APPELLANT JOHN CRAIN'S STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

Pursuant to Rule 8006, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Appellant John Crain, by and through his undersigned counsel, sets forth the following issues on appeal:

Whether the Appellees should be required to produce documents responsive to all of the items requested in Appellant's Motion for Production of Documents, and not merely those documents associated with Appellant's loan file.

Whether the Appellees should be required to produce original documents for inspection and copying, as opposed to producing some form of the documents in a manner selected by the Appellees.
