General Provisions Applicable to all Claims

12. To the extent that the Debtor asserts claims against the Claimant of any kind, Claimant reserves the right to assert that such claims by the Debtor are subject to rights of setoff and/or recoupment (the "Setoff Rights"), which rights are treated as secured claims under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code").

13. The Claims described in the preceding paragraphs are filed only to preserve any and all rights and entitlements that the Claimant may have, as asserted herein, and nothing set forth herein should be construed as an admission that any valid claims or causes of action exist against the Claimant or the Debtor.

14. Except to the extent states otherwise herein, solely to the extent that the value, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 506(a), of any property securing the Claims and/or the Setoff Rights, if any is less than the allowed amount of the Claims, the Claims may be treated, in part, as general unsecured claims under the Bankruptcy Code, and in such event, and solely to such extent, the Claims asserted herein or the relevant part thereof, as the case may be, shall constitute unsecured claims and this Proof of Claim shall constitute a Proof of Claim for both the secured portion of the Claimant's Claims and for any such unsecured portion of the Claimant's Claims. The foregoing shall not be deemed an admission regarding the amount of the Claims nor regarding the value of any property securing the Claims or the Setoff Rights.
