APPROVAL OF NOTICE OF DISCLOSURE STATEMENT HEARING

9. Rule 3017(a) of the Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) provides as follows:

[A]fter a disclosure statement is filed in accordance with [Bankruptcy] Rule 3016(b), the court shall hold a hearing on at least 28 days’ notice to the debtor, creditors, equity security holders and other parties in interest as provided in Rule 2002 to consider the disclosure statement and any objections or modifications thereto. The plan and the disclosure statement shall be mailed with the notice of the hearing only to the debtor, any trustee or committee appointed under the [Bankruptcy] Code, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and any party in interest who requests in writing a copy of the statement or plan.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 3017(a).

10. In addition, Bankruptcy Rule 2002(b) requires notice by mail to all creditors and indenture trustees of the time set for filing objections to, and the hearing to consider approval of, a debtor's disclosure statement and confirmation of a chapter 11 plan. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(d) requires that equity security holders be given notice of the foregoing in the manner and the form directed by the Court.

11. In accordance with these requirements, on July 24, 2019, the Debtors caused to be mailed the Court's Order Setting Disclosure Statement Hearing [Docket No. 229] (the "Disclosure Statement Order"), by first class U.S. mail to all creditors, equity interest holders, the U.S. Trustee, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), and all parties who have filed a notice of appearance in these cases. See Certificate of Service for Disclosure Statement Order [Docket No. 231]. Among other things, the Disclosure Statement Order identified the date, time and place of the Disclosure Statement Hearing and the deadline for asserting objections to the Debtors' Disclosure Statement. See Docket No. 229.

12. The Debtors respectfully submit that service of the Disclosure Statement Order provided adequate notice of the Disclosure Statement Hearing and accordingly, request that the Court approve such notice as appropriate and in compliance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Local Rules").

ADEQUACY OF THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

13. Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code defines "adequate information" as:

[I]nformation of a kind, and in sufficient detail, as far as is reasonably practicable in light of the nature and history of the debtor and the condition of the debtor's books and records, that would enable a hypothetical reasonable investor typical of holders of claims or interest of the relevant Class to make an informed judgment about the Plan;

11 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1). Thus, a debtor’s disclosure statement must, as a whole, provide “adequate information so that an informed determination can be made whether to accept or reject a reorganization plan.” In re 266 Washington Assoc., 141 B.R. 275, 288 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1992).

14. The Court has broad discretion in determining whether a disclosure statement contains adequate information; the determination must be made on a case-by-case basis, focusing on the unique facts and circumstances of each case. See, e.g., Mabey v. Southwestern Elec. Power Co. (In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop.), 150 F.3d 503, 518 (5th Cir. 1998) (“The legislative history of § 1125 indicates that, in determining what constitutes ‘adequate information’ with respect to a particular disclosure statement, ‘[b]oth the kind and form of information are left essentially to the judicial discretion of the court’ and that ‘[t]he information required will necessarily be governed by the circumstances of the case’”), cert. denied, 526 U.S. 1144 (1999); In re PC Liquidation Corp., 383 B.R. 856, 865 (E.D.N.Y. 2008) (standard for chapter 11 disclosure statement is flexible, determined on a case-by-case basis); In re U.S. Brass Corp., 194 B.R. 420, 424-25 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1996) (citing In re Metrocraft Pub. Servs., Inc., 39 B.R. 567, 568 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1984), which, in turn, lists relevant factors for evaluating the adequacy of a disclosure statement); Kirk v. Texaco, Inc., 82 B.R. 678, 682 (S.D.N.Y. 1988) (“The legislative history could hardly be more clear in granting broad discretion to bankruptcy judges under § 1125(a)”). The Metrocraft opinion, as adopted by U.S. Brass, set forth nineteen (19) factors for evaluating the adequacy of a disclosure statement. 39 B.R. 567, 568 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1984). However, not all such factors are relevant in every case. Id.

15. The Debtors submit that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and in compliance with the Metrocraft factors. The Disclosure Statement contains descriptions and summaries of, among other things, (a) the Plan; (b) the source of information stated in the Disclosure Statement; (c) the relationship of the Debtors with affiliates; (d) certain events preceding the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases; (e) significant events during the Chapter 11 Cases; (f) claims asserted against the Debtors' estates; (g) risk factors affecting the Plan; (h) federal tax law consequences of the Plan; (i) the estimated administrative expenses, including attorneys' fees; (j) a description of the available assets and their value; (k) the present condition of the Debtors while in Chapter 11; and (l) the estimated return to creditors under a Chapter 7 liquidation. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Disclosure Statement contains adequate information within the meaning of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved.⁴

16. The Debtors reserve their right to supplement this pleading prior to the Disclosure Statement Hearing, but hereby request that the Court approve the Disclosure Statement as containing adequate information under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code.

THE SOLICITATION PACKAGES

17. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) identifies the materials that must be provided to holders of claims and equity interests for purposes of soliciting their votes and providing adequate notice of the hearing to consider confirmation of a plan. In pertinent part, Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) provides:

Upon approval of a disclosure statement, — except to the extent that the court orders otherwise with respect to one or more unimpaired classes of creditors or equity security holders — the debtor in possession, trustee, proponent of the plan, or clerk as the court orders shall mail to all creditors and equity security holders, and in a chapter 11 reorganization case shall transmit to the United States trustee,

⁴ The remaining Metrocraft factors are not applicable. These are: (1) the anticipated future of the company; (2) a disclaimer; (3) the accounting method utilized to produce financial information and the name of the accountants responsible for such information; (4) the future management of the debtor; (5) the collectability of accounts receivable; (6) financial information, data, valuations or projections relevant to the creditors' decision to accept or reject the Chapter 11 plan; and (7) the actual or projected realizable value from recovery of preferential or otherwise voidable transfers.

- (1) the plan or a court-approved summary of the plan;
- (2) the disclosure statement approved by the court;
- (3) notice of the time within which acceptances and rejections of such plan may be filed; and
- (4) such other information as the court may direct, including any court opinion approving the disclosure statement or a court-approved summary of the opinion.

In addition, notice of the time fixed for filing objections and the hearing on confirmation shall be mailed to all creditors and equity security holders in accordance with Rule 2002(b), and a form of ballot conforming to the appropriate Official Form shall be mailed to creditors and equity security holders entitled to vote on the plan.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 3017(d).

18. Following Court approval of the Disclosure Statement, the Debtors propose to mail packages (“Solicitation Packages”) containing the following documents (“Solicitation Materials”) to holders of claims and equity interests:

- (a) notice of the hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan and the deadline to submit Ballots to accept or reject the Plan (the “Confirmation Hearing Notice”), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit “B” and incorporated herein by reference;
- (b) Copies of each of the Plan and Disclosure Statement (together with the exhibits thereto, as well as the Court’s Order approving the Disclosure Statement);
- (c) Copy of the Debtors’ Motion Pursuant to Section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code for Determination that Certain Claims and Causes of Action Are Property of the Estate [Docket No. 137] (the “Determination Motion”);
- (d) one or more letters recommending acceptance of the Plan; and
- (e) a Ballot with instructions, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit “C”, a return envelope for such ballot, and such other materials as the Court may direct.

19. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) requires the plan proponent to mail a form of ballot that substantially conforms to Official Form B 314 only to “creditors and equity security holders entitled to vote on the plan.” FED. R. BANKR. P. 3017(d). The Debtors propose to distribute a Ballot to equity holders entitled to vote on the Plan, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit “C” and incorporated herein by reference. The Ballot is based on Official Form B 314, but has been modified to address certain specifics in the Plan.

20. The Debtors propose that (i) the Confirmation Hearing Notice, the Ballots and any letters in support of confirmation be sent to holders of equity interests in paper copy, and (ii) any other materials in the Solicitation Packages be sent to holders of equity interests on CD-ROM (that is, the Disclosure Statement and Plan (with exhibits and schedules), and the order approving the Disclosure Statement). Any holder of an equity interest may obtain a paper copy of the documents otherwise provided on CD-ROM by making a request to the Debtors or the Tabulation Agent, as set forth in the Confirmation Hearing Notice.

21. The Debtors submit that providing parties entitled to vote on the Plan a Solicitation Package on CD-ROM is appropriate under the present circumstances, in light of the significant cost savings resulting therefrom: the Debtors have over 3,700 limited partnership unit holders, and the Plan and Disclosure Statement are approximately 90 pages in the aggregate. A mailing of this size would be exceedingly expensive, especially in light of the finite amount of cash on hand with the Debtors’ estates. Moreover, as stated above, all Solicitation Materials will be available in paper copy upon written request to the Debtors or the Tabulation Agent.

PROCEDURES FOR SOLICITATION AND TABULATION OF VOTES TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN

22. By this Motion, the Debtors also request approval of the solicitation and ballot tabulation procedures (collectively, the “Solicitation and Tabulation Procedures”) that are described below. The Solicitation and Tabulation Procedures set forth in detail (a) the procedures for the distribution of Solicitation Packages to the Debtors’ equity interest holders and other parties in interest and (b) certain procedures and rules regarding the tabulation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. The Debtors respectfully submit that the Solicitation and Tabulation Procedures are appropriate and in compliance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

Mailing of the Solicitation Packages

23. Solicitation Packages will be mailed, except as provided below, not less than 28 days prior to the Voting Deadline and Opt-Out Deadline (as defined below) to: (a) all persons or entities that have filed proofs of claim on or before the Record Date (as defined below), or their transferees in accordance with the procedures set forth below; (b) all persons or entities listed in the Debtors' schedules and statements of financial affairs (collectively, the "Schedules") as holding liquidated, noncontingent and undisputed claims as of the Record Date, or their transferees in accordance with the procedures set forth below; (c) other known holders of claims or potential claims against the Debtors, if any, as of the Record Date; (d) all holders of record of equity interests in the Debtors; (e) all other parties in interest that have filed requests for notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 in these chapter 11 cases; (f) the SEC; and (g) the U.S. Trustee.

24. The above list of proposed recipients of the Solicitation Packages is substantially the same list of parties to whom the Debtors have sent the Disclosure Statement Order. To the extent that a Disclosure Statement Order is returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable as a result of incomplete or inaccurate addresses (the "Undeliverable Addresses"), the Debtors believe that it would be costly and wasteful to re-mail Solicitation Packages to the same Undeliverable Addresses. Therefore, the Debtors request that they be excused from mailing Solicitation Packages to those entities for which the Debtors have only Undeliverable Addresses, unless the Debtors are provided with accurate addresses for such entities in writing, on or before the date of the Disclosure Statement Hearing. If a Solicitation Package nonetheless is returned as undeliverable, the Tabulation Agent shall resend such Solicitation Package only once, provided that the United States Post Office has included a forwarding address at least ten (10) business days before the Voting Deadline.

The Record Date

25. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) provides that the “date [an] order approving the disclosure statement is entered,” or such other date established by the court, is the record date for determining the “holders of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, and other securities” entitled to receive the materials specified in Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d), including ballots for voting on a plan of liquidation. See FED. R. BANKR. P. 3017(d). Accordingly, the Debtors propose that the Court establish August 26, 2019 (the date of the Disclosure Statement Hearing) as the record date pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3017(d) for purposes of determining which equity interest holders are entitled to receive Solicitation Packages and, where applicable, vote on the Plan (the “Record Date”).

26. With respect to a transferred claim or equity interest, the Debtors further propose that the transferee will be entitled to receive a Solicitation Package and cast a Ballot on account of such transferred equity interest only if by the Record Date (a) all actions necessary to effect the transfer of the equity interest pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) have been completed, or (b) the transferee files (i) the documentation required by Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) to evidence the transfer, and (ii) a sworn statement of the transferor supporting the validity of the transfer.

27. Rule 3017(e) provides that, at the Disclosure Statement Hearing, the Court:

shall consider the procedures for transmitting the documents and information required by subdivision (d) of this rule to beneficial holders of stock, bonds, debentures, notes and other securities, determine the adequacy of the procedures, and enter any orders the court deems appropriate.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 3017(e).

28. The Debtors' limited partnership units are not registered with the SEC and they are not "publicly traded" in the sense that a typical stock or bond is traded on a recognized exchange. Instead, to the extent any units are "traded," the same has typically occurred as the result of a bequest or devise, or other "situational" transfer, and PDC, as the managing general partner, has historically been informed of the transfer and kept updated records. Thus, except for any incomplete or inaccurate information in the Debtors' records, they have mailing addresses for each of the beneficial holders of limited partnership units and therefore propose to send Solicitation Packages directly to such persons/entities.

29. The Debtors respectfully submit that this procedure is appropriate under the circumstances, and comes closest to ensuring that beneficial holders of the Debtors' equity interests will receive Solicitation Packages.

Deadline for Receipt of Ballots Accepting or Rejecting the Plan and Exercising Opt-Out Rights

30. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(c) provides that, on or before approval of a disclosure statement, the Court may fix a time within which the holders of claims or equity interests may accept or reject a plan. The Debtors propose that, to be counted as votes to accept or reject the Plan, all Ballots must be executed, completed, and delivered to the Tabulation Agent either (a) by regular mail, (b) by overnight mail, (c) by personal delivery, or (d) by email, so that, in each case, such Ballots are actually received by the Tabulation Agent no later than 5:00 p.m. Central Time, on September 27, 2019 (the "Voting Deadline"). Only signed Ballots will be accepted and must be received by the Tabulation Agent no later than the Voting Deadline.

31. The proposed Voting Deadline represents a 28-day solicitation period. The Debtors respectfully submit that the same provides sufficient time for parties in interest to make informed decisions to accept or reject the Plan and submit timely Ballots.

32. The Ballot also contains an option for the parties to opt-out of the third party releases in the Plan. As set forth in more detail in the Plan and Disclosure Statement, all parties that fail to affirmatively opt-out of the third-party releases shall be bound by such releases. Accordingly, the Debtors propose that, to validly opt-out of the third party releases, the Ballot must be executed, completed, and delivered to the Tabulation Agent with the affirmative election to opt-out of the third-party releases either (a) by regular mail, (b) by overnight mail, (c) by personal delivery, or (d) by email, so that, in each case, such Ballots are actually received by the Tabulation Agent no later than 5:00 p.m. Central Time, on September 27, 2019 (the “Opt-Out Deadline”). Any party that fails to timely return the Ballot affirmatively exercising the opt-out prior to the Opt-Out Deadline shall be bound by the proposed third-party releases.

Procedures for Vote Tabulation

33. Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

A class of claims has accepted a plan if such plan has been accepted by creditors, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of this section, that hold at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the allowed claims of such class held by creditors, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of this section, that have accepted or rejected such plan.

11 U.S.C. § 1126(c). Additionally, section 1126(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

A class of interests has accepted a plan if such plan has been accepted by holders of such interests, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of this section, that hold at least two-thirds in amount of the allowed interests of such class held by holders of such interests, other than any entity designated under subsection (e) of this section, that have accepted or rejected such plan.

34. Further, Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) provides that the “court after notice and hearing may temporarily allow the claim or interest in an amount which the court deems proper for the purpose of accepting or rejecting a plan.” FED. R. BANKR. P. 3018(a).

35. No classes of claims are impaired under the Plan. As a result, such classes are deemed to accept the Plan and are not entitled to vote thereon. Therefore, solely for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan — and not for the purpose of the allowance of, or distribution on account of, an equity interest and without prejudice to the rights of the Debtors in any other context — the Debtors propose that each equity interest within a class of interests entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan be allowed temporarily in accordance with the following rules (collectively, and together with additional rules specified below, the “Tabulation Rules”):

(a) unless otherwise provided in the Tabulation Rules described below, an interest will be allowed for voting purposes in the amount of such interest as set forth in the Debtors’ books and records;

(b) if an interest is deemed allowed in accordance with any Plan, such interest will be allowed for voting purposes in the deemed allowed amount set forth in such Plan;

(c) if an interest holder identifies an amount of an interest or interests on the Ballot that is less than the amount otherwise set forth in the Debtors’ records, the interest will be allowed for voting purposes in the lesser amount identified on such Ballot;

(d) if an interest holder identifies an amount of an interest or interests on the Ballot that is “unknown,” or that is greater than the amount otherwise set forth in the Debtors’ records, the interest will be allowed for voting purposes in the amount reflected in the Debtors’ records;

(e) if an interest has been estimated or allowed by the Court, such interest will be allowed for voting purposes in the amount so estimated or allowed by the Court; and

(f) if a party in interest seeks to reduce or eliminate the amount of an interest in an objection filed before the Voting Deadline, such interest will be allowed for voting purposes in the amount to which the party in interest seeks to reduce such interest, pending allowance of the interest in a higher amount by the Court.

36. Any interest holder who seeks to challenge the allowance of its interest for voting purposes in accordance with the Tabulation Rules shall be required to file a motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018 (“Rule 3018 Motion”) and serve such motion on the Debtors so that it is received on or before the date that is ten (10) days prior to the Voting Deadline (i.e., September 17, 2019). Such motion shall, to the extent necessary, be heard at the Confirmation Hearing. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3018, any Ballot submitted by an interest holder that files a Rule 3018 Motion shall be counted solely in accordance with the Tabulation Rules unless and until (a) the underlying interest is allowed temporarily by the Court for voting purposes in a different amount or (b) the proponent of the Plan in question, in its sole discretion, agrees to allow the interest for voting purposes in a different amount.

37. In tabulating the Ballots, the Debtors request that the following additional Tabulation Rules be utilized: (a) any Ballot that is (1) properly completed, executed and timely returned to the Tabulation Agent but that does not indicate an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, or indicates both an acceptance and rejection of the Plan will not be counted as a vote to accept or reject the Plan and (2) illegible, mutilated or incomplete will not be counted as an acceptance or rejection of the Plan; (b) if an interest holder casts more than one Ballot voting the same interest before the Voting Deadline, the latest dated properly executed Ballot received before the Voting Deadline will be deemed to reflect the voter's intent and thus will supersede any prior Ballots; (c) interest holders will be required to vote all of their interests within a particular class under the Plan either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split their vote -- thus, a Ballot that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted; (d) Ballots received after the Voting Deadline will not be tabulated for determining whether a class of has voted to accept or reject the Plan; and (e) Ballots received after the Opt-Out Deadline purporting to opt-out of the third party releases contained in the Plan shall not be counted or effective for purposes of opting-out of the third party releases.

CONFIRMATION HEARING AND NOTICE

The Confirmation Hearing

38. Bankruptcy Rule 3017(c) provides:

On or before approval of the disclosure statement, the court shall fix a time within which the holders of claims and interests may accept or reject the plan and may fix a date for the hearing on confirmation.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 3017(c).

39. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3017(c) and consistent with the solicitation schedule proposed herein, the Debtors request that the hearing on confirmation of the Plan (the “Confirmation Hearing”) be scheduled by the Court to commence on or around October 2, 2019 and that the Confirmation Hearing be continued from time to time without further notice other than by announcement made in open court.

Objections to Confirmation and Replies to Objections

40. Under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(b), parties in interest have 28 days to object to confirmation. The Debtors propose that objections, if any, to the confirmation of the Plan must: (a) be in writing; (b) state the name and address of the objecting party and the nature of the claim or interest of such party; (c) state with particularity the basis and nature of any objection to the confirmation of the Plan in question; and (d) be filed with the Court and served on (i) counsel to the Debtors, Gray Reed & McGraw LLP, 1601 Elm Street, Suite 4600, Dallas, Texas 75201, Attn: Jason S. Brookner (jbrookner@grayreed.com); (ii) counsel to PDC Energy, Inc., Hunton Andrews Kurth LLP, 600 Travis Street, Suite 4200, Houston, Texas 77002, Attn: Robin Russell (rrussell@huntonak.com) and Joseph Rovira (josephrovira@huntonak.com) and Irell & Manella LLP, 1800 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 900, Los Angeles, CA 90067, Attn: Charles Elder (celder@irell.com); (iii) counsel to the LP Plaintiffs, The Law Office of Mark A. Weisbart, 12770 Coit Road, Suite 541, Dallas, Texas 75251, Attn: Mark A. Weisbart (mark@weisbartlaw.net) and Foley Bezek Behle & Curtis, LLP, 15 West Carrillo Street, Santa Barbara, California 93101, Attn: Thomas G. Foley (tfoley@foleybezek.com); and (iv) Office of the United States Trustee, 1100 Commerce Street, Room 976, Dallas, Texas 75242, Attn: Stephen McKitt (stephen.mckitt@usdoj.gov), so as to be actually received no later than 5:00 p.m., Central Time on September 27, 2019 (the “Confirmation Objection Deadline”).

41. The Debtors further propose that the deadline to file respective consolidated replies to any such objection(s) be no later than 5:00 p.m., Central Time, on September 30, 2019.

42. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(b) also requires at least 28 days’ notice by mail to all creditors and indenture trustees of the hearing to consider confirmation of a chapter 11 plan. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(d) requires that equity security holders be given notice of the foregoing in the manner and the form directed by the Court. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3017(d), the Debtors propose to serve on all creditors, equity security holders and other parties in interest, as part of the Solicitation Packages and not later than August 30, 2019 (which is not less than 28 days prior to the Confirmation Objection Deadline), the Confirmation Hearing Notice setting forth: (a) the Voting Deadline for the submission of Ballots to accept or reject the Plan; (b) the Opt-Out Deadline; (c) the Confirmation Objection Deadline; and (d) the time, date and place of the Confirmation Hearing.

43. The Debtors submit that the foregoing procedures for providing notice of the Confirmation Hearing, the Confirmation Objection Deadline, and related matters fully comply with Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3017. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court approve such procedures as appropriate and in compliance with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

DETERMINATION MOTION

44. As part of the global settlement between the Debtors, PDC and the LP Plaintiffs, the Debtors agreed to include a copy of the Determination Motion in the plan solicitation packages. The deadline to object to the Determination Motion is September 27, 2019 at 5:00 p.m. (Central Time), and the Debtors will include such deadline in the Confirmation Hearing Notice. Objections to the Determination Motion, if any, will be heard at the Confirmation Hearing.

45. In the event confirmation of the Plan is denied, the hearing on the Determination Motion will be continued and reset by the Bankruptcy Court. Rockies Region 2006 Limited Partnership and Rockies Region 2007 Limited Partnership, the above-captioned debtor and debtors in possession (the “Debtors”) have proposed their Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time (the “Plan”).

All capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

This ballot (“Ballot”) is being sent to all persons or entities who hold equity interests in any of the Debtors. The foregoing shall cover all claims, known or unknown, and the Releasing Parties waive the protections of any statute or law similar to California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides:
