DECLARATION OF TINAMARIE FEIL IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION TO EMPLOY BMC GROUP, INC. AS THE DEBTORS’ CLAIMS, NOTICING, AND BALLOTING AGENT

I, Tinamarie Feil, hereby state that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

1. I am over the age of 18 and competent to testify. I am the President and co-founder of BMC Group, Inc. (“BMC”), a bankruptcy administrator that specializes in providing comprehensive chapter 11 administrative services including noticing, claims processing, balloting and other related services critical to the effective administration of chapter 11 cases. I am duly authorized to make and submit this declaration (the “Feil Declaration”) on behalf of BMC and in support of the Debtors’ application to retain BMC as their Claims and Noticing Agent (the “Application”)¹. Unless otherwise stated in this Declaration, I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein.

2. As specialists in legal administration services, BMC provides comprehensive legal notice and claims management solutions. With respect to chapter 11 case management, BMC specializes in noticing, claims processing and other administrative tasks necessary to permit debtors to operate chapter 11 effectively. BMC has provided or currently provides identical or substantially similar services as those services proposed to be provided pursuant to that certain Agreement for Services between the Debtors and BMC dated as of July 15, 2015 (the “Agreement”) in other chapter 11 cases throughout the nation.

SERVICES TO BE RENDERED

3. The Debtors seek to employ BMC to provide noticing, claims processing and administrative services as set forth in the Agreement including, without limitation:

- a. Assisting the Debtors with the compilation, administration, evaluation and production of documents and information necessary to support a restructuring effort.
- b. At Debtors’ counsel’s, or the Clerk’s Office’s direction, as the case may be, and in accordance with any court orders or rules in the Cases (including any court order authorizing BMC’s engagement), BMC will
 - i. prepare and serve those notices required in the Cases;
 - ii. receive, record, and maintain copies of all proofs of claim and proofs of interest filed in the Cases;
 - iii. create and maintain the official Claims Registers;
 - iv. receive and record all transfers of claims pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e);
 - v. maintain an up-to-date mailing list for all entities who have filed proofs of claim and/or requests for notices in the Cases;
 - vi. assist the Debtors and their counsel with the administrative management, reconciliation, and resolution of claims;
 - vii. print, mail and tabulate ballots for purposes of plan voting;
 - viii. assist with the preparation and maintenance of Debtors’ Schedules of Assets and Liabilities, Statements of Financial Affairs, and other master lists and databases of creditors, assets and liabilities;
 - ix. assist with the production of reports, exhibits and schedules of information for use by the Debtors or their counsel, or to be delivered to the Court, the Clerk’s Office, the U.S. Trustee or third parties;

- x. provide other technical and document management services of a similar nature requested by the Debtors or the Clerk's Office;
- xi. facilitate or perform distributions; and
- xii. assist the Debtors with all analyses and/or collections of avoidance and recovery actions under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. In addition, BMC will provide such other noticing, claims processing and related administrative services, and technology support as the Debtors or Clerk's Office may request from time to time in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. BMC will provide these services on an a la carte basis, charging the Debtors only for necessary or requested services.

STATEMENT OF CONNECTIONS

5. The Debtors have many creditors, and accordingly, BMC may have rendered and may continue to render services to certain of these creditors. Additionally, BMC employees may, in the ordinary course of their personal affairs, have relationships with certain creditors of the Debtors. For example, one or more of BMC's employees may have obligations outstanding with financial institutions that are creditors of the Debtors.

6. To the best of my knowledge, BMC neither holds nor represents an interest adverse to the Debtors' estates, nor has a connection to the Debtors, their creditors or their related parties with respect to any matter for which BMC will be employed. Should BMC discover any new relevant facts or relationships bearing on the matters described herein during the period of its retention, BMC will use reasonable efforts to file promptly a supplemental declaration.

7. In connection with its appointment as Claims and Noticing Agent:

- a. BMC will not consider itself employed by the United States government and shall not seek any compensation from the United States government in its capacity as Claims and Noticing Agent in these Cases;

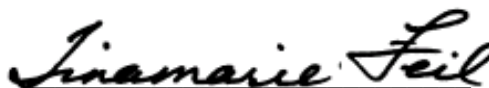

- b. by accepting employment in the Cases, BMC waives any rights to receive compensation from the United States government for its work in the Cases;
- c. in its capacity as Claims Noticing Agent in the Cases, BMC will not be an agent of the United States and will not act on behalf of the United States;
- d. BMC will not employ any past or present employees of the Debtors in connection with its work as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 Cases; and
- e. BMC is not a creditor of the Debtors' estates.

COMPENSATION

8. The fees to be charged by BMC in connection with the Cases are set forth in the Fee Schedule annexed to the Agreement. The compensation arrangement provided for in the Agreement is consistent with and typical of arrangements entered into by BMC and such firms with respect to rendering similar services as described in the Application and the Agreement in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, the chapter 11 operating guidelines established by the Office of the United States Trustee, and any and all orders of this Court.

9. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: November 5, 2015
