DEBTORS' MOTION FOR AN ORDER UNDER 11
U.S.C. §§ 105 AND 363 AUTHORIZING THE PURCHASE OF
RENEWAL AND EXTENDED REPORTING DIRECTOR &
OFFICER LIABILITY INSURANCE COVERAGE

RCN Corporation ("RCN") and certain of its direct and indirect subsidiaries, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby move for entry of an order under 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 and 363(b) authorizing the Debtors to purchase renewal and extended reporting director and officer liability insurance. In support of this motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. On May 27, 2004 (the "Petition Date"), RCN, TEC Air, Inc., RLH Property Corporation, RCN Finance, LLC and Hot Spots Productions, Inc., the debtors and debtors-in-possession in case number 04-13638 (RDD) (collectively, the "Initial Debtors"), filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). On August 5, 2004 RCN Cable TV of Chicago, Inc., the debtor and debtor-in-possession in case number 04-15120 (RDD), filed a voluntary petition in this Court for reorganization relief under the Bankruptcy Code. On August 20, 2004, 21st Century Telecom Services, Inc., RCN Telecom Services of Virginia, Inc., RCN Entertainment, Inc. and ON TV, Inc. (collectively with RCN Cable TV of Chicago, Inc., the "Affiliate Debtors"), the debtors and debtors-in-possession in case numbers 04-15505 (RDD) through 04-15508 (RDD), filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under the Bankruptcy Code. The bankruptcy cases of the Initial Debtors and the Affiliate Debtors are jointly administered under case number 04-13638 (RDD). The Debtors continue to manage and operate their businesses as debtors-in-possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1107 and 1108.

2. On June 10, 2004, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Creditors' Committee") was appointed by the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "United States Trustee") for the Initial Debtors. No trustee, examiner or official committee has been appointed in the Affiliate Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

3. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are Bankruptcy Code sections 102, 105(a) and 363(b), and Rules 2002, 6004, 9006 and 9007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

RELIEF REQUESTED

5. By this motion, the Debtors request entry of an order authorizing the Debtors to purchase the Proposed Coverage (as defined below) and to pay all premiums associated therewith, pursuant to sections 105 and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

6. In the ordinary course of the Debtors' business, the Debtors, like all major corporations, maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance that provides certain liability coverage with respect to the acts of the members of the Debtors' boards of directors and their officers. The Debtors' current coverage affords coverage in an aggregate amount of $60 million, and is provided by various insurance providers (the "D&O Policies").

7. The Debtors' current D&O Policies will expire on October 15, 2004, in accordance with their terms, unless the policies are renewed. The D&O Policies are claims made policies, meaning that such insurance covers only those claims actually made during the policy periods. Thus, once the Debtors' current D&O Policies expire, no further claims can be made under the policies, regardless of whether the claims arose during the policy terms, unless there is a renewal of the D&O Policies or an extension of the reporting period.

8. In light of the upcoming expiration date, the Debtors, together with their insurance brokers, Aon Financial Services Group and Aon Risk Services, Inc., have negotiated and obtained (i) renewal director and officer liability coverage that would extend and enhance existing coverage from October 15, 2004 through April 15, 2004, (ii) extended reporting coverage that would extend the period for reporting claims for six years from the date of emergence from chapter 11 (the "Proposed Coverage"), and (iii) a pricing indication regarding post-emergence director and officer liability insurance for a 12 month period from the date of emergence from chapter 11. By negotiating all three types of coverage together as a single package rather than individually, the Debtors were able to achieve more favorable pricing and better terms and conditions for the renewal and extended reporting policies and in connection with the post-emergence policy.

9. The Debtors have kept the Creditors' Committee closely apprised of this process. The Creditors' Committee indicated that it would not oppose the purchase of extended coverage for the Debtors' directors and officers provided that such individuals would withdraw any claims filed against the Debtors for indemnification as of the effective date. Accordingly, the Debtors and the directors and officers that filed proofs of claim in these chapter 11 cases have agreed that such claims will be withdrawn (or deemed withdrawn) as of the effective date of the Debtors' plan of reorganization, provided that the Proposed Coverage is procured as contemplated in this Motion. Based upon this mutual agreement, the Creditors' Committee does not oppose the relief requested herein and has agreed that the Debtors may purchase such insurance, as more particularly described in the summary of the Proposed Coverage attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. In sum, the premium for the renewal of the existing D&O Policy through the effective date of the Debtors' plan of reorganization is estimated to be between approximately $1,246,000 and 1,261,000 for coverage in the amount of $60 million, which is the amount of coverage under the existing D&O Policies. The premium for the extended reporting coverage is $2 million for fresh aggregate coverage in the amount of $22 million for six years.

11. The acquisition and maintenance of D&O insurance is a normal and customary part of every major corporation's business, and has been a part of the Debtors' ordinary course of business for many years. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that they may obtain the Proposed Coverage, and pay the premiums associated therewith, without an order of this Court authorizing it to do so under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. However, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors have filed this motion to request such authorization.

APPLICABLE AUTHORITY

12. The Debtors request that this Court authorize its purchase of the Proposed Coverage, and the payment of premiums associated therewith, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a) and 363(b), as a use of estate property "other than in the ordinary course of business." Such authorization is appropriate if the Debtors demonstrate a sound business justification for doing so. See In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Delaware Hudson Ry. Co., 124 B.R. 169, 179 (Bankr. D. Del. 1991).

13. Once the Debtors articulate a valid business justification, "the business judgment rule 'is a presumption that in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action was in the best interests of the company.'" In re Integrated Resources, Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992)(quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)).

14. The business judgment rule has vitality in chapter 11 cases and shields the Debtors' management from judicial second-guessing. See In re Integrated Resources, Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992)(quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)); In re Johns-Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 615-16 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) ("The Code favors the continued operation of a business by a debtor and a presumption of reasonableness attaches to a Debtors' management decisions.").

15. The Debtors submit that the premiums for the Proposed Coverage are reasonable in light of the market rates for such policies, and that sound business justifications exist for the purchase of the Proposed Coverage. The continued participation of the Debtors' current officers and directors remains critical to the Debtors' normal business operations and successful reorganization. The remainder of these cases will require difficult decisions on the part of the Debtors' directors and officers. Without the assurance that future litigation for actions taken on behalf of the Debtors will be covered by D&O policies, the current directors and officers of the Debtors may seek to avoid these necessary decisions or resign in order to avoid personal responsibility. The continuation of directors' and officers' insurance therefore is necessary in order to ensure that the Debtors' reorganization efforts are successful.

16. The Debtors also submit that the premiums for the Proposed Coverage are reasonable in light of the market for such policies and the circumstances of this case. Several weeks ago, the Debtors, with the assistance of their insurance broker, approached numerous potential insurance providers and began negotiations of renewal, extended reporting, and new policies for the reorganized Debtors as contemplated by the plan of reorganization filed with this Court on August 20, 2004. Based upon the extensive efforts of the Debtors and their broker, the Debtors have been advised that the premiums for the Proposed Coverage affords significant value to the company. Indeed, as discussed above, the Debtors were able to capitalize on advantageous pricing by procuring the Proposed Coverage in conjunction with a new D&O Policy for the directors of the reorganized Debtors under the proposed plan of reorganization.¹

17. As pointed out above, the Debtors believe that the use of estate funds to purchase the Proposed Coverage and to pay the premiums associated therewith is within the ordinary course of business and does not require Court approval. Nevertheless, the Debtors make this formal request out of an abundance of caution and at the request of carriers, and reserve their rights to assert that the relief requested is in the ordinary course and so Court approval is unnecessary in the event that a party in interest files an objection to this motion.

18. The Debtors submit that no new or novel issue of law is presented with respect to the matters contained herein. Because the relevant authorities in support of the requested relief are cited in this motion, the Debtors request that the requirement of the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law under Local Bankr. R. 9013-1(b) be deemed satisfied.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order (i) authorizing the Debtors to purchase the Proposed Coverage and to pay the premiums associated therewith and (ii) granting such other and further relief as is just and proper.
