Attachments to Claim:

Exhibit A: Contract

Exhibit B: Reclamation letter evidencing secured reclamation claim sent February 20, 2014

Exhibit C: Invoice for unpaid pre-petition delivery relative to secured reclamation claim.

Further Information in support of claim:

Claim resulting from assumed Eckert Contract. At the request and demand of Debtor, Eckert Cold Storage honored the terms of the executory contract post-petition and has fully performed as required by the contract. Post-petition shipments were demanded by debtor at discounted prices and Eckert delivered those shipments and accepted discounted amounts for those shipments. Eckert contends that the contract has therefore, in fact, been assumed.

As a result, Eckert is owed the sum of $32,718.60 for unpaid pre-petition amounts due under the assumed contract and as evidenced in the invoice attached as Exhibit C.

Contingent claim if Eckert Contract is rejected. While Eckert believes that the contract has been assumed and does not agree that the contract can now be rejected, a contingent claim would be due as follows if Debtor is allowed to reject the contract:

Eckert has a contingent reclamation claim in the amount of $32,718.60. See Exhibits B and C.

Alternatively, Eckert has a contingent administrative claim in the amount of $12,450. This claim is based on post-petition shipments to Debtor totaling 124,500 lbs with a market value of $.66/lb or a total of $82,170. Debtor demanded that Eckert honor the pre-petition (then executory) contract price of $69,720. Eckert honored that demand and would be due the additional contingent amount of $12,450 if Debtor is allowed to reject the Eckert contract.
