THE INFORMATION PROVIDED BELOW IS FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE ONLY AND SHOULD IN NO WAY BE CONSTRUED AS LEGAL ADVICE. YOU SHOULD CONSULT AN ATTORNEY REGARDING THE MATTERS SET FORTH IN THIS NOTICE.

1. WHAT IS A CLAIM?

Under section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and as used herein, the term "claim" means (a) right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured; or (b) right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured. You should consult an attorney if you are unsure if you have a claim.

2. WHO DOES NOT NEED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM OR EQUITY INTEREST AT THIS TIME

Pending further order of the Court, the following persons or entities are NOT required to file a proof of claim or interest on or before the applicable Bar Date with respect to any claim of the type set forth below:

- a. Any person or entity that has already properly filed with the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Indiana a proof of claim or equity interest against the Debtor in the form and manner required by Bankruptcy Rules 3003 and 9009 and utilizing a claim form substantially in conformity with Official Form No. 10;

- b. Any person or entity (i) whose claim or equity interest is listed on the Debtor's schedules of assets and liabilities ("Schedules") or any amendments thereto; (ii) whose claim or equity interest is not listed as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated," and (iii) who does not dispute the amount, classification or nature of the claim or equity interest for such person or entity as set forth in the Schedules or any amendments thereto;

You should consult an attorney if you unsure whether or not you need to file a claim or interest.

You must file a proof of claim if you have a prepetition claim and you are not included among the persons and entities listed in paragraph "2" above. Therefore, any creditor having a prepetition claim or potential prepetition claim against the Debtor, no matter how remote or contingent, must file a proof of claim on or before the applicable Bar Date. As noted above, proofs of claim will be deemed filed only when they are actually filed or received, at the address listed below in paragraph "5."
