ORDER REGARDING TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES

The court has entered an order granting complex Chapter 11 case treatment for these jointly administered cases pursuant to the court's General Order 2004-03. The order instructs parties in interest regarding telephonic appearances at hearings. To supplement those directives, the court applies the following protocols for telephonic appearances:

1. A party appearing telephonically shall contact Pam Lewis, Paralegal, Vinson & Elkins, by email at plewis@velaw.com at least twenty-four hours in advance of the hearing. Ms. Lewis will prepare a master list of parties appearing by telephone and email the list to the court prior to each hearing.

2. The dial-in number for the conference call is 1-630-424-8592#, and the participant code is 2207761.

3. Prior court approval for a telephonic appearance is not required unless counsel is presenting evidence, intends to question witnesses or has extensive legal arguments to make. Counsel presenting evidence, intending to question witnesses or having extensive legal argument must obtain prior court approval for a telephonic appearance by email request to saf_settings@txnb.uscourts.gov at least 24 hours prior to the hearing.

4. Counsel appearing by telephone must use a handset and not a speaker phone, all noise must be kept to a minimum, and counsel should dial into the conference call at least five minutes before the scheduled hearing.

5. If a technological problem develops, the court will nevertheless proceed with the hearing.
