October 9, 2006

Dear Customer

On September 20, 2006 Creative Engineered Polymer Products, LLC ("CEP") filed petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

In the continuing process of bankruptcy restructuring/liquidation the following facilities have been designated for discontinuation of activities by November 1, 2006:

Belleville, MI
Canton, OH
Crestline, OH
Lapeer, MI
Middlefield, OH
Vandalia, OH

Accordingly, we are advising you that prior to the end of October 2006, you must arrange for the transfer of your requirements and all tooling.

Prior to the release of tooling from each facility, you will be required to settle all open accounts receivable and to purchase all applicable inventory of finished goods raw material inventory, components, packaging within the levels authorized by your high point releases. All finished goods will be charged at current contract price. All applicable inventories will be charged at actual cost. There will not be any processing/administration fee as has been charged to exiting customers prior to this point in time.
