ORDER AUTHORIZING REJECTION OF EIGHTH SET OF ASSORTED EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND PERSONAL PROPERTY LEASES

On October 18, 2005, the Court considered the Eighth Motion to Authorize Rejections of Assorted Executory Contracts and Personal Property Leases and Brief in Support [Docket No.1895] (the "Motion")<sup>1</sup> filed by the above-referenced debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors"). The Court finds that the Debtors have exercised sound business judgment to determine that the Contracts, a summary of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, should be rejected. The Court further finds that adequate <sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in the Motion.

notice of this Motion has been given and no other notice needs to be given. Therefore, it is

ORDERED that the Motion is GRANTED. It is further

ORDERED that the Contracts shall be rejected effective as of September 19, 2005, and, unless the Debtors and the respective counterparties agree otherwise, the respective counterparties to the Contracts shall retrieve any property relating to the Contracts within a reasonable time (with the cost of such retrieval to be borne by such counterparties). It is further

ORDERED that to the extent that a counterparty to a Contract refuses to timely retrieve personal property relating to the Contract, the Debtors are authorized to dispose of such property by any reasonable means and shall have a claim against such counterparty for the costs of such disposition.
