<sup>3</sup> The fees and expenses for the October-December 2006 interim monthly applications were approved on an interim basis pursuant to the order entered by this Court on May 8, 2007.

<sup>4</sup> The fees and expenses for the January-March 2007 interim monthly application were approved on an interim basis pursuant to the order entered by this Court on August 15, 2007.

<sup>5</sup> To ensure that the Debtors' estates were not adversely affected by the transition of bankruptcy matters from Sidley Austin LLP to K&E, K&E and the Debtors agreed that K&E would not charge the Debtors for $250,000 billed in connection with K&E's expanded retention. The total fees requested accordingly reflect this deduction.

<sup>6</sup> K&E voluntarily reduced the total amount of fees requested by $45,000.00 from $1,500,452.75 to $1,455,452.75 based upon K&E's internal analysis of resources devoted to Matter 29 — Cash Collateral or DIP and Other Financing. The total fees requested accordingly reflect this deduction.

<sup>8</sup> The fees and expenses for the April-June 2007 interim monthly application were approved on an interim basis pursuant to the order entered by this Court on December 13, 2007.

<sup>9</sup> Amount shown reflects a voluntary reduction of $24.84 from actual amount requested on the May 1, 2007, through May 31, 2007, fee application.

<sup>11</sup> The fees and expenses for the July-September 2007 interim monthly application were approved on an interim basis pursuant to the order entered by this Court on February 26, 2008.

TWENTY-SECOND MONTHLY APPLICATION OF KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP
FOR ALLOWANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION
AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR THE INTERIM PERIOD
AUGUST 1, 2008 THROUGH AUGUST 31, 2008

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § § 327, 330 and 331, FED. R. BANKR. P. 2016, the Retention Order (defined below), the Revised Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § § 105(a) and 331 (the “Revised Interim Compensation Order”), and the Local Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), the law firm of Kirkland & Ellis LLP (“K&E”), general reorganization and bankruptcy counsel, nunc pro tunc to February 7, 2006, for the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (the “Debtors”), for the period August 1, 2008 through August 31, 2008, hereby applies (the “Application”) for an order allowing it: (i) compensation in the amount of $1,153,787.00 for the reasonable and necessary legal services K&E has rendered to the Debtors; and (ii) reimbursement for the actual and necessary expenses that K&E incurred in the amount of $27,388.07 for the period from August 1, 2008 through August 31, 2008 (the “Fee Period”). In support of this Application, K&E respectfully states as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. On October 15, 2006, each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § § 101, et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”). On October 17, 2006, the Court entered an order directing the joint administration and procedural consolidation of these chapter 11 cases.

2. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § § 1107(a) and 1108. On December 19, 2006, this Court entered an order appointing a fee auditor in these chapter 11 cases.

RETENTION OF AND CONTINUING DISINTERESTEDNESS OF KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP

3. By this Court’s Order dated November 8, 2006 (the “Original Retention Order”), the Court authorized the Debtors to retain K&E as special conflicts litigation counsel to the Debtors for the sole purpose of prosecuting or defending matters concerning GE SeaCo SRL (“GE SeaCo”) and other litigation matters adverse to GE Capital Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, “GE”) (Docket No. 96). The Debtors retained K&E as special litigation counsel with respect to the foregoing litigation because Sidley Austin LLP (“Sidley”), the Debtors’ general reorganization and bankruptcy counsel in these chapter 11 cases, was precluded from litigating various matters with GE, a client of Sidley’s.

4. By this Court’s Order dated March 9, 2007, this Court entered an order (the “Amended Retention Order”) authorizing the Debtors to retain K&E as their general reorganization and bankruptcy counsel, nunc pro tunc to February 7, 2007 (Docket No. 401). Both the Amended Retention Order and the Original Retention Order authorize the Debtors to compensate K&E in accordance with the procedures set forth in the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any applicable orders of this Court.

5. As disclosed in the Affidavit of David L. Eaton in Support of Application By the Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing Debtors and Debtors in Possession to Employ and Retain Kirkland & Ellis LLP as Special Litigation Counsel for Matters Related to GE SeaCo SRL Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327(e) Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date, filed on October 23, 2006, and the Affidavit of David L. Eaton in Support of Application for Order Amending Retention Order of Kirkland & Ellis LLP to Authorize Debtors to Employ and Retain Kirkland & Ellis LLP as Attorneys for Debtors, Nunc Pro Tunc to February 7, 2007, filed on February 22, 2007 (collectively, “the Affidavit”), K&E does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the estate and is a disinterested person as that term is defined in Bankruptcy Code § 101(14). K&E has updated the Affidavit with supplemental affidavits filed on May 7, 2007, October 30, 2007, March 4, 2008, and June 19, 2008 (the “Supplemental Affidavits” and together with the Affidavit, the “Affidavits”).

6. K&E may have in the past represented, may currently represent, and likely in the future will represent, parties-in-interest in connection with matters unrelated to the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases. In the Affidavits, K&E disclosed its connections to parties-in-interest that it has been able to ascertain using its reasonable efforts. K&E will update the Affidavits, as necessary, if K&E becomes aware of material new information.

7. K&E performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of or for the Debtors and their estates and not on behalf of any committee, creditor or other person.

8. Except as provided herein or in the application to retain K&E, K&E has received no payment and no promises for payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

9. Pursuant to FED. R. BANKR. P. 2016(b), K&E has not shared, nor has K&E agreed to share, (a) any compensation it received or may receive with another person other than with the partners, counsel and associates of K&E, or (b) any compensation another person or party has received or may receive.

11. K&E advised and represented the Debtors in connection with the operation of their businesses and all other matters arising in the performance of their duties as debtors-in-possession, except those matters for which the Debtors have retained the law firm of Young, Conaway, Stargatt & Taylor LLP.

12. The rates described above are K&E's hourly rates for services of this type. Attached as Exhibit A is the detailed itemization and description of the services that K&E rendered during the Fee Period. Based on these rates and the services performed by each individual during the Fee Period, the total reasonable value of such services rendered during the Fee Period is $1,153,787.00. The K&E attorneys and paraprofessionals expended a total of 1,736.10 hours working on these chapter 11 cases during the Fee Period. K&E's blended hourly rate for the services provided during the Fee Period is $664.59. In accordance with the factors enumerated in Bankruptcy Code § 330, the amount of fees requested is fair and reasonable given: (a) the complexity of the chapter 11 cases; (b) the time expended; (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered; (d) the value of such services; and (e) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

13. Further, Exhibit A: (a) identifies the individuals that rendered services in each Subject Matter (as defined and described below); (b) describes each activity or service that each individual performed; and (c) states the number of hours (in increments of tenths of an hour) spent by each individual providing the services. Each matter number in Exhibit A corresponds to the matter number that K&E assigned to the Subject Matter. If a Subject Matter does not appear, then K&E did not bill time or expenses for that Subject Matter during the Fee Period, but may bill time for that Subject Matter in the future.

REASONABLE AND NECESSARY SERVICES RENDERED BY KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP — CATEGORIZED BY MATTER

14. The professional services that K&E rendered during the Fee Period are grouped into the numbered and titled categories of the subject matters (the “Subject Matter(s)”) described herein.

15. Matter 1 — GE Disputes

(Fees: $182,204.50; Hours: 282.00)

This Subject Matter includes all time spent performing legal services and providing all other necessary legal advice to the Debtors as it pertains to disputed matters with GE. K&E attorneys have represented the Debtors in connection with a variety of disputes between SCL and GE involving GE SeaCo.

During the Fee Period, K&E attorneys spent considerable time researching, drafting, and negotiating with GE the definitive documentation for a global settlement to resolve all issues related to pending claims and other matters regarding GE and GE SeaCo. K&E attorneys reviewed and processed multiple rounds of comments to draft documentation. Certain issues relating to trademarks and licensing arose and were analyzed. In addition, K&E attorneys attended numerous meetings and conferences and negotiated and drafted a tolling agreement.

16. Matter 6 — Non U.S. Matters

(Fees: $351,222.00; Hours: 443.60)

As this Court is aware, the Debtors have extensive non-U.S. operations. Indeed, among the most valuable assets of the estates are the Debtors’ equity interests in their foreign debtor and non-debtor affiliates. A significant portion of the time billed to this Subject Matter derives from time spent by K&E International London-based attorneys providing services and advice in connection with a variety of non-U.S. legal issues. This Subject Matter includes considerable time spent on legal services related to: (a) preparing for and participating in conferences with the Debtors' management and financial advisors in relation to the Debtors' international operations, including legal advice from both U.S.- and U.K.-based attorneys regarding various cross-border, jurisdictional, choice of law, corporate governance, employment and other issues; (b) analyzing and resolving issues connected to potential non-core, non-debtor asset sales; (c) drafting and analyzing schemes of arrangement to implement the plan of reorganization and effectuate the settlement with the pension schemes; (d) drafting a standstill agreement with the Debtors' non-debtor subsidiaries; (e) analyzing and strategizing the coordinated liquidation of the SCL group of companies; and (f) working with relevant international local counsel in resolving various local issues.

17. Matter 9 — Issues Relating to Bermuda Proceedings

(Fees: $65,860.00; Hours: 91.60)

As this Court is aware, SCL is incorporated in Bermuda. This Subject Matter includes legal services related to preparing papers relating to the Bermuda scheme of arrangement and drafting and revising the joint provisional liquidators' report to the Bermuda court.

18. Matter 14 — Travel

(Fees: $13,345.00; Hours: 17.70)

This Subject Matter includes time spent traveling while representing the Debtors. K&E billed the Debtors for one-half the total time that K&E professionals spent for non-working travel.

19. Matter 15 — Tax

(Fees: $10,543.50; Hours: 11.80)

This Subject Matter includes time spent researching and analyzing tax issues in connection with the proposed disclosure statement, the settlement with the pensions and the formation of Newco, and preparing for and participating in conferences regarding such tax issues.

20. Matter 16 — Retention of Professionals

(Fees: $4,100.00; Hours: 10.50)

This Subject Matter includes activities performed in connection with the retention of professionals other than K&E pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § 327. K&E activities covered by this Subject Matter include discussions and the preparation of papers in connection with the retention of certain professionals.

21. Matter 17 — Plan, Disclosure Statement

(Fees: $171,573.00; Hours: 287.20)

This Subject Matter includes legal services related to, among other things, researching, analyzing, and developing a plan of reorganization. Specifically, K&E attorneys spent considerable time: (a) drafting, reviewing, and revising the plan of reorganization, disclosure statement, and solicitation materials; (b) coordinating the multiple issues required by the drafting process; (c) preparing a list of “frequently asked questions” to post on the Debtors’ website for creditors and interested parties to review; (d) reviewing, negotiating and incorporating several rounds of comments from interested parties; (e) strategizing and preparing for the creation of Newco and the transfer of assets related thereto; and (f) drafting, analyzing and revising a liquidation analysis and financial projections.

22. Matter 18 — K&E Fee/Employment Application

(Fees: $23,203.00; Hours: 66.50)

This Subject Matter includes legal services performed by K&E attorneys and paraprofessionals in connection with K&E's preparation of its twentieth monthly fee application in accordance with the procedures and standards of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and orders of this Court.

23. Matter 22 — File, Docket, Calendar Maintenance

(Fees: $547.50; Hours: 3.40)

This Subject Matter describes K&E services related to creating, maintaining, and updating a central filing system and database containing documents, pleadings, and other materials related to these chapter 11 cases. In addition, this Subject Matter includes time spent researching and analyzing potential postpetition conflicts issues.

24. Matter 26 — Employee Benefits, Pension

(Fees: $63,059.50; Hours: 102.90)

This Subject Matter includes legal services related to employee benefit and pension matters, including, but not limited to, time spent reviewing and analyzing correspondence and issues regarding pension claims, specifically in relation to the financial support direction process and the pension schemes, analyzing issues surrounding the pension schemes settlement agreement, and analyzing various approaches to Newco's employee benefits plans.

25. Matter 27 — Creditors Communications

(Fees: $18,574.00; Hours: 21.80)

This Subject Matter includes legal services related to creditor communications, including, but not limited to responding to creditor communications received by the Debtors and K&E in connection with the plan and disclosure statement, corporate governance issues, pension claims and the settlement with GE.

26. Matter 28 — Claims Estimate, Objection and Resolution

(Fees: $7,221.50; Hours: 12.70)

This Subject Matter comprises time spent by K&E attorneys researching and advising the Debtors with respect to claims by, against, and among the Debtors, including, but not limited to analysis and strategy of dealing with certain claims for both distribution purpose and plan voting purposes.

27. Matter 29 — Cash Collateral or DIP and Other Financing

(Fees: $2,813.00; Hours: 5.10)

This Subject Matter includes time spent performing legal services and providing other necessary legal advice to the Debtors and their affiliates as it pertains to financing of the Debtors and financing of the Debtors' affiliates and subsidiaries. In addition, during this Fee Period, K&E attorneys spent time ensuring that the Debtors complied with the conditions and terms of the DIP loan documentation.

28. Matter 30 — Case Administration

(Fees: $2,081.00; Hours: 2.70)

This Subject Matter includes legal services not described under another matter, including, but not limited to: (a) administering, managing, and coordinating the bankruptcy cases; (b) preparing, reviewing, and presenting information to the Debtors regarding case progress; (c) assisting the Debtors in fulfilling their duties as debtors-in-possession; and (d) generally complying with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and orders of this Court.

29. Matter 31 — Business Operations

(Fees: $940.50; Hours: 1.10)

This Subject Matter describes time spent counseling the Debtors and responding to inquiries regarding the operations of the Debtors within the context of the Chapter 11 Cases.

30. Matter 33 — Asset Sales

(Fees: $28,988.00; Hours: 36.00)

This Subject Matter describes time spent analyzing and advising the Debtors with respect to potential sales of real and personal property. As the Court is aware, SCL has over 100 non-debtor subsidiaries, many of which the Debtors plan to sell. K&E attorneys spent time analyzing and advising the Debtors on legal issues in connection with the sales of these non-debtor subsidiaries. Specifically, K&E researched, analyzed, and advised the Debtors in connection with certain issues relating to the sale of Yorkshire Marine Containers, Periandros, Charleston Marine Containers Inc. and Helsinki-Tallinn businesses, all non-debtor subsidiaries. Moreover, K&E professionals spent time participating in numerous conferences and drafting various correspondence in connection with these non-debtor, non-core asset sales.

31. Matter 34 — Corporate and Securities Matters

(Fees: $87,492.50; Hours: 162.00)

This Subject Matter includes legal services related to corporate and securities matters, including, but not limited to: (a) preparing and participating in conferences with the Debtors' board of directors regarding these chapter 11 cases; (b) preparing and reviewing SEC filings; (c) researching, drafting, and reviewing documentation regarding a 1940 Act waiver; (d) reviewing and revising portions of the disclosure statement relating to securities issues; and (e) preparing monthly operating reports. K&E professionals also spent considerable time analyzing issues relating to the corporate formation and governance of Newco and the possible issuance of Newco equity pursuant to the plan of reorganization.

32. Matter 35 — Exit Financing Advice, No Third Parties

(Fees: $120,018.50; Hours: 177.50)

This Subject Matter includes legal services related to securing exit financing, including, but not limited to: (a) negotiating and documenting the terms of the proposed exit financing; (b) preparing and participating for conferences regarding exit financing structure and timing; (c) drafting and revising the relevant portions of the disclosure statement regarding exit financing; and (d) drafting and revising the repatriation note.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES

33. It is K&E's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for identifiable, non-overhead expenses incurred in connection with the client's case that would not have been incurred except for representation of that particular client. It is also K&E's policy to charge its clients only the amount actually incurred by K&E in connection with such items. Examples of such expenses are postage, overnight mail, courier delivery, transportation, overtime expenses, computer assisted legal research, photocopying, outgoing facsimile transmissions, airfare, meals and lodging.

34. In order to ensure the compliance with all applicable deadlines in these chapter 11 cases, K&E utilizes the services of overtime secretaries. K&E charges fees for these services pursuant to the prepetition engagement letter between K&E and the Debtors, which permits K&E to bill the Debtors for overtime secretarial charges that arise out of business necessity. In addition, K&E professionals also may charge their overtime meals and overtime transportation to the Debtors consistent with prepetition practices.

35. K&E charges $0.10 per page for standard duplication. K&E has negotiated a discounted rate for Westlaw computer assisted legal research, which is approximately $125 per hour of online use of the standard Westlaw databases. Computer assisted legal research is used whenever the researcher determines that using Westlaw is more cost effective than using traditional (non-computer assisted legal research) techniques.

36. A summary of expenses by type, as well as a detailed itemization and description of the disbursements made by K&E on the Debtors' behalf during the Fee Period is attached hereto as Exhibit B. All of these disbursements comprise the requested sum for K&E's out-of-pocket expenses and total $27,388.07.

REPRESENTATIONS

37. Although every effort has been made to include all fees and expenses incurred in the Fee Period, some fees and expenses might not be included in this Application due to delays caused by accounting and processing during the Fee Period. K&E reserves the right to make further application to this Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein. Subsequent fee applications will be filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and the Revised Interim Compensation Order.

WHEREFORE, K&E requests that allowance be made to it in the sum of $1,153,787.00 as compensation for necessary professional services rendered to the Debtors for the Fee Period, and the sum of $27,388.07 for reimbursement of actual costs and expenses incurred during that period, and further requests such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
