LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

Section 3. Any employee with seniority elected to public office may make a written application for a leave of absence for a period of his first term of active service in such elective office. Additional leaves of absence for service in elective public office may be granted at the option of local Management upon written application by the employee.

Any employee with seniority who is appointed to a position as Administrative Assistant in a Congressional or Senatorial office, or to any Administrative position in a state agency, or as a labor representative on a community agency, or to a non-civil service governmental position which is not generally available to an applicant for employment may make written application for a leave of absence for the period of his active service in such position not to exceed one (1) year. Such leave may be renewed at the option of local management upon written application by the employee. During such leave employee may retain but not accumulate seniority.

EDUCATIONAL LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 4. Employees who have acquired seniority of one or more years who desire to further their education, may make application for leave of absence for that purpose.

One continuous leave of absence for such education will be granted to eligible employees for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months. Additional leaves of absence may be granted, at the option of local management. Seniority shall accumulate during such leaves of absence.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR UNION BUSINESS

Section 5. Members of the Union elected or appointed to a position with the International Union or Local Union, the duties of which require their withdrawal from their job with the Company shall at the request of the Local Union or the International Union be granted a leave of absence after the Company has been notified, for periods not to exceed one (1) year, extensions of such leaves shall be granted for successive periods not to exceed one (1) year provided they are applied for in writing before the leave expires. During such Union leaves of absence the employee will retain and accumulate seniority.

Section 6. Any employee being elected or appointed to a position with the Union necessitating temporary leave of absence shall be granted such leave of absence by the Management without loss of seniority.

Section 7. Any employee granted a leave of absence shall be guaranteed re-employment, at the then current rate of pay if there is sufficient work available which he is capable of doing and to which he may be entitled on the basis of seniority. Seniority will accumulate during the period of such leaves.

Section 8. Any employee on leave may return to work in line with his seniority before the expiration of his leave providing not less than seven (7) days' notice is given to management. The return within the seven day period is at the option of Management. Any employee who fails to return to work in accordance with the notice as given shall be considered as having voluntarily quit unless he has a satisfactory reason.

ARTICLE XI - VACATIONS

Section 1. All employees on the payroll with at least six (6) months seniority as of January 1st of each year will be eligible for vacation pay to be computed at two (2) percent of the employee's gross annual earnings of the preceding calendar year.
