that is equal to 9.36 % of your highest Account balance or $75.00 whichever is greater (excluding any Promotional Balances whose Promotional Terms make those Promotional Balances subject to different payment requirements). Then, we determine the minimum payment due for any Promotional Balances whose Promotional Terms change the payment requirements for these Promotional Balances. Then, we determine whether there are any Account payments that are past due or balances that exceed the credit limit of your Account. Finally, we calculate your minimum payment due by adding together all of the amounts described in this paragraph and rounding the result up to the nearest whole dollar. If you pay more than the minimum payment due after the end of any billing cycle, you must still pay at least the minimum payment due after the end of each billing cycle after that.

C. Payment Allocation. You agree that we may choose which Account balances to pay first with your payments, unless the law or our Agreement otherwise requires us to apply payments in a particular order. Payments will be applied first to outstanding finance charges, fees and any past-due amounts. After outstanding fees and past-due amounts are paid, the Minimum Monthly Payment as well as any excess over the Minimum Monthly Payment, will be applied as follows: First to promotional "Deferred Interest" or "Same as Cash" amounts in the order of expiration, soonest first, next to interest-bearing amounts, in interest rate order, higher rates first (if applicable).

7. INTEREST RATES AND INTEREST CHARGES: APRs Applied to Different Balances. The "annual percentage rate" or "APR" is an annualized interest rate. We use the APR that applies to each balance to calculate the interest charges that you owe us on the Account. Different APRs may apply to different balances on your Account, such as the purchases that are subject to the standard APR and other purchases that qualify for Promotional Terms. Any Promotional Terms we offer will explain which purchases qualify as a Promotional Balance, how long the Promotional Terms apply, and whether the standard APR or a promotional APR applies to these Promotional Balances. The Promotional Terms we offer may include deferred interest programs, where you may not have to pay the interest charges that accrue on a Promotional Balance if it is paid in full before expiration of the time period we specify in our Promotional Terms on the Charge Slip.

8. CREDIT LIMIT: We will establish a credit limit for your Account. You agree that you will not use or permit others to use your Account to obtain credit if it would cause the outstanding balance of your Account to exceed its credit limit. However, we may, at our option, without waiving any of our rights, permit charges to your Account, even if those charges would cause your outstanding Account balance to exceed its credit limit. We will not assess a fee if we elect to honor charges that cause your Account to exceed its credit limit.

9. EVENTS OF DEFAULT; REMEDIES: To the extent permitted and in accordance with applicable law, we may consider your Account to be in default if: (a) you do not make at least the minimum payment due for a billing cycle by its due date; (b) you break any other promise you made in this Agreement; (c) you have supplied us with misleading or false information on your application; (d) you die or become the subject of a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding. If this happens, we may, after we provide any notice and wait any time period that the law requires, do one or more of the following: (i) reduce your credit limit and refuse to approve any new purchases attempted on your Account; (ii) close or suspend your Account; (iii) require immediate payment of your entire Account balance; (iv) bring an action to collect all amounts owed for the Account; (v) repossess goods in which we retain a security interest and otherwise seek self-help or judicial remedies available to us as a secured creditor; and/or (vi) take any action otherwise allowed to Sellers by law. Our rights and remedies are cumulative and we may pursue them in any order or combination we consider appropriate, subject only to any limitations or notices that may be expressly required by applicable law. We will notify you in advance and/or give you an opportunity to cure your default only if applicable law requires us to do so.

10. COLLECTION COSTS: To the extent permitted by law, you promise to pay all of the costs we incur to collect your Account after an event of default, including reasonable and allowable fees payable to an attorney who is not our salaried employee.

11. JOINT ACCOUNTS: If this is a joint Account, each of you is responsible as an individual and all of you are responsible as a group for all amounts that are owed in connection with the Account. Each of you is responsible, even if the Account is used by only one of you. You will continue to be liable for the entire balance of the Account, even if your co-applicant or co-buyer is ordered by a court to pay us. You will remain liable to us if your co-applicant or co-buyer fails to pay as ordered by the court. Your Account status will continue to be reported to the credit bureau under each of your names. The delivery of Account notices or bills to any of you serves as delivery of those notices and bills to all of you. We may rely on and comply with instructions given by any of you with respect to the Account. We are not liable to any of you for relying on or complying with instructions given by any of you.

12. NOTICES, CHANGES OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION, AND METHODS OF CONTACT: You agree that you and we have an established business relationship and we are authorized to contact you by telephone from time to time about your Account. We can include numbers and addresses from which you contact us as numbers and addresses provided by you. We may obtain address corrections from the US Postal Service and telephone numbers and other contact information from third party sources. You agree to pay any fees or charges for which you may become responsible as a result of our attempts to communicate with you and we will not reimburse you for such costs. You authorize us or third parties acting on our behalf to send text messages to numbers you provide or to other numbers where we have reason to believe we can reach you. This includes attempts to contact you on cellular phones or other such phones and you agree that we can use automatic dialers, leave pre-recorded messages, and send emails to an email address at which we have reason to believe you can be reached. We can make such calls, within the confines of applicable law, for purposes that include, but are not limited to, gathering information, providing service, collecting on your Account, or investigating suspected fraud or identity theft. You agree that we may, from time to time and at our option, monitor and/or record telephone calls between you and us to assure the quality of our customer service and for other legitimate business reasons. You agree that monitoring and/or recording may be done and that no additional notice to you or additional approval from you is needed.

13. INVALIDITY: If one or more provisions of this Agreement are declared invalid or unenforceable by a court or arbitrator with jurisdiction, you and we agree that the remaining conditions and terms will not be affected. If any interest charges or fees we assess in connection with this Agreement is finally determined by a court or arbitrator to exceed the amounts allowed by applicable law, you and we agree that any such excess amount may be applied to reduce the outstanding balance of your Account or, if there is no outstanding balance, refunded to you.

14. CHANGING OUR AGREEMENT: Subject to notice requirements and limitations of applicable law, we may change the terms of this Agreement at any time, and the new terms that apply to your Account will take effect on the day we specify in our notice to you. If the law requires us to notify you in a certain way, or limit the effect of any change in Account or Agreement terms, we will comply. You may not change the terms of this Agreement, unless you and one of our duly authorized representatives each sign a written document modifying specified terms of the Agreement.

15. INFORMATION FURNISHED ABOUT YOUR ACCOUNT: You understand and agree that we may furnish information about you and the status and payment history of your Account to credit bureaus and other sellers as permitted by law, but are not legally required to do so. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your Account may be reflected in your credit report. If you believe we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, and unless a statement advises you to notify us at a different place, you agree to notify us in writing at the following address: Universal Account Servicing, LLC, Attn: Billing Errors and Disputes, 7505 NW Tiffany Springs Pkwy Ste. 400, Kansas City, MO 64153. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please send a copy of that report to us as well.

16. CREDIT INVESTIGATION: You authorize us to investigate your credit history. You agree that we are allowed to request a consumer credit report about you in connection with processing your Account application, and subsequently in connection with any extension of credit, any request to increase your credit limit, any renewal or update of your Account, to take collection action on the Account, or to investigate disputes about the Account. If you ask, we will tell you if we requested credit reports and the name and address of any credit bureaus that provided the reports.

17. ASSIGNMENT: We have the right to assign and transfer any amounts you owe us in connection with the Account, the Account itself, and any of our rights under this Agreement. We assign this Agreement if we sell or pass to a third party any or all of our rights or obligations under the Agreement, including any amount that you owe under the Agreement. Depending on what we may assign, any party to which we assign this Agreement will enjoy all our rights under the Agreement, including the contractual rights to collect amounts you owe on the Account. You are not allowed to assign or transfer this Agreement or any of your rights or duties to anyone else.

18. CANCELLATION: We may cancel your Account at any time. You have the right to close your Account to future purchases at any time, if you send a written cancellation notice to: Universal Account Servicing, LLC, Attn: Consumer Help Desk, 7505 NW Tiffany Springs Pkwy Ste 400, Kansas City, MO 64153. Even if you close your Account to future purchases, you must pay all outstanding amounts on the Account and your Account will remain subject to interest and fees as provided in this Agreement until it is paid in full.

19. INFORMATION SHARING: You authorize us to share information about you as permitted by law. This includes information we get from you and others. It also includes information about your transactions with us. Please see our Privacy Notice for details about our information sharing practices.

20. GOVERNING LAW: This Agreement and all transactions under it will be governed by the laws of the State in which you reside. The open end rules to Regulation Z apply to this contract.

21. ARBITRATION: PLEASE READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT REJECT IT, THIS SECTION WILL APPLY TO YOUR ACCOUNT, AND MOST DISPUTES BETWEEN YOU AND US WILL BE SUBJECT TO INDIVIDUAL ARBITRATION. THIS MEANS THAT: (A) NEITHER A COURT NOR A JURY WILL RESOLVE ANY SUCH DISPUTE; (B) YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR SIMILAR PROCEEDING; (C) LESS INFORMATION WILL BE AVAILABLE; AND (D) APPEAL RIGHTS WILL BE LIMITED.

• What claims are subject to arbitration

1. If either you or we make a demand for arbitration, you and we must arbitrate any dispute or claim between you or any other user of your Account and us, our affiliates, our agents, our service providers, and/or our predecessors and successors in interest (including any dealer, merchant, or retail seller that allows use of the Account and any assignee of the Agreement), if the dispute or claim relates to your Account, except as noted below.
2. All parties agree that no party has to initiate an arbitration proceeding before exercising remedies of self-help repossession, non-judicial foreclosure, replevin or other similar remedies.
3. We will not require you to arbitrate: (a) any individual case in small claims court or your state's equivalent court, so long as it remains an individual case in that court; or (b) a case we file to collect money you owe us. However, if you respond to the collection lawsuit by claiming any wrongdoing, we may require you to arbitrate.
4. Notwithstanding any other language in this section, only a court, not an arbitrator, will decide disputes about the validity, enforceability, coverage or scope of this section or any part thereof (including, without limitation, the next paragraph of this section and/or this sentence). However, any dispute or argument that concerns the validity or enforceability of the Agreement as a whole is for the arbitrator, not a court, to decide.

• No Class Actions

YOU AGREE NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION AGAINST US IN COURT OR ARBITRATION. ALSO, YOU MAY NOT BRING CLAIMS AGAINST US ON BEHALF OF ANY ACCOUNTHOLDER WHO IS NOT AN ACCOUNTHOLDER ON YOUR ACCOUNT, AND YOU AGREE THAT ONLY ACCOUNTHOLDERS ON YOUR ACCOUNT MAY BE JOINED IN A SINGLE ARBITRATION WITH ANY CLAIM YOU HAVE.

If a court determines that this paragraph is not fully enforceable, only this sentence will remain in force and the remainder will be null and void, and the court's determination shall be subject to appeal. This paragraph does not apply to any lawsuit or administrative proceeding filed against us by a state or federal government agency even when such agency is seeking relief on behalf of a class of borrowers, including you. This means that we will not have the right to compel arbitration of any claim brought by such an agency.

• How to start an arbitration, and the arbitration process

1. The party who wants to arbitrate must notify the other party in writing. This notice can be given after the beginning of a lawsuit or in papers filed in the lawsuit. Otherwise, your notice must be sent to UNIVERSAL ACCOUNT SERVICING, LLC ATTN: ARBITRATION DEMAND, 7505 NW Tiffany Springs Pkwy Ste 400, Kansas City, MO 64153. The party seeking arbitration must select an arbitration administrator, which can be either the American Arbitration Association (AAA), 1633 Broadway, 10th Floor, New York, NY 10019, www.adr.org, (800) 778-7879, or JAMS, 620 Eighth Avenue, 34th Floor, New York, NY 10018, www.jamsadr.com, (800) 352-5267. If neither administrator is able or willing to handle the dispute, then the court will appoint an arbitrator.
2. If a party files a lawsuit in court asserting claim(s) that are subject to arbitration and the other party files a motion with the court to compel arbitration, which is granted, it will be the responsibility of the party asserting the claim(s) to commence the arbitration proceeding.
3. The arbitration administrator will appoint the arbitrator and will tell the parties what to do next. The arbitrator must be a lawyer with at least ten years of legal experience. Once appointed, the arbitrator must apply the same law and legal principles, consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), that would apply in court, but may use different procedural rules. If the administrator's rules conflict with this Agreement, this Agreement will control.
4. The arbitration will take place by telephone or at a reasonably convenient location. We will always pay arbitration costs, as well as your legal fees and costs, to the extent you prevail on claims you assert against us in an arbitration proceeding which you have commenced.

• Governing Law for Arbitration

This Arbitration section of your Agreement is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (FAA). The law of the state where you reside shall apply solely to the extent that such State law is relevant under the FAA. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding, except for any appeal right under the FAA. Any court with jurisdiction may enter judgment upon the arbitrator's award.

• How to reject this section.

You may reject this Arbitration section of your Agreement. If you do that, only a court may be used to resolve any dispute or claim. To reject this section, you must send us a notice within 60 days after you open your Account or we first provided you with your right to reject this section. The notice must include your name, address and Account number, and must be mailed to UNIVERSAL ACCOUNT SERVICING, LLC, ATTN: COMPLIANCE DEPT, 7505 NW Tiffany Springs Pkwy Ste. 400, Kansas City, MO 64153. This is the only way you can reject this section.

CAUTION: It is important that you read this arbitration agreement thoroughly before you sign this Contract. By signing it, you are accepting that you have read and understand this arbitration agreement, and have received a copy of it. If you do not understand something in this arbitration agreement, do not sign this Contract; instead ask your lawyer.

Your signature (including any digital or electronic signature) on the Account application, or an Account sales slip or other evidence of Account indebtedness, represents your signature to this Agreement, and is part of and incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

To whom it may concern,

I'm filing a formal claim to be reimbursed for services not received by Light Rx in Frisco, Texas. In June 2018, I signed an agreement to pay $600 for a total of 10 laser hair removal services (see attached Agreement document). In early 2019, Light Rx had closed, but only half of my treatments had been completed (please see the attached email from Light Rx confirming I still have five services that have not been completed). As a side note, I was never informed that the location was closing or that all other Dallas-Fort Worth locations had closed as well. Therefore, there was no opportunity to complete services at other locations.

In light of the services not being completed, I would like to be reimbursed $300, half of the total cost of services agreed to and equaling the value of the services not completed. Please let me know if any additional documentation is required in order to receive this reimbursement.

Best regards,

Sarah Cohen
