DEFINITIONS

INFORMATION

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor that arose on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10)

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt owed by the debtor that arose on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(c), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Dear Karey Holland,

I am a former employee of TBW (in the Atlanta office) and this letter is in regard to bonus wages that I earned in August. I have received a pay check for the period ending August 5, 2009 and that did include bonus earned in July, but did not include bonus earned in August.

The underwriters earn a $25 bonus on every file underwritten that is above the requirement of 4 per day. Certain days are not counted when the bonus is calculated. For example, when the underwriter acts as the customer service rep for the day, the underwriter is not responsible to underwrite any files.

The first work day in August was August 3. I completed 4 files that day. The loan numbers were 3461095, 3461781, 3426056 and 3454066. The next day, August 4, I was the customer service rep of the day and was not required to underwrite any files. I worked overtime and completed 2 files anyway. They were numbers 3460630 and 3421975. The next day, August 5, we were instructed to cease all loan functions. We could not underwrite any new files, nor could we clear conditions on existing files. So, for the month of August, I completed 2 more files then the requirement.

The underwriters were also given the option of working on Saturday August 1. All files done that day would be paid at $70 each. In addition, those files would still be eligible to be counted in the total for the month. The above can be verified by Fran Uhrlich, the underwriting manager.

I underwrote 8 files on Saturday August 1. The numbers were 3441852, 3445287, 3423816, 3422775, 3133242, 3445420, 3446351 and 3404766. That gave me a total of 14 files for the month. My quota for the month was 4 files, due to I had only 1 underwriting day in August. I exceed quota by 10 files. At $25 per file, that is a bonus due me of $250. In addition, I earned $70 per file on the 8 that were completed on Saturday August 1. That is 8 X $70 or $560. The total bonus due me is $250 plus $560 which equals $810.

I am requesting that the $810 be sent to me. I spent my own free-time completing the work and the wages were earned. The above amount may not be much to TBW, but it is a lot to me. My phone number is 678 331-3907, should you have any questions.
