ITEM #1

VACATED: Continued to 9/10/09

ITEM #2

VACATED: Continued to 8/19/09

ITEM #3

Mr. Kroop provides the court with the current status of the motion and requests a continuance in order to complete the documentation and work out some pending issues.

COURT: IT IS ORDERED continuing this matter to 8/13/09 @ 9:00 a.m.

ITEM #4

Ms. Reece reviews the background of this matter and explains what happened to bring the OSC before the court. The parties are not proceeding with an evidentiary hearing today as they are trying to mitigate the damages. She would like to find out when Jennings Strouss is going to file their response and then decide if depositions need to be taken. The parties will request a further hearing at that point. She discusses the issues with the court.

Mr. Rhondes responds and discusses the matter with the court. He agrees to file the response by tomorrow.

COURT: IT IS ORDERED directing Jennings Strouss to file the response by 8/6/09.

Mr. Meda expresses his concern with regard to the control issue and the mailing of a notice to all creditors, including season ticket holders. The court discusses the matter with counsel.

Mr. Gurbst responds and notes that both potential bidders are still at the table.

Ms. Freeman discusses the issues with the court.

Mr. Gaffney seeks clarification on what is and what isn't confidential.

Ms. Reece replies.

Further discussions ensue between the court and various counsel. The court reminds everyone that he is
