INTERIM AND FINAL ORDER AUTHORIZING CONTINUED USE OF CERTAIN BANK ACCOUNTS [RE: D.I. 59]

Upon the motion (the "Motion") of Met-Coil Systems Corporation (the "Debtor"), in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the "Case") for entry of an Order authorizing continued use of the Accounts;¹ and it appearing that the Court has jurisdiction over the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A); and due and adequate notice of the Motion having been given; and it appearing that no other or further notice need be given; and this Court having determined that granting the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtor, its estate and its creditors; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis through September 23, 2003, on which date the Court will hold a final hearing on the Motion. Objections, if any, to the Motion are due on September 16, 2003.

2. If the Office of the United States Trustee or any other party in interest does not file and serve on counsel to the Debtor an objection to the relief requested in the Motion on before September 16, 2003, then this Order will become a final order. If such objection is filed, this matter will be scheduled for the next hearing to be held in these cases.

3. The Debtor is authorized to maintain the Accounts postpetition.

4. With respect to the Accounts, the Debtor is authorized to maintain and continue to use any and all stationery, correspondence, and business forms, including, but not limited to, purchase orders, multi-copy checks, letterhead, envelopes, promotional materials, and other business forms, substantially in the forms existing immediately prior to the commencement of this Case, without reference to its status as a debtor-in-possession, and, in the event the Debtor purchases new business forms during the pendency of this Case, such forms need not include a legend reflecting the Debtor's status as a debtor-in-possession.

5. The Debtor is authorized and empowered to take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate to implement the terms of this Order.
