ATTACHMENT TO CLAIM OF PLACID OIL COMPANY

1. Amount of Claim

The amount of the entire claim is unknown at this time, as this claim is based in part on ongoing litigation in which Placid Oil Company is a named defendant; however, a portion of amount of the claim is known. Placid Oil Company expressly reserves the right to supplement and amend this Proof of Claim as allowed by law.

As of July 28, 2010, the known portion of this claim is $128,859.47, which consists of attorney's fees and costs of defense of the litigation styled, Agri-South Group, LLC, et al v. Exxon Mobile Corporation, et al, No. 24-132, pending in the 7th Judicial District Court, Parish of Catahoula, State of Louisiana, for alleged environmental damage allegedly due to the acts of the Debtor, for which specific performance, indemnity, contribution, and additional attorney's fees and costs associated with the claims asserted therein are sought. See attached summary of attorney fees. Creditor represents that $20,000.96 of the claimed amount has been reimbursed; however, the collateral source rule precludes discounting the claim based on this reimbursement.

2. Basis of Claim

A. Known Claim Amount, Agri-South Group, LLC, et al v. Exxon Mobile Corporation, et al, No. 24-132, pending in the 7th Judicial District Court, Parish of Catahoula, State of Louisiana

Debtors, Axis Onshore, L.P., and/or its other related bankrupt entities as described in Schedule 1 of the Notice of Automatic Stay ("Debtor"), contracted with Petro-Hunt, LLC to operate and/or conduct certain oil and gas exploration and production activities in Louisiana. Pursuant to these contracts, Debtor operated oil and gas wells, saltwater injection disposal wells, and other associated facilities on mineral servitudes and leases owned by Petro-Hunt, LLC, which rights Petro-Hunt, LLC had acquired pursuant to a Conveyance and Assumption Agreement dated April 6, 1998, by and between Petro-Hunt, LLC and Placid Oil Company and OXY USA Inc., as set forth in the Exhibits attached or referenced therein.

Pursuant to these contracts and agreements to conduct its oil and gas operations, Debtor expressly agreed to protect, indemnify and hold harmless, Petro-Hunt, LLC and its predecessor in title to such interests, Placid Oil Company, free and clear of all liens, claims, demands, actions and causes of actions of whatsoever nature, including but not limited to environmental claims, and all related costs and attorney's fees, arising out of operations on and/or use of ownership of the properties and interests held by Petro-Hunt, LLC that were subject to the Conveyance and Assumption Agreement by and between Placid Oil Company and OXY USA Inc., and Petro-Hunt, LLC.

Pursuant to these and other contracts and agreements which may exist, and to the extent any person or entity is so obligated, Debtor is obligated to plug and abandon and restore the surface to substantially the same condition as it was before the commencement of operations, and to comply with all laws, regulations, ordinances, and permits, and restoration obligations pursuant to Louisiana Statewide Order 29B. Additionally, pursuant to the Louisiana Civil Code, Louisiana Mineral Code, and other applicable laws, including, but not limited to, La. Revised Statute 30:29 and 30:2015.1, Debtor, personally and/or through third parties authorized by it, which drilled, constructed, operated and/or abandoned wells and other facilities, owe indemnity, contribution, specific performance and attorney's fees and costs to Petro-Hunt, LLC, and its predecessors in title, Placid Oil Company in the full amount of its potential liability to the Agri-South plaintiffs.

3. Attachments in Support of Known Claim Amount

Additional Unknown Claim Amount

Additionally, Creditor asserts a claim of an unknown amount owed by Debtor for the pre-petition claims of Placid Oil Company for indemnity, contribution, specific performance and attorney's fees and costs for any additional claims of alleged environmental damages that may be asserted as to certain interests of Petro-Hunt, LLC, for which Debtor contracted with Petro-Hunt, LLC to operate and/or conduct certain oil and gas exploration and production activities in Louisiana and Mississippi. Pursuant to these contracts, Debtor operated oil and gas wells, saltwater injection disposal wells, and other associated facilities on mineral servitudes and leases owned by Petro-Hunt, LLC, which rights Petro-Hunt, LLC had acquired pursuant to a Conveyance and Assumption Agreement dated April 6, 1998, by and between Petro-Hunt, LLC ("Grantee") and Placid Oil Company and OXY USA Inc., as set forth in the Exhibits attached or referenced therein.

Pursuant to these contracts to conduct its oil and gas operations, Debtor expressly agreed to protect, indemnify and hold harmless Petro-Hunt, LLC and its predecessor in title to such interests, Placid Oil Company, free and clear of all liens, claims, demands, actions and causes of actions of whatsoever nature, including but not limited to environmental claims, and all related costs and attorney's fees arising out of operations on and/or use or ownership of the properties conducted pursuant to the Conveyance and Assumption Agreement by and between Placid Oil Company and OXY USA Inc., and Petro-Hunt, LLC.

Pursuant to these and other contracts and agreements which may exist, and to the extent any person or entity is so obligated, Debtor is obligated to plug and abandon and restore the surface to substantially the same condition as it was before the commencement of operations, and to comply with all laws, regulations, ordinances, and permits, and restoration obligations pursuant to the laws of the State of Mississippi and the State of Louisiana, including but not limited to Louisiana Statewide Order 29B. Additionally, pursuant to the Louisiana Civil Code, Louisiana Mineral Code, and other applicable laws, including, but not limited to, La. Revised Statute 30:29 and 30:2015.1, Debtor, personally and/or through third parties authorized by it, which drilled, constructed, operated and/or abandoned wells and other facilities, owe indemnity, contribution, specific performance and attorney's fees and costs to Petro-Hunt, LLC, and its predecessor in title, Placid Oil Company in the full amount of their potential liability to these potential plaintiffs.
